False Papers Essays On Exile And Memory:

False Papers André Aciman, 2011-04-01 Essays on memory by the author of Our Lost City We remember not because we have something we wish to go back to nor because memories are all we have We remember because memory is our most intimate most familiar gesture Most people are convinced I love Alexandria In truth I love remembering Alexandria For it is not Alexandria that is beautiful Remembering is beautiful Celebrated as one of the most poignant stylists of his generation Andr Aciman has written a witty surprising series of linked essays that ponder the experience of loss moving from his forced departure from Alexandria as a teenager through his brief stay in Europe and finally to the home he s made and half invented on Manhattan s Upper West Side

Yesterday's Self Andreea Deciu Ritivoi, 2002-08-15 The state of being called nostalgia has a history fraught with ambiguity and poetical connotation In the late 17th century nostalgic reminiscences were thought to be the symptoms of a deadly disease that shook one s mind and body Today we view nostalgia not as a medical condition but as a bittersweet recollection of one s past joys and sorrows the memories and treasures of an earlier self And yet there remains a category of individuals for whom such recollection can be seriously problematic immigrants In Yesterday s Self Andreea Ritivoi explores the philosophical and historical dimensions of nostalgia in the lives of immigrants forging a connection between current trends in the philosophy of identity and intercultural studies The book considers such questions as Does attachment to one s native culture preclude or merely influence adaptation into a new culture Do we fashion our identity in interdependence with others or do we shape it in a non contingent frame Is it possible to assimilate in an unfamiliar world without risking self alienation Ritivoi s response nostalgia is both the poison and the cure in such situations Documenting the tribulations of sojourners and immigrants Yesterday s Self illustrates how and why the cultural adjustment of immigrants can only happen when personal identity is understood as a quest for continuity in one s life story even alongside the most radical cultural rupture Ultimately reflection on the nostalgic experience reveals insights into the nature of the self and its dynamic engagement with otherness and difference

Self-same Songs Roger J. Porter,2002-01-01 Self Same Songs constitutes a major contribution to the growing literary study of autobiography Using a range of authors including Homer Edward Gibbon Benjamin Franklin

Somerset Maugham Franz Kafka and Eugène Delacroix Roger J Porter offers a broad based examination of the autobiography and the varied techniques used by its practitioners over time In a style that is both graceful and erudite Porter focuses on the diverse motivations and rhetorical functions that the act of self writing serves for particular writers He reflects on the texts not only as an exploration of self identity but also as the writers attempts to modify the life in the act of writing about it Then stepping out of his critical role Porter ends each chapter with an autobiographical discussion of his professional and personal engagement with the autobiographer under discussion creating an intriguing and absorbing literary autobiography within the critical text

Bureau of Missing Persons Roger J. Porter, 2011-05-06 A devoted reader of autobiographies and memoirs Roger J Porter has observed in recent years a surprising number of memoirs by adult children whose fathers have led secret lives Some of the fathers had second families some had secret religious lives others have been criminals liars or con men Struck by the intensely human drama of secrecy and deception played out for all to see Porter explores the phenomenon in great depth In Bureau of Missing Persons he examines a large number of these works eighteen in all placing them in a wide literary and cultural context and considering the ethical quandaries writers face when they reveal secrets so long and closely held Among the books Porter treats are Paul Auster's The Invention of Solitude Alison Bechdel's graphic memoir Fun Home Essie Mae Washington Williams's Dear Senator on her father Strom Thurmond Bliss Broyard's One Drop Mary Gordon's The Shadow Man and Geoffrey Wolff's The Duke of Deception He also discusses Nathaniel Kahn's documentary film My Architect These narratives inevitably look inward to the writer as well as outward to the parent The autobiographical children are compelled if not consumed by a desire to know They become detectives piecing together clues to fill memory voids assembling material and archival evidence public and private documents letters photographs and iconic physical objects to track down the parent

Eight White Nights André

Aciman, 2010-02-02 A LUSHLY ROMANTIC NOVEL FROM THE AUTHOR OF CALL ME BY YOUR NAME Eight White Nights is an unforgettable journey through that enchanted terrain where passion and fear and the sheer craving to ask for love and to show love can forever alter who we are A man in his late twenties goes to a large Christmas party in Manhattan where a woman introduces herself with three words I am Clara Over the following seven days they meet every evening at the same cinema Overwhelmed yet cautious he treads softly and won't hazard a move The tension between them builds gradually marked by ambivalence hope and distrust As Andr Aciman explores their emotions with uncompromising accuracy and sensuous prose they move both closer together and farther apart culminating on New Year's Eve in a final scene charged with magic and the promise of renewal Call Me by Your Name Aciman's debut novel established him as one of the finest writers of our time an expert at the most sultry depictions of longing and desire As The Washington Post Book World wrote The beauty of Aciman's writing and the purity of his passions should place this extraordinary first novel within the canon of great romantic love stories for everyone Aciman's piercing and romantic new novel is a brilliant performance from a master prose stylist

Place and Ideology in Contemporary Hebrew Literature Karen Grumberg, 2012-01-05 John Brinkerhoff Jackson theorized the vernacular landscape as one that reflects a way of life guided by tradition and custom distanced from the larger world of politics and law This quotidian space is shaped by the everyday culture of its inhabitants In Place and Ideology in Contemporary Hebrew Literature Grumberg sets anchor in this and other contemporary theories of space and place then embarks on subtle close readings of recent Israeli fiction that demonstrate how literature in practice can complicate those discourses Literature in Israel over the past twenty five years tends to be set in ordinary spaces rather than in explicitly ideologically charged locations such as contested borders and debated territories Rarely taking place in settings of war and political violence it depicts characters encounters with everyday places such as buses and cafés as central to their self conception Yet in academic discussions the imaginative representations of these sites tend to be neglected in favor of spaces more overtly relevant to religious and political debates To fill this gap Grumberg proposes a new understanding of how Israeli identity is mapped onto the spaces it inhabits She demonstrates that in the writing of many Israeli novelists even mundane sites often have significant ideological implications Exploring a wide range of authors from Amos Oz to Orly Castel Bloom Grumberg argues that literary depictions of vernacular places play a profound and often unidentified role in serving or resisting ideology

Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs. It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet. In it he discusses Barthes, the photograph's appeal, the childhood image of Kafka, family photographs and even images he never used in his writings. In addition, Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists, continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter, and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra. An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method. Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history, Krauss, film studies, Kluge, cultural theory, Benjamin, psychoanalysis, Freud, and especially photographic history and theory. Barthes, Kracauer, and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter. If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post-medium photographic practices, Searching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies.

The Routledge Handbook of Comparative Global Urban Studies Patrick Le Galès, Jennifer Robinson, 2023-09-18. The Routledge Handbook of Comparative Global Urban Studies is a timely intervention into the field of global urban studies, coming as comparison is being more widely used as a method for global urban studies and as a number of methodological experiments and comparative research projects are being brought to fruition. It consolidates and takes forward an emerging field within urban studies and makes a positive and constructive intervention into a lively arena of current debate in urban theory. Comparative urbanism injects a welcome sense of methodological rigor and a commitment to careful evaluation of claims across different contexts, which will enhance current debates in the field. Drawing together more than 50 international scholars and practitioners, this book offers an overview of key ideas and practices in the field and extends current thinking and practice. The book is primarily intended for scholars and graduate students for whom it will provide an invaluable and up-to-date guide to current thinking across the range of disciplines which converge in the study of urbanism, including geography, sociology, political studies, planning, and urban studies.

Symbolism 2018 Rüdiger Ahrens, Florian Kläger, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2018-10-08. This special issue of Symbolism: An International Annual of Critical Aesthetics explores the various functions of metaphor in life writing. Looking at a range of autobiographical subgenres: pathography, disability narratives, memoirs of migration, autofiction, and different kinds of metaphors, the contributions seek to map the possibilities of metaphor for narratively framing an individual life and for constructing notions of selfhood.

Historians in Cairo George T. Scanlon, 2002. There can be few if any historians working in the wide field of Middle East Studies and certainly none in the world of Islamic art and architecture who are unacquainted with historian and archaeologist George Scanlon. At different times from the mid 1950s to the present day he has lived, worked, and studied in Egypt. For a major part of that period he has been associated with the American University in Cairo, where he is currently professor of Islamic art and architecture in the Department of Arabic Studies. Although diverse in subject matter, the essays collected here in his honor together present a composite picture of Cairo and more broadly of Islamic history and culture from early medieval times to the present day As such they provide a fitting tribute to one of the most eminent of scholars in the field Some contributors are one time students of Professor Scanlon others are colleagues who over the years have worked with him in Egypt the United States or Britain The essays themselves reflect the wide variety of sources contributors have drawn on from international Islamic collections and archives for topics that range broadly from medieval artifacts architecture and society to current issues of law literature philosophy and urban change

Death of a Holy Land Rose L. Levinson, 2013-06-20 Death of a Holy Land Reflections in Contemporary Israeli Fiction by Rose Levinson uses the work of four contemporary Israeli authors as a lens into present day Israel Discussing the novels of Orly Castel Bloom Michal Govrin Zeruya Shalev and Yoram Kaniuk the book argues for a new understanding of today s Israel Crucial to renewed awareness is a view of the country that jettisons the notion of Israel as an exceptional sacred state immune from 21st century discontents Attention is focused on ways in which many of Israel s most pressing problems are linked to long standing issues of Jewish identity Continual reference to the novels gives weight and substance to Death of a Holy Land s underlying insistence on the need for a critical view of Israel as a country deeply ill at ease with itself
