Abstract

The summary briefly overviews the changes and problems in real estate agency practices in Malaysia from 1981 onwards. It emphasizes ethical issues, technological developments, and regulatory focus areas. The abstract also explains a comparative research study about how real estate is done in Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia, Australia, and Hong Kong to find similarities and areas needing improvement. The study discovers likenesses in controlling frameworks but indicates improvements relating to qualification standards, education levels for practitioners, and, their tactics of enforcement, and monitoring through comparing analysis.

Families And Estates A Comparative Study:

Families and Estates International Academy of Estate and Trust Law. Annual Conference,2005 Families and Estates International Academy of Estate and Trust Law. Annual Conference,2005-01-01 This book focuses upon two themes the definition of family and the impact of the expansion of the concept of family in law and family fights over wills and estates what recourse family members may have in challenging an estate The first part The challenge of the new family for Law considers the challenge both in the inter vivos and the postmortem contexts in the United States Canada France the United Kingdom Australia and New Zealand A particular focus is upon the dramatic expansion of the definition of family from the traditional nuclear family consisting of a husband wife and their mutual children to a definition that includes unmarried heterosexual and same sex couples living together and in some jurisdictions to new kinds of companionate partnerships that are not based on a sexual relationship In some jurisdictions such developments are simply an expression of sharing responsibility by allocating it in the private domain as opposed to the public potentially through social welfare in others particularly in the United States it is a defence of fundamental institutions and with it a defence of society itself The second part Family fights over wills and estates examines the law in Australia Switzerland France Mexico and the United Kingdom Its comparison of civil and common law approaches shows how the law expresses the same principle objects protection of family and obligations towards key family members but does so from entirely different perspectives and where the common law which enshrined the notion of testamentary freedom is being qualified through the expanding domain of family provision legislation the civil law which is based on codified shares and allocated responsibilities expressed through proportionate entitlements in estates is being qualified through a range of disqualifying and varying mechanisms The Family Estate in Africa Robert F. Gray,P.H. Gulliver,2013-11-05 Too often accounts of African family life have tended to describe the family in purely static terms The contributors to this book emphasize the developmental or time dimension of the family analysing it as a process In the seven different societies described in East Africa the Congo and the Transvaal the changing nature of the distribution of rights in the family property and resources is directly linked with the growth and change of the family itself First published in 1964 Women, marriage and property in wealthy landed families in Ireland, 1750-1850 Deborah Wilson,2013-07-19 Until recently women featured in the historiography of the landed class in Ireland either as bearers of assets to advantageous matches or as potential drains on family estates Drawing on a range of sources from the papers of landed families this book provides fresh insights into the place of these women Looking at women s experiences of property and power in twenty landed families between 1750 and 1850 and outlining the statutory developments that impacted upon the distribution of family property in Ireland Wilson considers how women were provided for and examines the legal social and familial factors that influenced the experience elite women had of property Individual examples demonstrate the similarities and differences between women in this class and illustrate how the experience women had of property in this period was more complex than their legal and social status might suggest This book will appeal to scholars in the fields of Irish history gender and women s studies Family and Social Change in an African City Peter Marris,2013-11-05 This book is a study of the pattern of social life which developed in the slums of central Lagos and of the effects of a compulsory slum clearance scheme on the lives of those who were removed Both parts of the study are presented clearly and vividly and are enriched with numerous quotations of statements by the people concerned as well as a quantity of information presented in statistical tables Sociological Review ESSENTIALS OF CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY A. R. N. SRIVASTAVA,2012-09-19 This well organized text continues to present the social cultural anthropological concepts and theories which have influenced the mankind in the past particularly in the twentieth century between the years 1965 and 2000 The new edition is incorporated with two new sections one defining the major concepts of sociology defining society community association and so on and the other an Appendix on Tribal Movement in India The book further provides an anthropological analysis of cultural institutions relating to society economy polity folklore and art The description of the relation between language and culture and a separate chapter on Cultural Change make this text unique Examples are taken from all across the world to describe socio economic political and religious institutions and give a panoramic view of the diverse cultures This book is intended to serve as a text for undergraduate students of Anthropology and postgraduate students of Anthropology and Sociology In addition it would also be beneficial for the students preparing for various competitive examinations KEY FEATURES Provides theoretical orientations in cultural anthropology Contains annotated references at the end of each chapter Gives an insight into the contributions of well known anthropologists Illustrates concepts through diagrams and charts thus enhancing the value of the text The Hindu Family and the Emergence of Modern India Eleanor Newbigin,2013-09-19 A study of how the development of representative politics in late colonial India transformed notions of family gender and religious community Human Reproductive Behaviour Laura Betzig,Monique Borgerhoff Mulder,Paul Turke,1988-03-31 An Unreal Estate Lucinda Carspecken,2011-11-03 In An Unreal Estate Lucinda Carspecken takes an in depth look at Lothlorien a Southern Indiana nature sanctuary sustainable camping ground festival site collective residence and experiment in ecological building stewardship and organization Carspecken notes the way fiction and reality intertwine on this piece of land and argues that examples such as Lothlorien have the power to be a force for social change Lothlorien s organization and social norms are in sharp contrast with its surrounding communities As a unique enclave within a larger society it offers to the latter both an implicit critique and a cluster of alternative values and lifestyles In addition it has created a niche where some participants change grow and find empowerment in an environment that is accepting of difference particularly in areas of religion and sexual orientation Family Capitalism Geoffrey Jones,Mary Rose,2013-08-21 First published in 1994 The articles in this collection are concerned with family owned business enterprises and span three centuries and three continents Family firms account for between 75 per cent and 99 per cent of all companies in the EC and 65 per cent of GDP and employment in Europe While the huge majority of family businesses are very small scale many are not In the United States one third of Fortune 500 companies are currently family controlled The Founder of the Ahmadiyya Movement Maulana Muhammad Ali, Land, Kinship and Life-Cycle Richard M. Smith, Jan De Vries, Paul Johnson, 2002-08-08 Essays on land transfer in English rural communities over the period 1250 1850 Inside the Great House Daniel Blake Smith, 2018-05-31 Inside the Great House explores the nature of family life and kinship in planter households of the Chesapeake during the eighteenth century a pivotal era in the history of the American family Drawing on a wide assortment of personal documents among them wills inventories diaries family letters memoirs and autobiographies as well as on the insights of such disciplines as psychology demography and anthropology Daniel Blake Smith examines family values and behavior in a plantation society Focusing on the emotional texture of the household he probes deeply into personal values and relationships within the family and the surrounding circle of kin Childrearing practices male female relationships attitudes toward courtship and marriage father son ties the character and influence of kinship familial responses to illness and death and the importance of inheritance all receive extended treatment A striking pattern of change emerges from this mosaic of life in the colonial South What had once been a patriarchal authoritarian and emotionally restrained family environment altered profoundly during the latter half of the eighteenth century The personal documents cited by Smith clearly point to the development after 1750 of a more intimate child centered family life characterized by close emotional bonds and by growing autonomy especially for sons in matters of marriage and career choice Well to do planter families inculcated in their children a strong measure of self confidence and independence as well as an abiding affection for their family society Smith shows that Americans in the North as well as in the South were developing an altered view of the family and the world beyond it a perspective which emphasized a warm and autonomous existence This fascinating study will convince its readers that the history of the American family is intimately connected with the dramatic changes in the lives of these planter families of the eighteenth century Chesapeake Manuel de civilisation britannique Bernard Cottret, Michael Hearn, Antoine Mioche, 2004 Directement issu de plusieurs années de pratique pédagogique ce manuel est principalement destiné aux étudiants d'anglais du premier cycle universitaire Sont abordés tour à tour l'environnement humain le cadre institutionnel les phénomènes politiques les questions sociales ainsi que la place de la Grande Bretagne dans le monde Un résumé en français souligne les points saillants de l'exposé en anglais afin de familiariser l'étudiant avec les nécessités des examens De nombreux tableaux ou graphiques facilitent la mémorisation des institutions ou des grandes dates de l'histoire britannique Une sélection de près de 80 textes se prête à une double utilisation soit en travaux dirigés soit sous forme de travail personnel Cette nouvelle édition a entièrement été revue et actualisée The Development of Islamic Law and Society in the Maghrib David S. Powers, 2022-02-13 The first eleven essays in this collection treat the application of Islamic law in qadi courts in the Maghrib in the period between 1100 and 1500 CE Based on preserved legal documents and the expert opinions of Muslim jurists Muftis the essays examine family law cases involving legal minority guardianship divorce inheritance bequests and endowments Cumulatively the cases bear witness to the effectiveness and efficiency of the Islamic judicial system in this period Contrary to popular perceptions the cases demonstrate that Muslim jurists placed a high value on reasoned thought and were sensitive to the manner in which law society and culture interacted with and shaped each other The final essay shows how the treatment of family endowments by colonial regimes in Algeria and India at the end of the 19th and beginning of the 20th centuries shaped or misshaped the modern western scholarly understanding of Islamic law

Family Life in the Ottoman Mediterranean Beshara Doumani, 2017-06-08 Beshara B Doumani uses a variety of local sources to examine everyday family life throughout the Ottoman Empire Telling Our Own Stories Shetler, 2021-10-11 In this collection of ethnic group histories written by authors from the Mara Region of Tanzania local people tell their stories as a way to inspire development that builds on the strengths of the past It combines histories from the small but closely related ethnic groups of Ikizu Sizaki Ikoma Ngoreme Nata Ishenyi and Tatoga in South Mara east of Lake Victoria and west of Serengeti National Park Many of the authors compiled their stories by meeting with groups of elders They were concerned to preserve history for the next generation who had not taken the time to learn the stories orally The stories were written in Swahili and translated into English with annotations and an introduction so that readers not familiar with this region might also share in the experience It also includes transcriptions of oral interviews with some of the same stories to get a sense of the ongoing conversations about the past This collection makes local history told in a local idiom accessible to students of African history interested in social memory and the creation of ethnicity
