The Love Israel Family Charles Pierce LeWarne,2015-07-21 Winner of the Malstrom Award of the League of Snohomish County Historical Organizations In 1968 a time of turbulence and countercultural movements a one time television salesman named Paul Erdmann changed his name to Love Israel and started a controversial religious commune in Seattle s middle class Queen Anne Hill neighborhood He quickly gathered a following and they too adopted the Israel surname along with biblical or virtuous first names such as Honesty Courage and Strength The burgeoning Love Israel Family lived a communal lifestyle centered on meditation and the philosophy that all persons were one and life was eternal They flourished for more than a decade owning houses and operating businesses on the Hill although rumors of drug use control of members and unconventional sexual arrangements dogged them By 1984 perceptions among many followers that some Family members especially Love Israel himself had become more equal than others led to a bitter breakup in which two thirds of the members defected The remaining faithful about a hundred strong resettled on a ranch the Family retained near the town of Arlington Washington north of Seattle There they recouped and adapted with apparent social and economic success for two more decades In The Love Israel Family Charles LeWarne tells the compelling story of this group of idealistic seekers whose quest for a communal life grounded in love service and obedience to a charismatic leader foundered when that leader s power distanced him from his followers LeWarne followed the Family for years attending its celebrations and interviewing the faithful and the disaffected alike He tells the Family's story with both sympathy and balance describing daily life in the urban and later the rural communes and explaining the Family's deeply felt spiritual beliefs The Love Israel Family is an important chapter in the history of communal experiments in the United States

To Trust or Not To Trust - Love's Labours Lost. A Sad Family Story Manny & Brigitta Davidson, 2018-07-26 Manny and Brigitta Davidson are a remarkable couple Their parents emigrants from Latvia and from Nazi occupied Poland strove to keep their heads above water and give their children a future in which to prosper Together Manny and Brigitta built a business empire from nothing having survived the terrible Blitz on London during the Second World War Their two children however have lived altogether different lives Charmed lives some might say The Davidsons business did so well that their offspring went to the finest schools enjoyed luxury holidays and lived in beautiful homes here and abroad As their success grew the Davidsons set up a trust fund for their son and daughter with two purposes First to provide generous incomes for them it is currently delivering approximately 20 million a year The second purpose was to protect the family's wealth for the future benefit of their children and further generations That wealth included the beautiful Jacobean manor Lyegrove House in Gloucestershire and all its priceless contents of art and other treasures Sadly their children decided that they would wait no longer before laying claim to all that their parents had provided and seized control of the trust in a cruel and punishing way which led to legal action and even to court Today the Davidsons live in Monaco estranged from their son and daughter They have lost their children as surely as those children have lost their parents This is their story in which they can be forgiven for echoing Shakespeare's line How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child
