The Special Educator's Guide to Collaboration Sharon F. Cramer, 2006-04-05 Publisher description

Professional Collaboration with Parents of Children with Disabilities Louise Porter, Susan McKenzie, 2000-10-23

The work of professionals with children with disabilities affects the children s family while events at home affect what professionals can achieve with the children This text describes how professionals can form collaborative relationships with the parents of the children in their care to optimise the children s development and to enable both family members and professionals to work in the children s interests It describes experiences of families who have a child with a disability and takes a new look at old assumptions that disability necessarily has a negative effect on families or that families themselves are in need of therapy simply by virtue of having a child with additional needs This text offers practical insights and guidelines for action by teachers occupational therapists physiotherapists speech pathologists and psychologists It is a practical text that enables practitioners to offer a high quality service to children while supporting the family in its role of nurturing their child with special needs

Handbook of Diversity in Parent Education Marvin J. Fine, Steven W. Lee, 2000-10-09. Traditionally, books on parent education have focused on techniques from a certain tradition, either behavioral or humanistic, that could be applied to any problem of parenting or child behavior change. These books have used a cook book approach that is frequently oblivious to environmental conditions that influence behavior or take into account the individual differences of the children or families involved. This book highlights the complexity of our society and times by exploring the problems faced by diverse types of parents, children, and parenting situations. Moreover, the sensitive issues of parenting in unique populations are handled in a caring, straight forward way with an emphasis on research based parent education programs along with tips and strategies for everyday use. Premier text on parent education in diverse populations. Features tips, strategies, websites, and support for parents. Based upon cutting edge research in parent education. Models for developing problem specific parenting programs. Step by step parent education programs for low incidence problems. Features violence and crisis prevention and intervention skills for families.
