Families Under Stress A Psychological Interpretation:

Families Under Stress Tony Manocchio, William Petitt, 2015-07-24 The family is perhaps the most important single institution in everyone's life What happens in such an intense group How does it develop over time What happens when stress is placed upon it whether generated from inside or outside the family Originally published in 1975 when the late Tony Manocchio was one of the leading practitioners of family therapy in Britain and Scandinavia this title written with his colleague William Petitt is a lively study of communication within families revealing the universal problems common to all The authors demonstrate and illuminate the application of communication principles by analysing healthy and unhealthy family systems in six major plays The Winslow Boy Riders to the Sea Hamlet A Long Day's Journey into Night Death of a Salesman and A Delicate Balance As part of this analysis they examine the difficulties family members have in allowing for differences in sharing secrets and the ease with which a whole family can scapegoat a single member They give a number of short case histories and examples from other plays which further illustrate the importance of communicating clearly The book will still be of value to all those interested in the uses of family therapy and also to students of literature for the human insight it offers into the texts discussed

Feminist mental health activism in England, c. 1968-95 Kate Mahoney, 2023-12-12 Feminist mental health activism in England c 1968 1995 provides the first in depth examination of feminist mental health activism in England employing original oral history interviews alongside detailed case studies of unexplored feminist initiatives It charts how feminist activists in the late 1960s initially rejected psychological approaches before employing a range of therapies to understand themselves and support one another This book charts the emergence of feminist mental health groups in the early 1970s the development of feminist therapy across the 1980s and the influence of feminist politics on national charity Mind in the 1990s It examines what participation in feminist activism felt like demonstrating how these emotions have influenced the construction of its history The book simultaneously forges a new direction in the history of mental healthcare in postwar England establishing how feminists grassroots support for women redefined community care

The Ludic Self in Seventeenth-Century English Literature Anna K. Nardo, 1991-09-03 This book argues that play offered Hamlet John Donne George Herbert Andrew Marvell Robert Burton and Sir Thomas Browne a way to live within the contradictions and conflicts of late Renaissance life by providing a new stance for the self Grounding its argument in recent theories of play and in a historical analysis that sees the seventeenth century as a point of crisis in the formation of the western self the author demonstrates how play helped mediate this crisis and how central texts of the period enact this mediation

The Cambridge Companion to Arthur Miller Christopher Bigsby, 2010-04-22 Arthur Miller is regarded as one of the most important playwrights of the twentieth century and his work continues to be widely performed and studied around the world This updated Companion includes Miller's work since the publication of the first edition in 1997 the plays Mr Peters Connections Resurrection Blues and Finishing the Picture and key productions of his plays since his death in 2005 The chapter on Miller and the cinema has been completely revised to include new films and demonstrates that Miller's work remains an important source for filmmakers In addition to detailed analyses of plays including Death of a Salesman and The Crucible Miller's work is also placed within the context of the social and political climate of the time The volume closes with a bibliographic essay which reviews the key studies of Miller and also contains a detailed chronology of the work of this influential dramatist

The Psychological Effects of War and Violence on Children Lewis A. Leavitt, Nathan A. Fox, 2014-01-14 The outgrowth of a conference planned as a response to the need for researchers and clinicians to develop integrated plans for addressing the psychological trauma of children exposed to violence this volume's goals are to summarize research on the subject with particular emphasis on the Gulf War to use this information to formulate an outline of what current knowledge suggests are reasonable approaches to public mental health intervention and to develop an agenda for future research necessary for improving clinical efforts in varying international conflicts A significant collection of diverse perspectives attending to a diversity of cultural and political contexts the contributors offer many conclusions about important dimensions for analyzing the effects of violence on children Suggesting informed approaches to public mental health efforts which can be implemented the work presented here directs attention to the need for interdisciplinary collaboration among researchers and clinicians to better understand the effects of exposure to violence on the psychological well being of children and the optimal modes of remediation on individual family and community levels

Arthur Miller - Death of a Salesman/The Crucible Stephen Marino, 2015-08-16 Arthur Miller was one of the most important American playwrights and political and cultural figures of the 20th century Both Death of a Salesman and The Crucible stand out as his major works the former is always in performance somewhere in the world and the latter is Miller's most produced play As major modern American dramas they are the subject of a huge amount of criticism which can be daunting for students approaching the plays for the first time This Reader's Guide introduces the major critical debates surrounding the plays and discusses their unique production histories initial theatre reviews and later adaptations The main trends of critical inquiry and scholars who have purported them are examined as are the views of Miller himself a prolific self critic

Pinter's Female Portraits Elizabeth Sakellaridou, 1988-01-01 The book traces the development of Pinter's female characters both as dramatis personae and as theatrical functionaries It explores a new exciting aspect of Pinter's work in the domain of character portrayal and it supplies a kaleidoscopic view of Pinter criticism to date at home and abroad

Families in Rehabilitation Counseling Michael Millington, 2014-10-24 Presents an innovative family based approach to rehabilitation counseling that can be put to use immediately While the family has traditionally been a secondary consideration in rehabilitation this graduate text presents an innovative approach to rehabilitation counseling that focuses on the family as the center of a person centered model rather than as an adjunct to individual counseling It advocates counseling in the context of community requiring the recognition of social transaction as the primary focus of all interventions The book provides the tools and knowledge base to effectively work with the family and within the community delivering a new inclusive model of care and establishing best practices in research practice training and management The text examines the rationale for embracing family values in rehabilitation counseling and provides a framework that redefines the relationship between counselor and client in the context of family and community It describes the community based rehabilitation model in detail according to the International Classification of Function ICF and presents a series of illustrative disability profiles distilled from systematic reviews of the literature reflecting this framework In each case the impact upon family participation is illustrated and optimal service and support resources are identified The role and function of the rehabilitation counselor provide the integrative conclusion to each chapter The book also describes grassroots initiatives the role of family in community based rehabilitation in developing countries family policy across rehabilitation systems and best practices in research training and management Additionally the text comes with access to an Instructor s Manual that includes case study discussion questions classroom activities and multiple choice questions Key Features Describes an innovative family community focused approach to rehabilitation counseling framed in ICF taxonomy Presents a pragmatic model that can be put to use immediately Describes an array of family experiences across disability contexts providing an opportunity to critique current practice through the lens of community based constructs Provides plentiful case studies based on family narratives Broadens the scope of practice with service initiatives from around the world Includes an Instructor s Manual with case study discussion questions classroom activities and multiple choice questions Families & Change Sharon J. Price,Christine A. Price,Patrick C. McKenry,2010 Change is an integral part of any family s day to day experience Problems crises transitions and change all affect the family as our society progresses into a more complicated future Researchers and practitioners grapple with such complex issues as divorce violence and changing family structures each day and require suggestions and solutions to tough situations associated with families and change This book integrates scholarship from a variety of disciplines to address the most common problems faced by contemporary families This new edition includes a chapter on LGBT families and covers military families In addition It also has a new student study site and faculty resources

Children, Youth, and Families Robert N. Rapoport,1985-10-31 This book first published in 1986 examines the connections between social science research and actions to improve the situations of children and families

Risk and Resilience in U.S. Military Families Shelley MacDermid-Wadsworth,David Riggs,2010-11-03 War related separations challenge military families in many ways The worry and uncertainty associated with absent family members exacerbates the challenges of personal social and economic resources on the home front U S military operations in Iraq and Afghanistan have sent a million service personnel from the U S alone into conflict areas leaving millions of spouses children and others in stressful circumstances This is not a new situation for military families but it has taken a toll of magnified proportions in recent times In addition medical advances have prolonged the life of those who might have died of injuries As a result more families are caring for those who have experienced amputation traumatic brain injury and profound psychological wounds The Department of Defence has launched unprecedented efforts to support service members and families before during and after deployment in all locations of the country as well as in remote locations Stress in U S Military Families brings together an interdisciplinary group of experts from the military to the medical to examine the issues of this critical problem Its goal is to review the factors that contribute to stress in military families and to point toward strategies and policies that can help Covering the major topics of parenting marital functioning and the stress of medical care and including a special chapter on single service members it serves as a comprehensive guide for those who will intervene in these problems and for those undertaking their research

Seven Years in the Lives of British Families Berthoud, Richard, Gershuny, Jonathan, 2000-11-22 The results of a seven year survey drawing on a sample of 5000 households are presented here to demonstrate the dynamics of the family in such fields as employment income and household formation Returning Home from Iraq and Afghanistan Institute of Medicine, Board on the Health of Select Populations, Committee on the Assessment of Readjustment Needs of Military Personnel, Veterans, and Their Families, 2013-04-12 As of December 2012 Operation Enduring Freedom OEF in Afghanistan and Operation Iraqi Freedom OIF in Iraq have resulted in the deployment of about 2.2 million troops there have been 2,222 US fatalities in OEF and Operation New Dawn OND 1 and 4,422 in OIF The numbers of wounded US troops exceed 16,000 in Afghanistan and 32,000 in Iraq In addition to deaths and morbidity the operations have unforeseen consequences that are yet to be fully understood In contrast with previous conflicts the all volunteer military has experienced numerous deployments of individual service members has seen increased deployments of women parents of young children and reserve and National Guard troops and in some cases has been subject to longer deployments and shorter times at home between deployments Numerous reports in the popular press have made the public aware of issues that have pointed to the difficulty of military personnel in readjusting after returning from Iraq and Afghanistan Many of those who have served in OEF and OIF readjust with few difficulties but others have problems in readjusting to home reconnecting with family members finding employment and returning to school In response to the return of large numbers of veterans from Iraq and Afghanistan with physical health and mental health problems and to the growing readjustment needs of active duty service members veterans and their family members Congress included Section 1661 of the National Defense Authorization Act for fiscal year 2008 That section required the secretary of defense in consultation with the secretary of veterans affairs to enter into an agreement with the National Academies for a study of the physical health mental health and other readjustment needs of members and former members of the armed forces who were deployed in OIF or OEF their families and their communities as a result of such deployment The study consisted of two phases The Phase 1 task was to conduct a preliminary assessment The Phase 2 task was to provide a comprehensive assessment of the physical psychologic social and economic effects of deployment on and identification of gaps in care for members and former members their families and their communities The Phase 1 report was completed in March 2010 and delivered to the Department of Defense DOD the Department of Veterans Affairs VA and the relevant committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate The secretaries of DOD and VA responded to the Phase 1 report in September 2010 Returning Home from Iraq and Afghanistan Assessment of Readjustment Needs of Veterans Service Members and Their Families fulfills the requirement for Phase 2

Sourcebook of Family Theories and Methods Pauline Boss, William J. Doherty, Ralph LaRossa, Walter R. Schumm, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, 2008-11-19 Origins We call this book on theoretical orientations and methodological strategies in family studies a sourcebook because it details the social and personal roots i e sources from which these orientations and strategies flow Thus an appropriate way to preface this book is to talk first of its roots its beginnings In the mid 1980s there emerged in some quarters the sense that it was time for family studies to take stock of itself A goal was thus set to write a book that like Janus would face both backward and forward a book that would give readers both a perspective on the past and a map for the future There were precedents for such a project The Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Harold Christensen and published in 1964 the two Contemporary Theories about the Family volumes edited by Wesley Burr Reuben Hill F Ivan Nye and Ira Reiss published in 1979 and the Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Marvin Sussman and Suzanne Steinmetz then in production
