Family A Christian Social Perspective:

Family Lisa Sowle Cahill, 2000 IS there an authentically Christian notion of family Cahill asserts that the usual religious agenda of restoring the traditional nuclear family is actually misinformed and misguided Her study of the early church John Chrysostom Martin Luther the Puritans and recent Church teachings reveals an alternative Christian vision of the altruistic family animated by Christian discipleship to stand for compassion generosity and justice The Family and Christian Ethics Petruschka Schaafsma, 2023-08-10 Explores family not as a problem but as a mystery in order to understand its current controversial character The Family Jack O. Balswick, Judith K. Balswick, 2007-06 This proven resource covers every issue that affects family life The third edition includes updates to all chapters and the inclusion of current research The Sociological Perspective Michael Leming, Raymond De Vries, Brendan Furnish, 2009-10-10 Sociology and Christianity Attempting to bring sociology and Christianity together is like trying to mix oil and water Christians seem to have as little regard for sociology as sociologists generally have for Christianity However in the middle of this conflict there is a group bold enough to call themselves Christian sociologists they are not willing to be stereotyped but are seriously committed to both realms This collection of essays covers topics that are typically addressed in introductory sociology courses Written from a Christian point of view these essays are also geared for a wide range of readers from undergraduates to professional sociologists who bring faith commitments to the sociological task The editors goal is to provide an understanding of societal forces that is informed by a Christian conscience Toward that end certain recurring themes are found in this book the need for informed Christian social action the conflict between the individual and the community the conflict between freedom and determinism and the significance of social sin Equality and the Family Don S. Browning, 2007 In Equality and the Family Don Browning pulls together essays he has published in the past in order to shed light on the path we should take in the future He contends that practical theology can be envisioned as a practical research program and he uses the very concrete example of the family to illustrate how this works Though it may sound unlikely that equality in the family can be based on Christian ideas Browning insists that it can and that it should His desire is to be pro family and pro marriage in ways that create justice and equality within the family Based on this goal he argues for the church's ideal model of the mother father partnership to be balanced with an understanding and acceptance of the pluralism of family forms as a part of modern life including church life A brief introduction of each essay is included to help the reader understand the original context of the piece The Oxford Handbook of Religious Perspectives on Reproductive Ethics Davis, 2023 As I write this introduction the third season of the Israeli series Shtisel has arrived on Netflix eagerly awaited by viewers around the world who would never have imagined how caught up they would get by this family drama of four generations of ultra Orthodox Jews living in Jerusalem One episode focuses on Ruchami and Hanina a young couple who have been married for five years but without children It turns out that pregnancy and childbirth would threaten Ruchami's life She is using an IUD

but she keeps threatening to have it removed risking her life to become a mother Finally with great reluctance Hanina visits the rebbe the spiritual authority in their community to discuss the possibility of using a surrogate They are says the rebbe caught between two non ideal situations surrogacy normally forbidden is non ideal but so is Ruchami s unhappiness and the possibility that she might go ahead and take the risk which is also forbidden

The Equal-Regard Family and Its Friendly Critics John Witte,M. Christian Green,Amy Wheeler,2007-10-17 This volume is both a celebration and an evaluation of the work on sex marriage and family life by Don S Browning the dean of modern family studies in theological ethics and practical theology Scholars probe a number of Browning s contributions particularly his call for an ethic of equal regard within the household and wider society This book is a true interdisciplinary effort with insights from psychology history law theology biology ethics feminist theology childhood studies and education theory The Equal Regard Family and Its Friendly Critics includes seven honorary forewords ten original essays and a concluding essay by Don Browning himself Contributors Herbert Anderson Carol Browning Don S Browning Lisa Sowle Cahill M Christian Green Timothy P Jackson Martin E Marty Rebekah Miles Bonnie J Miller McLemore Richard Robert Osmer Garrett E Paul Stephen J Pope David Popenoe Stephen M Tipton Mary Stewart Van Leeuwen Linda J Waite John Wall Amy Wheeler Barbara Dafoe Whitehead John Witte Jr

The Understanding of Family in Ghana as a Challenge for a Contextual Ecclesiology Moses Asaah Awinongya,2013 The life and nature of the Church are better understood in terms of a self identity that relies on the language and cultural framework of the stakeholders Since theological reflections do not take place in a vacuum the socio cultural context gains importance The question is How much culture can the Church as a whole accommodate without losing its universal character With a focus on the West African country of Ghana this book analyzes the potential trade offs and conflicts between the Church and culture in a pluri religious and multi cultural society Further it shows the dangers of exclusion within the Church and offers possible solutions Series Studien zur systematischen Theologie und Ethik Vol 64

T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Ethics Tobias Winright,2020-12-10 The T T Clark Handbook of Christian Ethics provides an ecumenical introduction to Christian ethics its sources methods and applications With contributions by theological ethicists known for their excellence in scholarship and teaching the essays in this volume offer fresh purchase on and an agenda for the discipline of Christian ethics in the 21st century The essays are organized in three sections following an introduction that presents the four font approach and elucidates why it is critically employed through these subsequent sections The first section explores the sources of Christian ethics including each of the four fonts scripture tradition experience and reason The second section examines fundamental or basic elements of Christian ethics and covers different methods approaches and voices in doing Christian ethics such as natural law virtue ethics conscience responsibility narrative worship and engagement with other religions The third section addresses current moral issues in politics medicine economics ecology criminal justice and other related spheres from the perspective of Christian ethics including war genetics neuroethics end of life decisions marriage family work sexuality nonhuman animals migration aging policing incarceration capital punishment and more The Ethics of Encounter Mescher, Marcus, 2020-03-18 The author provides an ethical framework for the culture of encounter that Pope Francis calls us to build International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity Just Love Margaret Farley, 2008-02-15 Winner of the 2008 Grawemeyer Award in Religion This long awaited book by one of American Christianity's foremost ethicists proposes a framework for sexual ethics whereby justice is the criterion for all loving including love that is related to sexual activity and relationships It begins with historical and cross cultural explorations then addresses the large questions of embodiment gender and sexuality and finally delineates the justice framework for sexual ethics Though Just Love's particular focus is Christian sexual ethics Farley's framework is broad enough to have relevance for multiple traditions Also covered are specific issues in sexual ethics including same sex relationships marriage and family divorce and second marriage Human Families Kohlhaas, Jacob M., Roche Doyle, Mary M., 2021-05-19 The 2020 annual volume of the College Theology Society with essays on the theme of families and Christianity in such areas as migration race and economic inequality A Theology of Love Werner G. Jeanrond, 2010-01-21 This book explores the different dimensions of Christian love It argues that all expressions of love are wrestling with the challenge of otherness The Cambridge Companion to Christian Ethics Robin Gill, 2011-11-24 In this second edition of the best selling Cambridge Companion to Christian Ethics Robin Gill brings together twenty essays by leading experts to provide a comprehensive introduction to Christian ethics which is both authoritative and up to date This volume boasts four entirely new chapters while previous chapters and all bibliographies have been updated to reflect significant developments in the field over the last decade Gill offers a superb overview of the subject examining the scriptural bases of ethics as well as discussing Christian ethics in the context of contemporary issues including war and the arms trade social justice ecology economics medicine and genetics All of the contributors have a proven track record of balanced comprehensive and comprehensible writing making this book an accessible and invaluable source not only for students in upper level undergraduate courses graduate students and teachers but anyone interested in Christian ethics today

Combing the Tradition Fred Herron, 2007 This is a sketchbook of the twin realities of Catholic faith and Catholic schools A theological vision of the Catholic religious imagination provides the framework for viewing these realities from different angles Taking Pope Benedict XVI's remark that truth is in the Whole this book looks at Catholic faith and education from the rich perspective of the sacramental or Catholic imagination Historian John Tracy Ellis's conviction that this age will be known as the era of baptismal consciousness reflects a growing awareness in the entire Christian community that it must take its responsibilities in evangelization seriously Combing the Tradition is an attempt to comb the Catholic tradition from the point of view of this re-emerging baptismal consciousness It marvels at the role that Catholic schools teachers parents and students play in recreating this great truth It finds God's loving hand at work in the lives of citizens seeking meaning at Ground Zero in the re-emerging theology of the domestic church and in understanding the task of Catholic education It raises questions concerning the impact of consumer society on the lives of our young people and finds hope in schools which continue to shape the religious imaginations of the next generation of a community of disciples

Reflections from the Marriage Table Ron Clark, Lori A. Clark, 2016-11-01 In the midst of hectic and fast-paced families one stable element that can bring grace love and joy is the table Biblically the table was a place of mercy unity and hospitality Marriage also is a uniting of male and female to complement and partner to create a new family ministry and community When the marriage table becomes a central element sacred and safe spaces are created for individuals couples and families to thrive and mature as God intended Ron and Lori Clark share their experiences as a couple in ministry working with family violence and creating safe spaces for their marriage and children to mature and develop healthy self-esteem This book with discussion questions is designed to help couples find partnership peace and grow together in relationship and love whether in ministry or simply seeking to be who God called them to be

The Oxford Handbook of Theology, Sexuality, and Gender Adrian Thatcher, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Theology Sexuality and Gender presents an unrivalled overview of the theological study of sexuality and gender These topics are not merely contentious and pervasive they have escalated in importance within theology Theologians increasingly agree that even the very doctrine of God cannot be contemplated without a prior grappling with each Featuring 41 newly commissioned essays written by some of the foremost scholars in the discipline this authoritative collection presents and develops the latest thinking in these areas Divided into eight thematic sections the Handbook explores methodological approaches contributions from neighbouring disciplines sexuality and gender in the Bible and in the Christian tradition controversies within the churches and within four of the non-Christian faiths and key concepts and issues The final extended section considers theology in relation to married people and families gay and lesbian people bisexual people intersex and transgender people disabled people and to friends

This volume is an essential reference for students and scholars which will also stimulate further research A Textbook of Christian Ethics Robin Gill, 2014-01-16 Robin Gill's A Textbook of Christian Ethics continues to be popular with students and lecturers it is difficult to find another textbook in the field that combines primary texts with extensive analysis and commentary This 4th edition has been extensively revised and it incorporates up to date developments in the field of Christian ethics Gill retains all the popular features of the previous editions including its layout and structure and in this new edition he also focuses on current debates including such topics as global Christianity global economics euthanasia and global justice and the environment Christian Kinship David A. Torrance, 2022-09-22 Ideas of kinship play a significant role in structuring everyday life and yet kinship has been neglected in Christian ethics moral philosophy and bioethics Attention has been paid in these disciplines to the ethics of family but with little regard to the evidence that kinship varies widely from culture to culture suggesting that it is in fact culturally constructed Surveying notions of shared substance e.g blood ties house gender and personhood as theorised and practiced in the Christian tradition Torrance critiques the special privileging of the blood tie In the place of European and American cultural assumptions to the contrary it is kinship in Christ that is presented as the basis of a truly Christian account for social ties Torrance also aims to stimulate the moral imagination to consider Christian kinship might be lived out in miniature in everyday life
