Hyegyong JaHyun Kim Haboush, 2013-09-14 Lady Hyegyong's memoirs which recount the chilling murder of her husband by his father form one of the best known and most popular classics of Korean literature. From 1795 until 1805 Lady Hyegyong composed this masterpiece depicting a court life Shakespearean in its pathos, drama, and grandeur. Presented in its social, cultural, and historical contexts, this first complete English translation opens a door into a world teeming with conflicting passions, political intrigue, and the daily preoccupations of a deeply intelligent and articulate woman. JaHyun Kim Haboush's accurate, fluid translation captures the intimate and expressive voice of this consummate storyteller. Reissued nearly twenty years after its initial publication with a new foreword by Dorothy Ko, The Memoirs of Lady Hyegyong is a unique exploration of Korean selfhood and an extraordinary example of autobiography in the premodern era. Get It Together Melanie Cullen, 2024-09-01 If you die or get sick, your loved ones will need access to important details that only you may know. This workbook helps you organize and store that information so that it's available when they need it. It's not just a notebook with lists; it's a workbook that helps you find, organize, and store your records. Approaches to Teaching the Works of Amitav Ghosh Gaurav Desai, John Hawley, 2019-05-01 Offers techniques for teaching the works of Amitav Ghosh in college world literature, single-author, and general education courses, including considerations of genres, postcolonial identities, translocation, migration, oceanic spaces, feminism, language, genres, and intersectional reading. Provides bibliographical resources. Doing Family in Second-Generation British Migration Literature Corinna Assmann, 2018-09-24 Due to the large-scale global transformations of the 20th century, migration literature has become a vibrant genre over the last decades. In these novels, issues of transcultural identity and belonging naturally feature prominently. This study takes a closer look at the ways in which the idea of family informs processes of identity construction. It explores changing roles and meanings of the diasporic family as well as intergenerational family relations in a migration setting in order to identify the specific challenges, problems, and possibilities that arise in this context. This book builds on insights from different fields of family research, e.g., sociology, psychology, communication studies, memory studies, to provide a conceptual framework for the investigation of synchronic and diachronic family constellations and connections. The approach developed in this study not only sheds new light on contemporary British migration literature but can also prove fruitful for analyses of families in literature more generally. By highlighting the relevance and multifaceted nature of doing family, this study also offers new perspectives for transcultural memory studies. The Seven, a Family Holocaust Story Ellen Friedman, 2017-11-13 A literary memoir of exile and survival in Soviet prison camps during the Holocaust. Most Polish Jews who survived the Second World War did not go to concentration camps but were banished by Stalin to the remote prison settlements and Gulags of the Soviet Union. Less than ten percent of Polish Jews came out of the war alive; the largest population of Jews who endured for whom Soviet exile was the main chance for survival. Ellen G. Friedman's The Seven: A Family Holocaust Story is an account of this displacement. Friedman always knew that she was born to Polish Jewish parents on the run from Hitler, but her family did not describe themselves as Holocaust survivors since that label seemed only to apply only to those who came out of the concentration camps with numbers tattooed on their arms The title of the book comes from the closeness that set seven individuals apart from the hundreds of thousands of other refugees in the Gulags of the USSR The Seven a name given to them by their fellow refugees were Polish Jews from Warsaw most of them related The Seven A Family Holocaust Story brings together the very different perspectives of the survivors and others who came to be linked to them providing a glimpse into the repercussions of the Holocaust in one extended family who survived because they were loyal to one another lucky and endlessly enterprising Interwoven into the survivors accounts of their experiences before during and after the war are their own and the author's reflections on the themes of exile memory love and resentment Based on primary interviews and told in a blending of past and present experiences Friedman gives a new voice to Holocaust memory one that is sure to resonate with today's exiles and refugees Those with an interest in World War II memoir and genocide studies will welcome this unique perspective Rewriting American Identity in the Fiction and Memoirs of Isabel Allende B. Craig, 2013-08-20

Moving away from territorially bound narratives toward a more kinetic conceptualization of identity this book represents the first analysis of the politics of American identity within the fiction and memoirs of Isabel Allende Craig offers a radical transformation of societal frameworks through revised notions of place temporality and space Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche, 2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research The New England Biblioplist, Or Notices of Books on American History, Biography, Genealogy, Etc, 1881

Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography ADB contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995 The first of two volumes for the 1990s it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians The volume is still in the shadow of World War II with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non white non male non privileged and non straight subjects The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Ngannawal Elder Violet Bulger Aboriginal rights activist poet playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo HIV AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Grafhorst have entries as does conductor Stuart Challender the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV AIDS condition in 1991 The arts are as always well represented including writers Frank Hardy Mary Durack and Nene Gare actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale and arts patron Ian Potter We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration flow through to the ADB Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostoja Kotkowski was born in Poland Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co founded the Spanish Club of Sydney Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953 Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects politician Olive Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government's campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography

Family, and Self Giovanni Ciappelli,2014-04-10 The family book a kind of diary written by and about the family for its various members was established by scholars as a genre in Italy in the 1980s Although initially regarded as an Italian genre the family book can also be found in other parts of Europe Nevertheless the genre can be traced back to Florence where it first emerged and consequently flourished with the lavish production of such documents This abundance springs from the social structure of the city where such texts were essential for establishing and cultivating the basis for the social promotion of Florentine families This book presents a reconstruction of the evolution and persistency of Tuscan family books as well as a study of several aspects of social history including reading and private libraries domestic devotion and the memory of historical events Starting with the Renaissance the investigation then broadens to the 17th 18th centuries and considers other forms of memory such as private diaries and autobiographies A final section is dedicated to the issue of memory in the egodocuments of early modern Europe This book was translated by Susan Amanda George
