Family Issues In Current Gerontology:

Family Issues in Current Gerontology Lillian E. Troll, 1986      Aging and Family Therapy George Hughston, Victor Christopherson, Marilyn Bojean, 2013-04-15 Enhance the intervention strategies you use in therapy with older adults and their families This significant new book provides practitioners with information insight reference sources and other valuable tools that will contribute to more effective intervention with the elderly and their families Outstanding scholars have contributed original material that addresses the major issues in treating the elderly from the practitioner's point of view the biological psychological social and spiritual concerns of the aged are examined in order to formulate a systemic and comprehensive treatment plan Destined to become a classic in a challenging new area of psychotherapy the unique Aging and Family Therapy promises to guide and inform practitioners who will be called upon to provide assistance to the increasing number of older adults who will be in need of mental health services      The Aging Family Terry D. Hargrave, Suzanne Midori Hanna, 1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Family Systems and Life-span Development Kurt Kreppner, Richard M. Lerner, 2013-05-13 This interdisciplinary volume presents international research and theories focusing on the development of the individual across the life span Centering on family as the key context influencing and being influenced by the developing person the contributors to this volume discuss an array of theoretical models methodological strategies and substantive foci linking the study of individual development the family system and the broader context of human development The volume presents continuing empirical research and theories in the realm of individual and family development and features a developmental contextual view from a process oriented vantage point      Handbook of Aging and the Family Rosemary Blieszner, Victoria Hilkevitch Bedford, 1996-07-30 No other reference provides such a comprehensive and timely overview of theory and research on family relationships the contexts of family life and major turning points in late life families It includes many suggestions for theoretical and practical applications for future research on a score of important topics This multidisciplinary survey is an invaluable library reference and teaching resource intended for upper level undergraduate and graduate students teachers and practitioners for gerontologists family scholars psychologists sociologists historians social workers health care providers and policy makers

Families and Aging Linda Burton, 2019-03-28 The complexity and diversity of families and aging has generated the necessity for research policy and program agendas that address emerging issues and needs for elderly Americans and their families This volume is an effort towards that end an effort towards fostering a different perspective at families and aging

Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70      Handbook of Emotion, Adult Development, and Aging Carol Magai, Susan H. McFadden, 1996-10-24 The field of emotions research has recently seen an unexpected period of growth and expansion both in traditional psychological literature and in gerontology The Handbook of Emotion Adult Development and Aging provides a broad overview and summary of where this field stands today specifically with reference to life course issues and aging Written by a distinguished group of contributing authors the text is grounded in a life span developmental framework while advancing a multidimensional view of emotion and its development and incorporating quantitative and qualitative research findings The book is divided into five parts Part One discusses five major theoretical perspectives including biological discrete emotions ethological humanistic and psychosocial Part Two on affect and cognition discusses the role of emotion in memory problem solving and internal perceptions of self and gender Part Three on emotion and relationships expands on the role of emotion in sibling and parent child relationships as well as relationships between friends and romantic partners and the emotional reaction to interpersonal loss across the life span Part Four on stress health and psychological well being treats issues of stress and coping religion personality and quality of life The final part on continuity and change in emotion patterns and personality discusses emotion and emotionality throughout the life span An ideal reference source for professionals across a wide range of disciplines the text summarizes recent important developments in this fast growing area of psychology and proposes many new directions for future research Provides a biopsychological view on emotion in adulthood from a life span context Presents the new perspective on emotion in older adults actively engaged in emotion self regulation Describes the intimate connection between emotion and the structure of personality Demonstrates a new perspective on what emotion is its importance across the life span its connections with cognition its role in interpersonal relation and the way it influences both stability and change in adulthood Illustrates the interpersonal nature of emotion Provides theoretically based leading edge research from international authors Five areas of coverage include Theoretical perspectives Affect and cognition Emotion and relationships Stress health and psychological well being Continuity and change in emotion patterns and personality Coverage includes Five major theoretical perspectives including biological discrete emotions ethological humanistic and psychosocial The role of emotion in memory problem solving and internal perceptions of self and gender The role of emotion in sibling and parent child relationships relationships between friends and romantic partners and the emotional reaction to interpersonal loss across the lifespan Issues of stress and coping religion personality and quality of life Emotion and emotionality throughout the lifespan

Caregiving Systems Steven H. Zarit, Leonard I. Pearlin, K. Warner Schaie, 2019-02-21 Caregiving has emerged as a critical issue in the second half of the life cycle With the growth of the older population there have been dramatic increases in the number of people needing care and assistance The responsibility for care typically falls on families at a time when they have limited resources to meet these needs At a societal level the need for care for growing numbers of disabled elders poses a major challenge for how to organize supportive services in an efficient and responsive system Bringing together multiple perspectives on caregiving the authors explore informal and formal family caregiving and the pivotal issue of how these systems interface and interact An overview of this variation is provided by examining family caregiving from three perspectives the effects of culture on helping patterns and family responsibility how different disabilities affect patterns of family care and longitudinal perspectives on the impact that caregiving has on family members      A Localized Culture of Welfare Kwok-shing Chan, 2012-10-25 Hong Kong has undergone rapid and substantial social economic political and demographic changes since the 1970s This book examines critically the real impact of these changes on a single surname village in rural Hong Kong It draws on anthropological fieldwork conducted during the late 1990s and the early 2000s This ethnographic study demonstrates that kinship particularly agnatic kinship has remained a valuable resource for Pang villagers enabling them to acquire key welfare entitlements and to secure a good measure of economic and social well being Kinship affiliation has provided and still provides admittedly differential access to political patronage and legal entitlements financial assistance and the substantial benefits of corporate property holding physical protection and political leadership employment care giving and support networks housing needs old age security a ritually imagined community with a sense of spiritual well being Agnatic kinship has been organized as a corporate institution and as a quasi religious community through which substantial support protection and privileged access is provided for villagers At the same time reliance on this elaborate localized culture of welfare has maintained or reinforced the contours of stratification and inequality among Pang villagers even as lineage identity has remained largely intact in the face of changing external circumstances      Life-Span Development and Behavior David L. Featherman, Richard M. Lerner, 2019-05-24 The final volume in this significant series this publication mirrors the broad scientific attention given to ideas and issues associated with the life span perspective constancy and change in human development opportunities for and constraints on plasticity in structure and function across life the potential for intervention across the entire life course and thus for the creation of an applied developmental science individual differences diversity in life paths in contexts or the ecology of human development and in changing relations between people and contexts interconnections and discontinuities across age levels and developmental periods and the importance of integrating biological psychological social cultural and historical levels of organization in order to understand human development      Families Susan K Pfeifer, Marvin B Sussman, 2014-06-17 This special volume is devoted to the synthesis and review of theoretical and conceptual approaches associated with familial and non familial connections across the life span An important book as society returns to the family it compares and contrasts different disciplinary perspectives associated with intergenerational relationships Because intergenerational relationships have been the focus of research in many disciplines various perspectives have emerged about kin and non kin connections Renewed interest in families and familial connections is due largely to events and situations occurring in complex modernized societies which place the intergenerational nexus on center stage The leading researchers represented in this outstanding book provide rare opportunity for the scholarly comparison of the various perspectives in the broader spectrum of family relations Families Intergenerational and Generational Connecting is a significant addition to the body of research on family connections The three major areas of generational and intergenerational connections include theoretical and conceptual perspectives connections within the family and connections outside the family As the use of families as support networks for individual members increases this timely book will be an invaluable aid to educators students and researchers concerned about families and familial and non familial relationships Counselors and therapists will value this enlightening book with its diverse theoretical and conceptual perspectives on kinship intergenerational solidarity and relations social supports and cross national perspectives on family connections

Aging in the Family George Dickinson,Brenda Sanders,2018-10-31 With a rapidly aging population throughout the world the issue of larger percentages of older adults has repercussions for both policy and the job market Whether a university student about to seek a full time job or a caregiver for an older person Aging in the Family should enhance the reader s knowledge and skills The main topics covered in this volume include marital status of older adults support systems within families crises with older adults within families the resilience of older adults entering the latter stages of life practical information involving caregiving aging in place and various social services for an aging population The reader will be made aware of intergenerational interactions between older adults and other family members in various cultures The role of ethnicity and socio economic status in health issues of older adults will be discussed as will the application of technology to an aging population Though problems certainly exist as one ages the overall thrust of the book is toward the positive aspects of growing old Numerous theories exist to probe research and understanding of older adults in families The relation between theory and research will be helpful to many students of aging in the family Older adults are generally married yet cohabitation and other options are alive and well too Ageism death and abuse unfortunately are issues affecting aging Yet most older adults in the US and Western Europe report living independently and being satisfied with their lives Aging in the Family will be an interesting read for anyone wanting to learn about older adults and family relationships as it exhibits a blend of both theoretical and practical matters

Changing Aging, Changing Family Therapy Paul R. Peluso,Richard E. Watts,Mindy Parsons,2013 Sixty is the new forty Changing Aging Changing Family Therapy gives family therapists a roadmap for adapting to the new realities of aging

Case Studies in Mental Health Treatment Robert Kalina,2021-05-13 The key aims of this text are to illustrate the use of various types of mental health treatments and to provide in depth examples of common psychological disorders supported by case studies The 34 journal articles in this book authored by practicing psychotherapists psychiatrists psychoanalysts and counselors describe the treatment of individual clients In most cases the authors discuss a client s psychological problem the treatment used with the client and the outcome This book is designed for use in courses in clinical counseling and abnormal psychology each article is followed by 1 a list of psychological terms for classroom discussion and 2 questions that call for students opinions on various aspects of the case

Family Ties and Aging Ingrid Arnet Connidis,2010 This advanced textbook covers issues of family ties and aging broadly the goal being to provide an integrated and thorough representation of what we know from the current research Whereas books on families and aging have traditionally focused on ties to a spouse and to children and grandchildren Family

Ties Aging is more extensive and more reflective of contemporary society The text includes groups and relationships that typically receive short shrift exploring such neglected populations as single divorced and childless older people and their family relationships as well as sibling relationships among the elderly live in partnerships not formalized by marriage and the kinds of family ties forged by gay and lesbian persons over the life course The book weaves the vast range of information we now have about the many facets of family relationships and aging into a critical comprehensive and integrated whole

National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), The SAGE Handbook of Social Gerontology Dale Dannefer, Chris Phillipson, 2010-08-13 This SAGE Handbook integrates basic research on social dimensions of aging It presents programmatic applications of research in areas not often seen in Handbooks including imprisonment technology and aging urban society aged and elderly migration The authors constitute a Who's Who of international gerontology and the focus on globalization and aging is unique among Handbooks today This Handbook should be in the library of every social gerontologist Vern L Bengtson Professor of Gerontology University of Southern California This volume reflects the emergence of ageing as a global concern including chapters by international scholars from Asia Australasia Europe and North America It provides a comprehensive overview of key trends and issues in the field drawing upon the full range of social science disciplines The Handbook is organized into five parts each exploring different aspects of research into social aspects of ageing Disciplinary overviews summaries of findings from key disciplinary areas within social gerontology Social relationships and social differences explores area like social inequality gender religion inter generational ties social networks and friendships Individual characteristics and change in later life examines different aspects of individual aging including self and identity cognitive processes and bio social interactions and their impact on physical and psychological aging Comparative perspectives and cultural innovations topics include ageing and development ageing in a global context migration and cross cultural perspectives on grandparenthood Policy issues covering policy concerns such as long term care technology and older people end of life issues work and retirement and the politics of old age This will be essential reading for all students researchers and policy makers concerned with the major issues influencing the lives of older people across the globe The New Generational Contract Alan Walker University of Sheffield., 2013-11-05 This authoritative text offers the first comprehensive analysis of intergenerational relations and social welfare It examines both the micro sociological relations within the family and the social contract which forms the backbone of the welfare state This book is intended to appeal to undergraduates and postgraduates in sociology social policy and medicine and it will also be particularly useful for professional courses such as nursing social work and gerontology The New Generational Contract Alan Walker, 1996 This authoritative text offers the first comprehensive analysis of intergenerational relations and social welfare It examines both the micro sociological relations within the family and the social contract which forms the backbone of the welfare state This book is intended to appeal to undergraduates and postgraduates in sociology social policy and medicine and it will also be
