Sanford Biggers Andrea Andersson, Antonio Sergio Bessa, 2020-04-03 What I want to do is code switch. To have there be layers of history and politics but also this heady, arty stuff inside jokes, black humor that you might have to take a while to research if you want to really get it. Sanford Biggers, b. 1970, is a Harlem-based artist working in various media including painting, sculpture, video, and performance. He describes his practice as code switching, mixing disparate elements to create layers of meaning to account for his wide-ranging interests. This catalogue focuses on a series of repurposed quilts, many made in the 19th century, that embodies this interest in mixture. Informed by the significance of quilts to the Underground Railroad, Biggers transforms the quilts into new works using materials such as paint, tar, glitter, and charcoal to add his own layers of codes, whether they be historical, political, or purely artistic. Insightful essays survey Biggers's career, his art in relation to music, and the history upon which the series draws. Also featured is a short yet powerful graphic essay by an award-winning illustrator that introduces the layered meanings inherent in the art and craft of quilting.

Union Agriculturist and Western Prairie Farmer, 1867      Woman's World, 1927      Alabama Quilts Mary Elizabeth Johnson Huff, Carole Ann King, 2020-11-03 Winner of the 2022 James F. Sulzby Book Award from the Alabama Historical Association, Alabama Quilts: Wilderness through World War II, 1682-1950 is a look at the quilts of the state from before Alabama was part of the Mississippi Territory through the Second World War, a period of 268 years. The quilts are examined for their cultural context, that is, within the community and time in which they were made, the lives of the makers, and the events for which they were made. Starting as far back as 1682 with a fragment that research indicates could possibly be the oldest quilt in America, the volume covers quilting in Alabama up through 1950. There are seven sections in the book to represent each time period of quilting in Alabama, and each section discusses the particular factors that influenced the appearance of the quilts, such as migration and population patterns, socioeconomic conditions, political climate, lifestyle, paradigms, and historic events. Interwoven in this narrative are the stories of individuals associated with certain quilts as recorded on quilt documentation forms. The book also includes over 265 beautiful photographs of the quilts and their intricate details To make this book possible authors Mary Elizabeth Johnson Huff and Carole Ann King worked with libraries historic homes museums and quilt guilds around the state of Alabama spending days on formal quilt documentation while also holding lectures across the state and informal quilt sharings The efforts of the authors involved so many community people from historians preservationists librarians textile historians local historians museum curators and genealogists to quilt guild members quilt shop owners and quilt owners making Alabama Quilts not only a celebration of the quilting culture within the state but also the many enthusiasts who have played a role in creating and sustaining this important art
