Family First Tales Of A Working Father:

Family First Robert Blodgett, 2002-04 Working fathers often find themselves behind the eight ball when it comes to juggling work with family A father of four Blodgett explores the difficulties men face when they try to place family first in today's society A must read for any father trying to balance work with family Amazing Grace for Fathers Jeff Cavins, Matthew Pinto, Mark Armstrong, Patti Armstrong, 2014-06-30 The love of a father reflects the infinite love of God from which all fatherly guidance discipline and protection flows Amazing Grace for Fathers offers heartfelt powerful and inspirational stories that show how ordinary men were able to live up to their potential as fathers through the grace of God In this book you will meet A father who survives the 9 11 attack on the World Trade Center only to face a very different and much more personal kind of crisis A surrogate father who makes a life changing difference in the life of a troubled boy A man whose fatherhood challenges him to see Jesus in all people even in a homeless man he encounters on the street A father who provides a birthday present for his little girl after his death through a series of amazing coincidences A young man who heroically saves the life of another because of the wisdom handed down to him by his father Amazing Grace for Fathers makes the perfect gift for any man who has been called by God to the profound vocation of fatherhood Experience the love wisdom and power found within the heart of a father Men & Masculinities Michael S. Kimmel, Amy B. Aronson, 2003-12-11 The first encyclopedia to analyze summarize and explain the complexities of men's lives and the idea of modern manhood The process of making masculinity visible has been going on for over two decades and has produced a prodigious and interesting body of work But until now the subject has had no authoritative reference source Men Masculinities a pioneering two volume work corrects the oversight by summarizing the latest historical biological cross cultural psychological and sociological research on the subject It also looks at literature art and music from a gender perspective The contributors are experts in their specialties and their work is directed organized and coedited by one of the premier scholars in the field Michael Kimmel The coverage brings together for the first time considerable knowledge of men and manhood focusing on such areas as sexual violence intimacy pornography homophobia sports profeminist men rituals sexism and many other important subjects Clearly this unique reference is a valuable guide to students teachers writers policymakers journalists and others who seek a fuller understanding of gender in the United States Family First Ruth A. Symes, 2015-10-30 Discover the history of family roles and relationships and how to learn more about your own ancestors A blend of social history and family history Family First looks at relationships and our attitudes and experiences surrounding them fathers mothers babies children aunts uncles cousins grandparents and the elderly friends and neighbors This book examines how readers might learn more about how their own ancestors functioned in these relationships and what records might tell us more Each chapter starts with a guide on how to interpret the most common and direct of family history sources then goes on to examine each relationship in its changing historical contexts how for example did the role of a father differ in the Victorian period from earlier periods What similarities and differences were there in behavior and roles between fathers of different social classes How did fatherhood change in the context of the two world wars How has family size changed How have opinions shifted about marriage between cousins Explore these questions and more in this intriguing book

Folktales of the Jews, V. 3 (Tales from Arab Lands) Dan Ben Amos, 2011-05-01 Thanks to these generous donors for making the publication of the books in this series possible Lloyd E Cotsen The Maurice Amado Foundation National Endowment for the Humanities and the National Foundation for Jewish Culture Tales from Arab Lands presents tales from North Africa Yemen Lebanon Syria and Iraq in the latest volume of the most important collection of Jewish folktales ever published This is the third book in the multi volume series in the tradition of Louis Ginzberg's timeless classic Legends of the Jews The tales here and the others in this series have been selected from the Israel Folktale Archives IFA named in Honor of Dov Noy at The University of Haifa a treasure house of Jewish lore that has remained largely unavailable to the entire world until now Since the creation of the State of Israel the IFA has collected more than 20 000 tales from newly arrived immigrants long lost stories shared by their families from around the world The tales come from the major ethno linguistic communities of the Jewish world and are representative of a wide variety of subjects and motifs especially rich in Jewish content and context Each of the tales is accompanied by in depth commentary that explains the tale's cultural historical and literary background and its similarity to other tales in the IFA collection and extensive scholarly notes There is also an introduction that describes the culture and its folk narrative tradition a world map of the areas covered illustrations biographies of the collectors and narrators tale type and motif indexes a subject index and a comprehensive bibliography Until the establishment of the IFA we had had only limited access to the wide range of Jewish folk narratives Even in Israel the gathering place of the most wide ranging cross section of world Jewry these folktales have remained largely unknown Many of the communities no longer exist as cohesive societies in their representative lands the Holocaust migration and changes in living styles have made the continuation of these tales impossible This series is a monument to a rich but vanishing oral tradition This series is a monument to a rich but vanishing oral tradition Tales of Small Adventure William Lyons, 2015-04-02 Silence of Midnight This story is about a teenage girl who lost her mother from cancer She and her father decided to take a trip to visit his sister down South unknowing of the events that would take place on their journey Sweet Voice Afar This story was told to me by my father one day while we were fishing at a river Nothing was biting and there was nothing for us to do He told me about his adventure in the great Pine Run Forest A Reporter's Hunch This is a story about a young reporter named Frank Ross who falls in love with writing Not only just writing but he wants to write down to earth like getting involved with whoever he is writing about To him this is the only way a story should be written Life as It Is This is about help from loneliness and fear Seek and you should find have faith in yourself You know there are lots of ups and downs in life such as loneliness and fear Loneliness it could be one of the most frustrating experiences that any one person could face There is a story that I would like to share with you This story fits almost every person there is My First Trip by Frank Ross This story I hope is a reminder to all that people change and you must look at them the way you want them to look at you Another Frank Ross Story Hi my name is Frank Ross I work for a local newspaper You probably read my story called A Reporters Hunch in this book Written by my long lasting friend William Lyons This story I am about to tell is about two people who lived a distance apart They never met but had something in common Becoming A Family Rena D.

Harold,Patricia Stow Bolea,Lisa G. Colarossi,Lucy R. Mercier,Carol R. Freedman-Doan,2014-04-08 The movement from young adulthood through coupling and the transition to parenthood may be among the most universal adult developmental transitions These passages hold interest for all of us but especially for those who study the psychological familial and sociocultural components of development all of which interact and influence each other This book enhances understanding of family life development by shedding light on the meanings that family members ascribe to the developmental process of becoming a family This is achieved through qualitative analysis of narratives through which individuals and families explain themselves their thinking and their behavior These family narratives are windows into individual and family identity as well as descriptions of connections to others The book addresses issues including identity child characteristics social support and work Each chapter includes a review of seminal literature parents comments and ideas about the topic and a discussion of practice policy and research implications So Far from Story Street J. Trampling Out the Vintage

Frank Bardacke,2012-10-09 In its heyday the United Farm Workers was an embodiment of its slogan Yes we can in the form S Se Puede winning many labor victories securing collective bargaining rights for farm workers and becoming a major voice for the Latino community Today it is a mere shadow of its former self Trampling Out the Vintage is the authoritative and award winning account of the rise and fall of the United Farm Workers and its most famous and controversial leader Cesar Chavez Based interviews conducted over many years with farm workers organizers and the opponents and friends of the UFW the book tells a story of collective action and empowerment rich in evocative detail and stirring human interest Beginning with the influence of the ideas of Saul Alinsky and Catholic Social Action at the union s founding through the UFW s thrilling triumphs in the California fields the drama concludes with the debilitating internal struggles that effectively crippled the union A vivid rendering of farm work and the world of the farm worker Trampling Out the Vintage is a dramatic reappraisal of the political trajectory of Cesar Chavez and the United Farm Workers and an essential re evaluation of their most tumultuous years Winner of the 2012 Hillman Prize in Book Journalism Standing Still Is Not an Option Christa Boske, 2019-10-01 This book captures the experiences of children in U S public schools and how they utilize artmaking to disrupt injustices they face These first time authors who represent school children parents teachers and community leaders focus on artmaking for social change Their first tellings provide thought provoking insights regarding the impact of artmaking on their capacity to promote social justice oriented work in K 12 school communities As the U S continues to experience significant demographic shifts including increases of homeless children children identified with learning differences thousands of refugees and immigrants children living in poverty children in foster care and increasing numbers of Children of Color those who work in schools will need to know how to address disparities facing these underserved communities These U S demographic shifts and issues facing underserved populations provide opportunities for children teachers families and school leaders to deepen their understanding regarding their experiences within their communities and K 12 schools as well as ways to interrupt oppressive practices and policies they face every day through art as social action Authors call upon decision makers who serve children from disenfranchised populations to utilize artmaking to create equal access for children to explore social justice equity reflective practices and promote authentic social action and change through artmaking Authors reflect on this artmaking process as a catalyst for increasing consciousness creating imaginative possibilities and facilitating meaningful change in schools Authors urge readers to create equal access art spaces to build bridges among schools families and communities Together they contend that artmaking promotes courageous conversations and encourages the exploration of what it means to live this significant work Praise for Standing Still Is Not an Option Standing Still Is Not an Option is a non traditional leadership text not just in words but in deeds It took courage for student first authors to write perform this text and it takes courage for us as educators to read it because our youth want us to speak up more and act differently To quote one student first author It was all new to me I never did anything like this before If I could go back in time I would tell the principals that they need to care about all of the kids not just the favorites If they could actually take the time and talk to me maybe you would actually care because you would get to know me I think they would learn I have a lot on my plate and they need to know about these things It would have really helped me if they would have listened to me talked to me and actually showed me they care If a principal would have shown me they cared I wouldn't be where I am today Isn't it past time that teachers and administrators learned to become their art and let their art remake them Ira Bogotch Professor Florida Atlantic University This book dares to explore the multi faceted nature of voice and its importance in narrating the experiences that have contoured the lives of persons who are so often conditioned socialized and placed in a voiceless space by educational institutions The use of artmaking to articulate hopes and fears in a non judgmental space that calls for a socially just education shifts the focus from traditional notions of narrative to the creative power of expression through art This work breaks new ground in pushing educational power brokers to come to grips with the multiple ways asymmetric power relations are propagated through traditional structures and how the power of creativity can respond to and disrupt these structures Michael Dantley Dean Professor Miami of Ohio University Christa Boske's edited volume provides an extraordinary service to educational leaders policy makers and those who care about the education stakeholders Through the chapters in this book Boske and her authors demonstrate the power of artistic storytelling and representation to the development and empowerment of young minds For those who care about the education of children and youth this is an essential read Michelle Young Professor University of Virginia former Executive Director of the University Council for Educational Administration UCEA
