Ciavatta,2010-07-02 Honorable Mention 2011 Biennial Book Prize presented by the Canadian Philosophical Association This original study of the role that family life plays in Hegel s Phenomenology of Spirit and Philosophy of Right pays particular attention to Hegel s characterization of the family as an unconscious form of ethical life rooted essentially in affectivity David V Ciavatta also looks at Hegel s account of feeling in the Anthropology section of The Philosophy of Spirit highlighting the inherently porous nature of the self and this porosity is shown to be constitutive of the distinctive unconscious form of intersubjective recognition that forms the core of family bonds The book provides a rich understanding of the role that family has in one s psychological development with respect not only to other people but also to the world and one s own identity Incorporating existential phenomenological and psychoanalytic perspectives Ciavatta offers insightful investigations of many basic Hegelian themes such as spirit perception ethical agency language and property ownership

Consumption Manifesto Günce Demir, Consumption Manifesto offers a deep dive into the sociological layers of small town dynamics in Turkey specifically examining the Manisa gentry's use of living room furniture as a tool for social distinction Written by Dr Günce Demir and adapted from her PhD thesis the book investigates how furniture preferences consumption patterns and intergenerational shifts in taste reflect the gentry's evolving status within a complex social hierarchy Blending the theories of Marx Weber and Bourdieu the study unveils how the Manisa gentry employ material culture to assert their identity differentiate themselves from others and adapt to societal transformations over time By focusing on the living room a symbolic space of representation the author sheds light on how personal choices resonate with broader societal structures shaping and reflecting the ever-changing notions of class status and tradition For readers interested in sociology cultural studies or the nuanced interplay between consumption and identity Consumption Manifesto provides a groundbreaking perspective on the intricate relationship between material goods and social stratification in small town Turkey
