Family of Origin Applications in Clinical Supervision Carlton Munson, 2014-03-18 Important ready to use facts on the use of family of origin applications in clinical supervision practice The Complete Systemic Supervisor ,1997 A preparatory text for students preparing to write the Supervisory Philosophy Statement and Case Study required for the Approved Supervision application for the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy The 26 contributors outline contextual variables such as gender sexual orientation ethnicity and class to increase sensitivity and the contexts in which supervision occurs including academic settings agencies and private practices Additionally discussions of supervision philosophy and pragmatics help students develop their own game plan to meet supervision challenges and requirements Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Handbook of Family Therapy Training and Supervision Howard A. Liddle, Douglas C. Breunlin, Richard C. Schwartz, 1988-06-17 Over the last three decades family therapy has revolutionized the mental health field changing the way human problems are conceived and therapy is conducted In concert with the dynamic growth of family therapy the field of family therapy training and supervision has also expanded enormously yielding many new ideas and skills Yet until now few books have been devoted to it and no single volume has attempted to relate the full breadth of this growing field in terms of its conceptual and theoretical expansion as well as its practical application HANDBOOK OF FAMILY THERAPY TRAINING AND SUPERVISION fills this need by presenting a truly comprehensive view of this dynamic area To accomplish this broad yet in depth scope editors Liddle Breunlin and Schwartz have assembled 30 highly acclaimed authorities to author chapters in their respective areas of expertise For further clarification the editors have included segues that introduce and analyze each of the book s four major sections providing the reader with an overview of the section highlights of themes that run through it and discussion of the issues raised in a way that ties the chapters together The book opens with a presentation of the unique and innovative approaches to training and supervision that have evolved in each separate school of family therapy Offering a panoramic view of the entire field of family therapy these seven chapters allow for fascinating comparisons among the different schools regarding the process by which ideas about therapy evolve into training techniques and philosophies Section II follows with an explication of the pragmatics of family therapy supervision Helping family therapy trainers avoid and anticipate the common mistakes involved with supervision the skills described in this section create an atmosphere conducive to learning and maintaining a working trainer trainee relationship and finally for training of supervisors Practical guidelines for using live and video supervision are included Section III features family therapy trainers in such diverse fields as psychiatry psychology family medicine social work nursing free standing and academic family therapy programs who describe the problems and advantages they encounter teaching these new ideas within their idiosyncratic contexts The book closes with a section that includes reflections on the field by such innovative and respected leaders as Cloe Madanes and Jay Haley Among topics covered are perspectives and recommendations for researchers evaluating family therapy practical advice for incorporating a cultural perspective into training programs feedback on the experience of live supervision from trainees perspectives An appendix follows that provides over 400 references organized by subject for easy reference Given the level and scope of this extraordinary text FAMILY THERAPY TRAINING AND SUPERVISION is an invaluable resource for anyone interested in teaching learning or simply appreciating family therapy
