Thomas Barthel, 2018-07-30 From his first year in the majors George Herman Babe Ruth knew he could profit from celebrity Babe Ruth Cigars in 1915 marked his first attempt to cash in Traded to the Yankees in 1920 he soon signed with Christy Walsh baseball's first publicity agent Walsh realized that stories of great deeds in sports were a commodity and in 1921 sold Ruth's ghostwritten byline to a newspaper syndicate for 15 000 187 000 today Ruth hit home runs while Walsh's writers made him a hero crafting his public image as a lovable scalawag Were the stories true It didn't matter they sold Many survive but have never been scrutinized until now Drawing on primary sources this book examines the stories separating exaggerated facts from clear falsehoods This book traces Ruth's ascendance as the first great media created superstar and celebrity product endorser Disney Parks and the Construction of American Identity Jennifer A. Kokai, Tom

Robson, 2024-08-26 Writing in a time of heightened political anxiety and when accusations of nationalism authoritarianism and proto fascism have increasingly divided Americans into factions the authors use their influential performance studies based tourist as actor framework to unpack the ways that Disney parks and their guests co create performance of implicit Americanness in the 21st century This book argues that the roles that guests choose to perform accepting declining negotiating or overwriting scripts offered to them by the Disney theme park experience ultimately reveals much about the nature of the contemporary United States Focusing primarily on Walt Disney World in Florida and using case studies on music geography and ecology sports families and politics these chapters illuminate the always complicated and often contradictory presentations and performances of America within Disney parks in the deeply contested twenty first century
