center of the nation's history The American experiment rests on three ideas these truths Jefferson called them political equality natural rights and the sovereignty of the people But has the nation and democracy itself delivered on that promise These Truths tells this uniquely American story beginning in 1492 asking whether the course of events over more than five centuries has proven the nation's truths or belied them To answer that question Lepore wrestles with the state of American politics the legacy of slavery the persistence of inequality and the nature of technological change A nation born in contradiction will fight forever over the meaning of its history Lepore writes but engaging in that struggle by studying the past is part of the work of citizenship With These Truths Lepore has produced a book that will shape our view of American history for decades to come
