Justyn Terry,2008-02-01 This monograph argues that the doctrine of atonement may be presented more coherently by recognizing judgement as the principle metaphor of the reconciling work of Christ Judgement understood not only as condemnation but as the whole process of bringing about justice provides the pattern to which victory redemption and sacrifice may be compared and to which they should be related The first section is a study of twentieth century British atonement theology to understand the assumptions that give rise to the difficulties in proclaiming the atonement The second section examines Karl Barth s account of reconciliation in terms of the judgement of Jesus Christ and its relationship to victory redemption and sacrifice The proposal is made that judgement is the paradigmatic metaphor of the doctrine of atonement The implications of this claim are then considered for the response to the work of Christ and how repentance baptism Eucharist and holiness are related to judgement

Introducing Biblical Theology Sigurd Grindheim,2013-03-14 How do the different books of the Christian bible contribute to telling the story of God s salvation in Jesus Christ How can the diverse and sometimes confusing range of perspectives in the bible join together in one picture Sigurd Grindheim shows students how this picture can be seen as that of the Triune God the God who interacts God makes human beings who enjoy a peaceful relationship with him This relationship is broken because of sin but God continues to reach out to human beings through covenants Human failure to be faithful shows that God needs to intervene in a more direct way In his son Jesus Christ he comes to earth and brings reconciliation Grindheim draws on insights from scholarship and tradition to answer the major questions and presents them in a highly accessible form using examples revision questions and charts This book is written specifically for students at the start of courses in the Bible Theology and Ministry and for those searching for a deeper understanding of the theology of the Christian bible Emmaus Stephen Cottrell,1998 Singing the Faith:
