Society and Social Pathology R.C. Smith, 2017-02-21 This book offers one of the most comprehensive studies of social pathology to date following a cross disciplinary and methodologically innovative approach It is written for anyone concerned with understanding current social conditions individual health and how we might begin to collectively conceive of a more reconciled postcapitalist world Drawing reference from the most up to date studies Smith crosses disciplinary boundaries from cognitive science and anthropology to critical theory systems theory and psychology Opening with an empirical account of numerous interlinked crises from mental health to the physiological effects of environmental pollution Smith argues that mainstream sociological theories of pathology are deeply inadequate Smith introduces an alternative critical conception of pathology that drills to the core of how and why society is deeply ailing The book concludes with a detailed account of why a progressive and critical vision of social change requires a holistic view of individual and societal transformation Such a view is grounded in the awareness that a sustainable transition to postcapitalism is ultimately a many sided social individual and structural healing process The Palgrave Handbook of Positive Education Margaret L. Kern, Michael L. Wehmeyer, 2021-06-24 This open access handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the growing field of positive education featuring a broad range of theoretical applied and practice focused chapters from leading international experts It demonstrates how positive education offers an approach to understanding learning that blends academic study with life skills such as self awareness emotion regulation healthy mindsets mindfulness and positive habits grounded in the science of wellbeing to promote character development optimal functioning engagement in learning and resilience The handbook offers an in depth understanding and critical consideration of the relevance of positive psychology to education which encompasses its theoretical foundations the empirical findings and the existing educational applications and interventions The contributors situate wellbeing science within the broader framework of education considering its implications for teacher training education and developmental psychology school administration policy making pedagogy and curriculum studies This landmark collection will appeal to researchers and practitioners working in positive psychology educational and school psychology developmental psychology education counselling social work and public policy New Theory and Practice of Transactional Analysis in Organizations Sari van Poelje, Anne de Graaf, 2021-11-11 This innovative book presents state of the art thinking on using transactional analysis TA to change the structure relationships and culture in organizations The book is arranged according to the three levels of organizations described by Eric Berne the structural interpersonal and psychodynamic levels and the chapters expand on his concepts at each level With contributions by an international range of authors incorporating a selection of practical case studies the book illuminates key themes including group and team dynamics psychological safety emotion and most foundationally boundaries Exploring the tensions of boundaries that can determine both the stability of a system as well as its innovative potential this book provides a strong structural framework for TA coaches consultants and analysts as well as other professionals working with and within organizations Heterotopia, Radical Imagination, and Shattering Orders Paula Arcari, 2024-12-13 This volume takes ending the oppression of other animals seriously and confronts the question What would happen to all the animals by showcasing real promissory and imagined counter sites or heterotopia where animals happen in different ways free of anthropocentric orders of value and purpose Rejecting persistent understandings of the oppression of nonhuman animals across the entire breadth of the Animal Industrial Complex A IC as either non existent unproblematic and or fundamentally unalterable open to merely being reduced in scale or made less harmful the collection offers readers a variety of pathways towards radically disordered ways of thinking about and relating to other animals Over 14 chapters authors describe more liberatory relational reconfigurations playing out in the present and undertake conceptual imaginative and embodied explorations of liberatory futures The chapters are united by a common commitment to heterotopic disturbance to contesting and subverting the anthropo capitalo centric space in which we live Each chapter approaches this subversion in its own way using prefiguration restorying speculation radical imagination and combinations thereof to disturb or shatter orders explore the kinds of liberation and resistance their disturbance demonstrates demands or embodies and ultimately illustrate exactly what would or could happen to all the animals Heterotopia Radical Imagination and Shattering Orders will appeal to scholars students and individuals interested not only in challenging normalised binaries hierarchies and orders of value both human and nonhuman but in creating and realising liberatory alternatives Scholar activists activists professionals working in animal advocacy and anyone undertaking activities aimed at radically changing how other animals are understood and used will also find inspiration new insights and information that enhance their current methods and approaches Some readers may also find simply confirmation and comfort in the knowledge that so many others are working in solidarity with the disordered belief that shattering the A IC is possible
