questions and useful Web resources     The Practice of Qualitative Research Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, Patricia Leavy, 2006 Covering all the key mainstream qualitative methods this book offers candid wisdom tips from leading researchers that will help students with the process of completing a successful research project     Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology Ian Marsh, Rosie Campbell, Mike Keating, 2014-05-12 Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology introduces the reader to sociological issues theories and debates providing extracts of primary source material from both classical and contemporary theorists Theorists are examined within their historical and sociological framework and the text provides an analysis of developments in sociological thought and research The text is divided into four main sections Part One Origins and Concepts surveys the history of the discipline of sociology and examines key themes which have influenced sociological theorising and investigation in particular social control culture and socialisation Parts Two and Four Sociological Theories and Sociological Research include a number of readings from the founding theorists and investigators including Auguste Comte Emile Durkheim Karl Marx Max Weber and Charles Booth and also include more recent theoretical writing and research approaches The focus on theory and research is extended by a selection of readings centred around the theme of Differences and Inequalities Part Three these readings provide students with examples of work from an area where sociological theorising and research has been widely applied     Schooling Girls, Queuing Women Helen A. Moore, 2015-11-17 Focusing on the schooling of diverse girls and women in the United States this book highlights topics of gendered curricula racialized experiences of standardized testing and dominant cultural socialization By weaving critical education theories with sociological analyses of race class and gender Moore provides historical and contemporary illustrations of hostile hallways for students and the devaluation of teaching as a profession In suggesting feminist and anti racist pedagogical models of empowerment Schooling Girls Queuing Women presents several potential solutions to the problem of classroom inequality for diverse women and girls     Michigan Sociological Review ,2002     American Book Publishing Record ,2004     Continuities in Sociological Human Ecology Michael Micklin, Dudley L. Poston, 2013-11-11 The completion of this volume would not have been possible without the generous and dedicated help of numerous people The book had its genesis in a conference held at Cornell University in the fall of 1990 that was organized by Dudley Poston Paul Eberts and Michael Hannan all professors at the time at Cornell With the very generous financial assistance of David Call then the dean of Cornell s College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Poston Eberts and Hannan put together a two day conference of lectures and papers by human ecologists from Cornell University and elsewhere The conference focused on sociological human ecology and celebrated the fortieth anniversary of the publication of Amos Hawley s Human Ecology Ronald Press 1950 Professor Hawley was the keynote speaker at the conference Many of the authors of the chapters in this volume presented earlier versions at the Cornell conference in 1990 Cornell s Departments of Rural Sociology and Sociology also contributed financial assistance however without Dean Call s very generous support the conference would not have been possible A few months after the conference Poston and Michael Micklin discussed the possibility of asking the various authors of the Cornell conference papers to revise them for publication in a volume on sociological human ecology Many opted to do so but others did not because of time and other kinds of commitments and constraints Doing Sociology with Student Chip Gregg Lee Carter,2004 Author Gregg Lee Carter has pioneered the use of hands on computer data analysis by beginning sociology students He is the recipient of an Outstanding Contributions to Instruction Award from the American Sociological Association for developing innovative computer applications that enhance undergraduate sociology instruction Doing Sociology brings sociology alive by enabling students to explore sociological issues using real data from the General Social Survey census and vital statistics reports and FBI crime summaries Ideal for classes with an empirical orientation Doing Sociology With Student CHIP shows students the link between their course work and the work of research sociologists The book covers the major topics in an introductory sociology or social problems course and includes Student CHIP software and all required data sets on a cross platform MAC and Windows CD ROM No statistics beyond simple percentages are used the emphasis is on analysis reasoning and recognizing patterns not high level statistical analysis techniques Doing Sociology follows the same order of topics as Carter s Empirical Approaches to Sociology Classic and Contemporary Readings Fourth Edition 0 205 39484 1 making it an ideal companion text The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2004

Dividing Classes Ellen Brantlinger,2013-04-03 In this study of the school system of an Indiana town Ellen Brantlinger studies educational expectations within segments of the middle class that have fairly high levels of attainment Building on her findings she examines the relationship between class structure and educational success This book asserts the need to look beyond poor peoples values and aspirations and rather to consider the values of dominant groups to explain class stratification and educational outcomes Common Ground? Anthony M. Orum,Zachary Neal,2009-09-10 Public spaces have long been the focus of urban social activity but investigations of how public space works often adopt only one of several possible perspectives which restricts the questions that can be asked and the answers that can be considered In this volume Anthony Orum and Zachary Neal explore how public space can be a facilitator of civil order a site for power and resistance and a stage for art theatre and performance They bring together these frequently unconnected models for understanding public space collecting classic and contemporary readings that illustrate each and synthesizing them in a series of original essays Throughout they offer questions to provoke discussion and conclude with thoughts on how these models can be combined by future scholars of public space to yield more comprehensive understanding of how public space works
