Survival the Institute of Strategic Studies quarterly journal is a leading forum for analysis and debate of international and strategic affairs With a diverse range of authors eight to ten articles per issue plus thoughtful reviews and review essays Survival is scholarly in depth while vivid well written and policy relevant in approach Shaped by its editors to be both timely and forward thinking the journal encourages writers to challenge conventional wisdom and bring fresh often controversial perspectives to bear on the strategic issues of the moment

Critical Issues in the History of Spaceflight Stephen J. Dick,Steven J. Dick,Roger D. Launius,2006 In March 2005 the NASA History Division and the Division of Space History at the National Air and Space Museum brought together a distinguished group of scholars to consider the state of the discipline of space history This volume is a collection of essays based on those deliberations The meeting took place at a time of extraordinary transformation for NASA stemming from the new Vision of Space Exploration announced by President George W Bush in January 2004 to go to the Moon Mars and beyond This Vision in turn stemmed from a deep reevaluation of NASA's goals in the wake of the Space Shuttle Columbia accident and the recommendations of the Columbia Accident Investigation Board The new goals were seen as initiating a New Age of Exploration and were placed in the context of the importance of exploration and discovery to the American experiences Amazon      Information Technology and World Politics Michael J. Mazarr,2002-12-05 This unique collection of essays explores the intricacies of how the Internet has changed the way we currently approach international security civil society and economic development The contributors move past the conventional wisdom tapping new and original sources to investigate new and unexpected developments One essay explores how wiring Russia's nuclear scientists into the Internet increases the threat of weapons proliferation Another looks at Internet enabled development projects and despite early success stories in Bangalore India explains why they will fail Together the essays in this collection try to bring a dose of reality to the rose colored futures many have predicted for world politics in the Information Age      Department of Defense Appropriations United States.
