The Flemish Primitives in Bruges Till-Holger Borchert, 2020-07-21 Five centuries ago Bruges was home to the Flemish Primitives At the time Bruges was one of the most important cities in Europe an international centre of trade and meeting place for foreign merchants It is this medieval Bruges through which we are guided by Till Holger Borchert director of the Bruges Museums The wealth of the city and its art loving inhabitants attracted dozens of artists The pioneers among the so-called Flemish Primitives Jan van Eyck Hans Memling Dieric Bouts Hugo van der Goes and Gerard David developed a new style of painting over the course of the fifteenth century that would make its influence felt as far as southern Europe Although many of their paintings now hang among the masterpieces of the world's most prominent museums Bruges was nevertheless able to hold on to a number of dazzling specimens of its own heritage This book allows you to take that heritage home It is the perfect introduction for those who would like to become better acquainted with the artistic Bruges of the fifteenth century as well as a splendid souvenir for anyone who has admired the Flemish Primitives in the city's main museums Revised edition in a new layout The Flemish Primitives Dirk de Vos, 2002 A treasury of Northern Renaissance masterpieces focuses on key works by the Flemish Primitives and reflects their perspectives of the Burgundian realm's classes and culture their use of transparent layer painting use of symbolism and experimentations with light Fine Arts

The Flemish Primitives Musées royaux des beaux-arts de Belgique, Cyriel Stroo, Pascale Syfer-d'Olne, Anne Dubois, 2001 The third volume includes a final group of preeminent identified artists from the period of transition at the end of the 15th and the beginning of the 16th century Artistic production at this time was still rooted in late medieval thought yet more and more seized with new renaissance developments and at a permanent state of ferment with constantly changing needs of society The catalogue deals with correspondingly complex issues of interpretation through the works of Hieronymus Bosch Albrecht Bouts Gerard David Colijn de Coter and Goossen van der Weyden It comprises a technical stylistic and iconographical investigation of seventeen paintings on the basis of a scientific research method which has been fully established over the years The authors have been able to adjust various attributions and interpretations At the same time most valuable discoveries have been made with regard to the provenance of some work belonging to the Albrecht Bouts and Colijn de Coter Groups

The Practice of Persuasion Keith Moxey, 2018-08-06 This sequel to The Practice of Theory stresses the continued need for self-reflective awareness in art historical writing Offering a series of meditations on the discipline of art history in the context of contemporary critical theory Moxey addresses such central issues as the status of the canon the nature of aesthetic value and the character of historical knowledge The chapters are linked by a common interest in even fascination with the paradoxical power of narrative and the identity of the authorial voice Moxey maintains that art history is a rhetoric of persuasion rather than a discourse of truth Each chapter in The Practice of Persuasion attempts to demonstrate the paradoxes inherent in a genre that while committed to representing the past must inevitably bear the imprint of the present In Moxey's view art history as a discipline is often unable to recognize its status as a regime of truth that produces historically determined meanings and so continues to act as if based on a universal aesthetic foundation His new book should enable art historians to engage with the past in a manner less determined by tradition and more responsive to contemporary values and aspirations The Flemish Primitives: Anonymous masters, 1996 Flemish Primitives Belgian Information Center (New York, N.Y.), 1942 The Flemish Primitives Leo van Puyvelde, 1948
