Flemish And Related Panelstamped Bindings:

Flemish and Related Panel-stamped Bindings Staffan Fogelmark, 1990      Flemish Manuscript Painting in Context Elizabeth Morrison, Thomas Kren, 2007-01-08 A companion to the Getty's prize winning exhibition catalogue Illuminating the Renaissance: The Triumph of Flemish Manuscript Painting in Europe this volume contains thirteen selected papers presented at two conferences held in conjunction with that exhibition. The first was organized by the Getty Museum and the second was held at the Courtauld Institute of Art under the sponsorship of the Courtauld Institute and the Royal Academy of Arts. Added here is an essay by Margaret Scott on the role of dress during the reign of Charles the Bold. Texts include Lorne Campbell's research into Rogier van der Weyden's work as an illuminator, Nancy Turner's investigation of materials and methods of painting in Flemish manuscripts and trenchant commentary by Jonathan Alexander and James Marrow on the state of current research on Flemish illumination. A recurring theme is the structure of collaboration in manuscript production. The essays also reveal an important new patron of manuscript illumination and address the role of illuminated manuscripts at the Burgundian court. A series of biographies of Burgundian scribes is featured.      The Decorated Bindings in Marsh's Library, Dublin Mirjam M. Foot, 2017-03-02 Among the many books in original bindings in Marsh's Library, Dublin, a surprisingly large number are in decorated blind or gold tooled calf, pigskin or goatskin bindings which date from the 15th to the 19th centuries. The bindings come from all over Europe, ranging from Ireland to eastern Europe. While most were made in England, some fine and interesting examples from Germany, Italy, France, Spain and Holland are also included. In this volume, leading scholar Mirjam Foot first gives an overview of how books were bound by hand and then describes the bindings by country of origin, within each section treating them chronologically and by type of decoration. The detailed descriptions of the bindings are illustrated with 52 black and white photos and 8 colour plates.      The British Library Guide to Bookbinding P. J. M. Marks, 1998-01-01 An introduction to the history and techniques of bookbinding that offers a thorough and accessible historical overview of techniques and processes, illustrated with examples, diagrams and photographs of craftspeople at work.      New Approaches to the Archive in the Middle Ages Emily N. Savage, 2024-03-25 This volume brings together scholars of history, manuscript studies and art and architectural history to examine in conversation the varieties of medieval archival acts, the heterogeneity of collections and the motivations of collectors. It is united by the historically flexible concept of the archive and contributors examine material from Seville to Prague from the early Christian period through the Reformation. Premodern collections and archival practices are increasingly becoming the subject of academic inquiry. Chapter authors investigate how institutional, communal and familial identity accrued to material culture, including illuminated manuscripts, ecclesiastical vestments, ancient sarcophagi and reliquaries. Others examine the social impulses behind the documentation of such collections, namely through the creation of inventories, but also in the production, management and use of parchment records, including cartularies, estate records and legal documents. Finally, contributors question how medieval people evaluated historical age and outmoded artistic styles shaped and promoted collective memory through preservation display and ritual and attached value both monetary and symbolic to their collections The volume is cross disciplinary and will appeal to a variety of readers both in and out of academia Curators librarians and archivists working with medieval collections will find it valuable as will heritage professionals and charities involved in the care of properties which presently or formerly contained medieval treasures libraries and archives

The Archaeology of Medieval Bookbinding J.A.

Szirmai,2017-05-15 In the past studies of the history of bookbinding were mainly concerned with the exterior decoration This book focuses attention primarily on the physical aspects of the binding and its construction principles It is an expanded version of a series of lectures delivered by the author while Visiting Professor at the University of Amsterdam in 1987 supplemented with the results of ten years of intensive research in major libraries on the Continent the United Kingdom and the USA It surveys the evolution of binding structures from the introduction of the codex two thousand years ago to the close of the Middle Ages Part I reviews the scanty physical evidence from the Mediterranean heritage the early Coptic Islamic and Ethiopian binding structures and their interrelation with those of the Byzantine realm Part II is devoted to a detailed analysis of Western binding techniques distinguishing the carolingian romanesque and gothic wooden board bindings as the main typological entities their structure and function is compared with those of contemporary limp bindings The book is illustrated with over 200 drawings and photographs and contains a comprehensive bibliography
