masculinity or our times Richard Dyer investigates this paradox focusing on the notion at its heart seriality He considers the aesthetics of the repetition of nastiness and how this relates to the perceptions and anxieties that images of serial killing highlight in the societies that produce them Shifting the focus away from the US which is often seen as the home of the serial killer Lethal Repetition instead examines serial killing in European culture and cinema ranging from Scandinavia to the Mediterranean and from Britain to Romania Spanning all brows of cinema including avant garde art mainstream and trash Dyer provides case studies on Jack the Ripper the equation of Nazism with serial killing and the Italian giallo film to explore what this marginal and uncommon crime is being made to mean on European screens *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Popular Music in France from Chanson to Techno Hugh Dauncey, 2017-07-05 In France during the 1960s and 1970s popular music became a key component of socio cultural modernisation as the music record industry became increasingly important in both economic and cultural terms in response to demographic changes and the rise of the modern media As France began questioning traditional ways of understanding politics and culture before and after May 1968 music as popular culture became an integral part of burgeoning media activity Press radio and television developed free from de Gaulle's state domination of information and political activism shifted its concerns to the use of regional languages and regional cultures including the safeguard of traditional popular music against the centralising tendencies of the Republican state The cultural and political significance of French music was again revealed in the 1990s as French language music became a highly visible example of France's quest to maintain her cultural exceptionalism in the face of the perceived globalising hegemony of English and US business and cultural imperialism Laws were passed instituting minimum quotas of French language music The 1980s and 1990s witnessed developing issues raised by new technologies as compact discs the minitel telematics system the internet and other innovations in radio and television broadcasting posed new challenges to musicians and the music industry These trends and developments are the subject of this volume of essays by leading scholars across a range of disciplines including French studies musicology cultural and media studies and film studies It constitutes the first attempt to provide a complete and up to date overview of the place of popular music in modern France and the reception of French popular music abroad

Stars and Stardom in French Cinema Ginette Vincendeau, 2000-11-01 French cinema is second only to Hollywood in the number of its movie stars who have emerged to achieve international fame France is in fact arguably the only country other than the United States to have an international star system Yet these glamorous and charismatic stars differ from their U S counterparts in that they maintain more freedom to control their own images and often straddle both mainstream and auteur cinema Ginette Vincendeau a leading authority on French cinema analyzes the phenomenon of French film stardom and provides brilliant in depth studies of the major popular stars of the French cinema Max Linder Jean Gabin Brigitte Bardot Jeanne Moreau Louis de Funès Jean Paul Belmondo Alain Delon Catherine Deneuve Gérard Philipe and Juliette Binoche This volume analyzes these stars images and performance styles in the context of the French film industry but also in relation to national culture and society In the country where Brigitte Bardot and Catherine Deneuve have modeled for Marianne the effigy of the Republic and left wing politicians have held up Jean Gabin as a role model Vincendeau examines the unusual relationship between French film stars and national identity Ginette Vincendeau is professor of film studies at the University of Warwick She is the author and editor of a number of books on cinema

Natural Selection Gary Giddins, 2006 Long recognized as America's most brilliant jazz writer the winner of many major awards including the prestigious National Book Critics Circle Award and author of a highly popular biography of Bing Crosby Gary Giddins has also produced a wide range of stimulating and original cultural criticism in other fields With Natural Selection he brings together the best of these previously uncollected essays including a few written expressly for this volume The range of topics is spellbinding Writing with insight humor and a famously deft touch he offers sharp edged perspectives on such diverse subjects as Federico Fellini and Jean Renoir Norman Mailer and Ralph Ellison Marlon Brando and Groucho Marx Duke Ellington and Bob Dylan horror and noir the cartoon version of Animal Farm and the comic book series Classics Illustrated Giddins brings to criticism an uncommon ability long demonstrated in his music writing to address in very few words an entire career so that we get an in depth portrait of the artist beyond the film book or recording under review For instance Giddins offers a stunning reappraisal of Doris Day who he terms the coolest and sexiest female singer of slow ballads in film history He argues eloquently for a reconsideration of the forgotten German language novelist Soma Morgenstern In a section on comedy he offers fresh perspectives on the three great silent film stars Chaplin Keaton and Lloyd while resurrecting the legendary Jack Benny and reevaluating the controversial Jerry Lewis There is also a memorable look at Bing Crosby's film career he calls Crosby's blockbuster Going My Way a neglected masterpiece and a close examination of Marcel Carne's beloved Children of Paradise Of course Giddins also supplies excellent commentary on jazz major and underrated figures and especially the uses of jazz in film A wonderful gathering of little known treasures Natural Selection will broaden the perception of Gary Giddins as one of our most important cultural critics The
