Flickering Flames Leroy Livingstone Thwing,1958 Flickering Flames Leroy Livingstone Thwing,1958 The Springfield Gas Machine Donald W. Linebaugh,2012-01-27 Developed just after the close of the Civil War the Springfield Gas Machine was a unique commercial and domestic gas lighting system marketed for use in homes and businesses outside of a city's gas works The self contained unit was perfectly suited to accommodate an expanding rural and suburban U S landscape as middle and upper class American families were looking to find simplicity in the countryside without losing any modern comforts of the city Industries too were looking for a means to operate more efficiently and implement longer work hours for various production operations Perhaps more important owners of the Springfield system could retain control of their light production during a time when corporations were reaping large benefits from their monopolistic hold over municipal gas works In addition to detailing preserved Springfield systems across the country Donald W Linebaugh uses newspapers and magazine articles advertisements patents and even mail order catalogs to tell the story of this one of a kind unit The Gilbert and Barker Manufacturing Company's innovative business plan established them as a leader in the manufacture of gas lighting devices By taking gasoline from an oft discarded byproduct of refining crude oil to a viable fuel source the company paved the way for other gas powered appliances to improve household management strategies and industrial production In capturing the pre automobile market for gasoline Gilbert and Barker attracted the attention of the Standard Oil Trust presaging the oil industry dominance over gasoline production that continues today The story of the Springfield gas machine ends in the early twentieth century as the advent of electricity proved more available to the masses with considerably less expense However gas lighting was for its time a major innovation in domestic and commercial lighting and it changed daily life and social behaviors in the late nineteenth century as the comforts of home became a reality for suburban and rural Americans A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins,American Historical Association,Royal Historical Society (Great Britain),1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index The Arts in Early American History Walter Muir Whitehill,2012-12-01 This summary essay and the heavily annotated bibliography covering the period from the first colonization to 1826 are primarily intended to aid the scholar and student by suggesting areas of further study and ways of expanding the conventional interpretations of early American history Originally published in 1935 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Leviathan: The History of Whaling in America Eric Jay Dolin,2008-07-17 A Los Angeles Times Best Non Fiction Book of 2007 A Boston Globe Best Non Fiction Book of 2007 Amazon.com Editors pick as one of the 10 best history books of 2007 Winner of the 2007 John Lyman Award for U.S. Maritime History given by the North American Society for Oceanic History The best history of American whaling to come along in a generation Nathaniel Philbrick The epic history of the iron men in wooden boats who built an industrial empire through the pursuit of whales To produce a mighty book you must choose a mighty theme Herman Melville proclaimed and this absorbing history demonstrates that few things can capture the sheer danger and desperation of men on the deep sea as dramatically as whaling Eric Jay Dolin begins his vivid narrative with Captain John Smith's botched whaling expedition to the New World in 1614 He then chronicles the rise of a burgeoning industry from its brutal struggles during the Revolutionary period to its golden age in the mid 1800s when a fleet of more than 700 ships hunted the seas and American whale oil lit the world to its decline as the twentieth century dawned This sweeping social and economic history provides rich and often fantastic accounts of the men themselves who mutinied murdered rioted deserted drank scrimshawed and recorded their experiences in journals and memoirs Containing a wealth of naturalistic detail on whales Leviathan is the most original and stirring history of American whaling in many decades

Ornamented Chair Zilla Rider Lea, 1989-06-01 Discriminating decorators and collectors no less than dealers and researchers in antiques have long felt the need of a comprehensive study of the ornamented chair and its development in America This book is the product of an effort to satisfy that need and at the same time to bring new pleasures to lovers of beautiful furniture The book is based on photographic and research material collected by the late Esther Stevens Brazer who spent a lifetime in the study and revival of early American decoration The authors are all qualified researchers teachers and decorators In their text they present a general history of chair types facts regarding ornamentation and informative accounts of some of the leading craftsmen and decorators of the various periods The final chapter of the book briefly relates the history of the Society and describes how its members carry forward the efforts of Esther Stevens Brazer maintaining in their research their teaching and their restorations the standards of an old craft and the traditions of its finest workmen The Ice Hunters Shannon Ryan, 1994 The demand for oil to light and lubricate the industrial world changed the face of much of the planet Newfoundland was part of this widespread transformation as migratory cod fishermen settled here in the early 1800s in order to hunt seals in late winter and early spring The seal fishery brought prosperity and growth and shaped this new society but seal hunters and their families paid a heavy human cost in lives lost and suffering experienced The traditional oil industries were doomed with the discovery of mineral oils and the harnessing of electricity and Newfoundland along with other societies faced painful adjustments while searching for alternative industries However while its place in the economy declined the seal fishery left an indelible imprint on Newfoundland's culture and identity This study with its tables maps and illustrations examines the history of the Newfoundland seal fishery from its origins up to 1914 ranging in scope from the life of the hunter on the ice flows to the demands of the consumer in the marketplace Shannon Ryan was born

riverhead Harbor Grace Newfoundland and educated at Memorial University of Newfoundland BA Ed BA and MA and the University of London PH He worked for nine years as a schoolteacher and principal and in 1971 he was appointed to the faculty of History His publications and presentations are in the fields of Newfoundland Maritime fisheries and oral history He served as president of the Newfoundland Historical society during 1984 1988 as Newfoundland s representative on the Social sciences and humanities research council of Canada during 1989 1993 and was elected a fellow of the Royal society in 1988

Shultz, 2019-02-22 With the sharp rise in petroleum prices over the past decade interest has grown in the possible use of plant and tree seed oils as diesel fuel substitutes or extenders and as chemical feedstocks in both the industrialized and the developing world This book represents the first attempt to bring together science technology and policy aspects of this topic in one volume The authors examine the chemical biological and energy related resources available in commercial and wild plant oilseeds the status of chemical processing efforts and of engine tests using agricultural diesel fuels the potential economic environmental and social impacts of more extensive oilseed utilization and current legislation aimed at stimulating commercialization of strategic renewable agricultural resources

Homely Atmospheres and Lighting Technologies in Denmark Mikkel Bille, 2019-01-24 Using case studies such as the use of candlelight and energy saving lightbulbs in Denmark this book unravels light s place at the heart of social life In contrast to common perception of light as a technical and aesthetic phenomenon Mikkel Bille argues that there is a cultural and social logic to lighting practices By empirically investigating the social role of lighting in people s everyday lives Mikkel Bille reveals how and why people visually shape their homes Moving beyond the impact of its use Bille also comments on the politics of lighting to examine how ideas of pollution and home act as barriers for technological fixes to curb energy demand Attitudes to these issues are reflective of how human perceptions and practices are central to the efforts to cope with climate change This ethnographic study is a must read for students of anthropology cultural studies human geography sociology and design Evening's Empire Craig Koslofsky, 2011-06-30 This illuminating guide to the night opens up an entirely new vista on early modern Europe Using diaries letters legal records and representations of the night in early modern religion literature and art Craig Koslofsky explores the myriad ways in which early modern people understood experienced and transformed the night All Things Medieval Ruth A. Johnston, 2011-08-15 This insightful survey of the things of medieval Europe allows modern readers to understand what they looked like what they were made of how they were created and how they were used All Things Medieval An Encyclopedia of the Medieval World covers the widest definition of medieval Europe possible not by covering history in the traditional textbook manner of listing wars leaders and significant historic events but by presenting detailed alphabetical entries that describe the artifacts of medieval Europe By examining the hidden material culture and by presenting information about topics that few books cover pottery locks and keys shoes weaving looms barrels toys pets ink kitchen utensils and much more readers get invaluable insights into the nature of life during that time period and area The heartland European regions such as England France Italy and Germany are covered extensively and information regarding the objects of regions such as Byzantium Muslim Spain and Scandinavia are also included For each topic of material culture the entry considers the full scope of the medieval period roughly 500 1450 to give the reader a historical perspective of related traditions or inventions and describes the craftsmen and tools that produced it

Franklin's Father Josiah Nian-Sheng Huang,2000 Josiah Franklin a tallow chandler and soapmaker remains a marginal figure in most biographies of his well known son Benjamin Franklin due largely to a lack of written documentation Biographers of Franklin included him mainly from a genealogical viewpoint and few of them gave him further attention Here Huang has reconstructed Josiah Franklin s life based on fragmented yet valuable manuscripts in several archival sites in the Boston area such as his bills letters subscriptions participation in petitions and court warrants for his legal disputes She has also drawn info from newspapers diaries business accounts inventories deeds and probate records which were useful to assess his trade and financial circumstances Illus Six Dynasties Civilization Albert E. Dien,Professor Albert E Dien,2007-01-01 The Six Dynasties also known as the Dark Age of Chinese history was a period of political disunity and conflict but also one of important developments in the arts religion and culture This comprehensive and extensively illustrated book covers the material culture of the Six Dynasties A D 220 to 589 Albert E Dien a foremost expert on the period draws on the archaeological findings of mainland China journals as well as historical and literary sources to clarify and interpret the database of over 1 800 tombs developed for this volume During the Six Dynasties the influences of non Chinese nomads the flourishing of Buddhism and increasing numbers of foreign merchants in the capitals brought about widespread change The book explores what the archaeological artifacts reveal about this era of innovation and experimentation between the Han and Tang dynasties Children of Light Gavin Weightman,2011-04-01 In the early 1870 s a nighttime view over Britain would have revealed towns lit by the warm glow of gas and oil lamps and a much darker countryside the only light emanating from the fiery sparks of late running steam trains However by the end of this same decade Victorian Britons would experience a new brilliance in their streets town halls and other public places Electricity had come to town In Children of Light Gavin Weightman brings to life not just the most celebrated electrical pioneers such as Thomas Edison but also the men such as Rookes Crompton who lit Henley Regatta in 1879 Sebastian Ziani de Ferranti a direct descendant of one of the Venetian Doges who built Britain s first major power station on the Thames at Deptford and Anglo Irish aristocrat Charles Parsons inventor of the steam turbine which revolutionized the generating of electricity Children of Light takes in the electrification of the tramways and the London Underground the transformation of the home with labor saving devices the vital modernizing of industry during two world wars and the battles between environmentalists and the promoters of electric power which began in earnest when the first pylons went up As Children of Light shows the electric revolution has brought
