Flight Of Ashes Readers International:

The Promised Land? Lorna Martens, 2001-02-01 From the 1960s on women writers in the German Democratic Republic GDR including Christa Wolf Irmtraud Morgner Sarah Kirsch Brigitte Reimann Charlotte Worgitzky Lia Pirskawetz and Maya Wiens produced a large interesting body of writing on women's issues The Promised Land is the first book to interrogate the work of these writers as a group for their feminist ideas ideas that are original often upbeat and mostly different from those of the Western feminist movement In the GDR a state that existed from 1949 to 1990 women had not only equal rights and good jobs but also lavish maternity leave and generous childcare benefits designed to make work compatible with motherhood The ideas presented by the writers discussed here include women as the subject of desire femininity as a politically progressive model remaking of the image of woman and liberating women's speech By studying these ideas through the lenses of cultural studies feminist theory and literary criticism this book draws comparisons between the situation of women in the GDR and the United States and between the GDR and Western feminism and asks whether the GDR really was the promised land for women

Inscription and Rebellion Sonja E. Klocke, 2015 Employs research on the GDR's healthcare system along with feminist and queer theory to get at socialism's legacy revealing a specifically East German literary convention employment of symptomatic female bodies to either enforce or rebel against political and social norms

Border Crossings Thomas Fox, 2025-10-01 Border Crossings is an accessible and comprehensive overview of the work of prose fiction writers in what was the German Democratic Republic Thomas C Fox introduces readers to the best and most important East German writers among them Christa Wolf Jurek Becker Anna Seghers Stefan Heym and Franz Fühmann restricting his study to work that is available in English translation so that readers who do not know German will be able to read for themselves the literature he discusses During a period of forty years writers in the German Democratic Republic struggled with increasing success to free themselves from a smothering and paternalistic governmental embrace thus anticipating and helping to constitute the events of 1989 In its relentless interrogation of the status quo in its persistent ability to create alternatives and in its call for more openness literature in East Germany served as an outlet for energies and ideas that might have been channeled in the West into politics philosophy or journalism In addition to discussing the role that literature played in shaping historical events Fox shows that it can be appreciated simply as literature outside of its political contexts

Saving Nature Under Socialism Julia E. Ault, 2021-09-09 When East Germany collapsed in 1989/1990 outside observers were shocked to learn the extent of environmental devastation that existed there Saving Nature Under Socialism introduces readers to environmentalism in Cold War East Germany and traces the evolution of environmental policy and protest in East Germany and central Europe from the 1960s

A History of Women's Writing in Germany, Austria and Switzerland Jo Catling, 2000-03-23 This volume makes the wide ranging work of German women writers visible to a wider audience It is the first work in English to provide a chronological introduction to and overview of women's writing in German speaking countries from the Middle Ages to the present day Extensive guides to further reading and a bibliographical guide to the work of more than 400 women writers form an integral part of the volume which will be indispensable for students and scholars of German literature and all those interested in women's and gender studies Flight of Ashes Monika

Maron,1986 A chance visit to an industrial complex in East Germany where she lives challenges Josefa Nadler's moral and political assumptions Memory Matters Caroline Schaumann,2008-08-27 Memory Matters juxtaposes in tripartite structure texts by a child of German bystanders Wolf an Austrian Jewish child survivor Kl ger a daughter of Jewish migr s Honigmann a daughter of an officer involved in the German resistance Bruhns a granddaughter of a baptized Polish Jew Maron and a granddaughter of German refugees from East Prussia D ckers Placed outside of the distorting victim perpetrator Jewish German man woman and war postwar binary it becomes visible that the texts neither complete nor contradict each other but respond to one another by means of inspiration reverberation refraction incongruity and ambiguity Focusing on genealogies of women the book delineates a different cultural memory than the counting of male inflected generations and a male dominated Holocaust and postwar literature canon It examines intergenerational conflicts and the negotiation of memories against the backdrop of a complicated mother daughter relationship that follows unpredictable patterns and provokes both discord and empathy Schaumann's approach questions the assumption that German gentile and German Jewish postwar experiences are necessarily diametrically opposed i e respond to a negative symbiosis and uncovers intersections and continuities in addition to conflicts Germany Since 1945 Peter C. Caldwell,Karrin

Hanshew,2018-08-09 Peter C Caldwell and Karrin Hanshew's Germany Since 1945 traces the social political and cultural history of Germany from the end of the Second World War right up to the present day The book provides a narrative that not only explores the histories of East and West Germany in their international contexts but one that also takes the significantly different world of the Berlin Republic seriously analyzing it as a distinct and significant period of German history in its own right Split into three parts roughly devoted to a quarter century each this book guides students through contemporary Germany from the catastrophe of war genocide and the country's division to the very different challenges facing the reunified Germany of the 21st century There are key primary source excerpts integrated throughout the text as well as 32 images numerous maps charts and tables and a detailed bibliography to further aid study The book is complemented by online resources which include sample syllabi and a pedagogical supplement Germany Since 1945 underscores both the particularities of German history and the international trends and transactions that shaped it giving good coverage to key aspects of post 1945 German society and politics including East and West German paths to reconstruction The development of consumer society and the welfare state The politics of memory and coming to terms with the Nazi past The Cold War New social and political movements that opposed the postwar status Immigration and the move toward a multicultural society This is an essential text for any student of contemporary German history Resisting Bodies Helga Druxes,1996 Helga Druxes study of the female protagonists in novels by German writer Monika Maron British writers Margaret Drabble and Jean Rhys and French writer Marguerite Duras brings together the work of four prominent contemporary women authors In discussing the position of women in urban spaces from the point of view of feminist and cultural theory Druxes combines anthropology and recent literary theory within the framework of cultural studies She addresses such concerns as the objectification commodification of women in late capitalist society the possibilities for resistant or subversive female agency under these conditions and the role of specifically urban arrangements of space in both effecting this objectification and creating the sites where it might be resisted or disrupted by women Resisting Bodies is an important contribution to literary criticism and feminist theory

Post-war Women's Writing in German Chris Weedon,1997-03-01 Women in the Federal Republic the former GDR Switzerland and Austria have initiated a remarkable literary movement especially after 1968 which is also attracting growing attention elsewhere Informed by critical feminist and literary theory this broad ranging collection the first of its kind examines the history of these writings in the context of the social and political developments in the respective countries It combines survey chapters with detailed studies of prominent authors whose work is often unavailable in English

Photography, Ecology and Historical Change in the Anthropocene Bergit Arends,2024-07-09 Moving beyond existing scholarship this book connects photography archives ecology and historical change and critically applies the Anthropocene as framework to the in depth study of artists projects It discards single modes of seeing environmental transformations in favour of a multiple and de centred environmental imagination Bergit Arends uses multidisciplinary perspectives to view localized environmental social and political issues through research based artistic practices The book not only makes available original research into newly and recently discovered archives of ecological and historical change but also shows how this research is manifest in exhibition formats This book presents international transhistorical projects by contemporary visual artists who use archives together with photography as documentary and performative media for the comparative study of environments and places A wide array of artists from diverse backgrounds working primarily in Europe and North America from the 1970s to the present day are discussed and set in relation to Anthropocene narratives Case studies include environmental archive based work by Nguyen the Thuc Christiane Eisler Chrystel Lebas Mark Dion Joy Gregory and Philip Miller The book will be of interest to scholars working in photography archive studies art history visual culture environmental humanities and ecocriticism
