Ellen Koment first met Jack Leissring in 1969 when he came to her studio in Valley Ford CA and bought the first of many of her paintings. Since then they have been mutual inspirations and good friends. Jack was the collector perhaps patron that every artist dreams of. Ellen was the artist that every lover of art hopes to find. In 1995 they were in a French Cafe in San Francisco where Jack suggested that men in general and specifically he didn't really understand how women thought. Ellen responded that while she couldn't speak for all women she would try to share her responses to art relationships and love any and all things that friends share. These letters by email were what came from the conversation. From Van Eyck to Bruegel Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1998. This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014. What emerged from the 3rd Global Conference on Trauma Theory and Practice was a lively and informed view of the different ways our history personal experiences education and forms of entertainment are shaped by trauma and its resultant interpretations. This volume comprises numerous academic papers concerning essential subjects in relation to trauma from literary representations of and responses to war related trauma to the articulating of suffering and other traumatic legacies of colonialism. Key scholars including Cathy Caruth and Ann E Kaplan are employed to develop these important research areas as conference participants provide new insights into artistic representations of trauma and their subsequent analysis. Significant time is also dedicated to papers concerning post traumatic growth and the role of psycho spiritual transformation in the process outcomes and management of trauma. Using clinical examples valuable research concerning the creation of safe learning environments for traumatized children is also discussed along with additional research concerning Sandplay therapy and the theoretical and empirical aspects of time. BORDER SITUATIONS - CRISES - POSTCRITICAL CREATIVITY Hermes Andreas Kick, 2020-01-01. For none of the central survival problems of mankind which include the increase of the world population limited resources transcultural communication problems and information overload convincing solution concepts exist so far. The areas of tension mentioned are taken up in this volume and placed in the context of overstrain and rebellion.

of the individual and society They are the impetus for philosophical thinking and for the conceptualization of the process dynamic approach as a survival strategy that leads to practical philosophy Overcoming the borderline situation shows what man actually is and can become Karl Jaspers Using numerous examples from the fields of psychotherapy artistic and political action this book shows that historical and phenomenological analysis needs to be complemented by a process dynamic approach
