

Florida Corporation Registration and Formation

If you are planning to form a Corporation in Florida then the procedure for registration and formation is as follows.

Hire a Registered agent

According to 605.0113 Florida statutes, each corporation will need to designate a registered agent. The agent could be a foreign or domestic entity and should have the authorization for transacting business in the state of Florida. We would take this opportunity to share with you the fact that we are One of the Top Registered Agents in the state and have been responsible for over 11,494 company formations in Florida.

We are in compliance with all regulations in the State of Florida.

Choose a Name

If you are planning to form a Corporation in Florida, then the first step is to identify a name for your business and register it. In the state of Florida, you will be required to register a "fictitious name" if you have chosen any other type of business except a corporation or an LLC. One of the important aspects to remember is that your business name needs to be unique and distinguishable.

There are certain factors that will make your name distinguishable like ensuring the business name has proper suffixes like John's Kitchen, Inc. or John's Kitchen, LLC.

Articles of Incorporation

Once you have identified and filed a business name, it is time to register your business. In order to form a Corporation in Florida, you will be required to file "Articles of Incorporation" with the Division of Corporations along with the filing fee. The existence of your corporation will begin on the date the Articles of Incorporation is received and filed by Division of Corporations. We can file the form on your behalf being your registered agent in the state and provide you with certified copies of the registration.

You can select the ONLINE submission option or we can complete the entire procedure on your behalf.

The procedure of registration and formation of an LLC or corporation may seem like an exhaustive process but once you have hired a top Florida registered agent like us, we will ensure, the entire procedure is simple and quick.

In case, you have any questions, feel free to call us at 702-871-8678.
