Photography and Doubt Sabine T. Kriebel, Andrés Mario Zervigón, 2016-11-25 Recent decades have seen photography's privileged relationship to the real come under question. Spurred by the postmodern critique of photography in the 1980s and the rise of digital technologies soon thereafter, scholars have been asking who and what built this understanding of the medium in the first place. Photography and Doubt reflects on this interest in photography's referential power by discussing it in rigorously historical terms. How was the understanding of photographic realism cultivated in the first place? What do cases of staged and manipulated photography reveal about that realism's hold on audiences across the medium's history? Have doubts about photography's testimonial power stimulated as much knowledge as its realism? Edited by Sabine T. Kriebel and Andrés Mario Zervigón, Photography and Doubt is the first multi-authored collection specifically designed to explore these questions. Its 13 original essays, illustrated with 73 color images, explore cases when the link between the photographic image and its referent was placed under stress and when photography was as attuned to its myth-making capabilities as to its claims to authenticity. Photography and Doubt will serve as a valuable resource for students and scholars in art history, visual and media studies, philosophy, and the history of science and technology. Floris Neusüss - Nachtstücke Klaus

Honnef, 1997 Modern Women Artists in the Nordic Countries, 1900–1960 Kerry Greaves, 2021-04-05 This transnational volume examines innovative women artists who were from or worked in Denmark, Finland, Greenland, Iceland, Norway, Sweden, and Sweden from the emergence of modernism until the feminist movement took shape in the 1960s. The book addresses the culturally specific conditions that shaped Nordic artists' contributions, brings the latest methodological and feminist approaches to bear on Nordic art history, and engages a wide international audience through the contributors' subject matter and analysis. Rather than introducing a new history of rediscovered women artists, the book is more concerned with understanding the mechanisms and structures that affected women artists and their work while suggesting alternative ways of constructing women's art histories. Artists covered include Else Alfelt, Pia Arke, Franciska Clausen, Jessie Kleemann, Hilma af Klint, Sonja Ferlov Mancoba, Greta Knutson Aase, Texmon Rygh, Hannah Ryggen, J. L. Ana Sveinsdóttir, Ellen Thesleff, and Astrid Aasen. The target audience includes scholars working in art history, cultural studies, feminist studies, gender studies, curatorial studies, Nordic studies, postcolonial studies, and visual studies. Shadow Catchers Martin Barnes, 2010 At the dawn of photography, various image makers explored camera-less techniques, and today there are a number of artists who continue to challenge the belief that a camera is necessary to create a photograph. Shadow Catchers presents the work of five leading practitioners: Pierre Cordier, Susan Derges, Adam Fuss, Garry Fabian Miller, and Floris Neusüss, who, by casting shadows on light-sensitive paper or by chemically manipulating its surface, capture the presence of objects, figures, or glowing light. The results are powerful images, often with surreal effects and symbolic content. This is the first book to gather together the exciting works of these key contemporary artists, revealing the technical processes and creative practices involved in their art.

In an age of mass produced imagery Shadow Catchers offers hand crafted photographs that are both haunting and thought provoking

The Bible in Photography Sheona Beaumont, 2024-01-25 Sheona Beaumont addresses the untold story of biblical subjects in photography She argues that stories characters and symbols from the Bible are found to pervade photographic practices and ideas across the worlds of advertising and reportage the book and the gallery in theoretical discourse and in the words of photographers themselves Beaumont engages interpretative tools from biblical reception studies art history and visual culture criticism in order to present four terms for describing photography's latent spirituality the index the icon the tableau and the vision Throughout her journey she includes lively discussion of selected fine art photography dealing with the Bible in surprising ways from images by William Henry Fox Talbot in the 19th century to David Mach in the 21st Far from telling a secular story photography and the conditions of its representations are exposed in theological depth Beaumont skillfully interweaves discussion of the images and theology arguing for the dynamic and potent voice of the Bible in photography and enriching visual culture criticism with a renewed religious understanding

The Window in Photographs Karen Hellman, 2013-10-01 Photographers have been irresistibly drawn to the window as a powerful source of inspiration throughout the history of the medium As one of the first camera subjects the window is literally and figuratively linked to the photographic process itself By bringing together key works arranged thematically rather than chronologically and presenting pairings within broader stylistic movements this volume examines the motif of the window as a symbol of photographic vision The Window in Photographs includes more than eighty color plates spanning the history of photography all drawn from the J Paul Getty Museum's permanent collection The theme is presented in a wide range of contexts from one of the earliest images by William Henry Fox Talbot or Julia Margaret Cameron's 1864 allegorical use of the motif to works by members of the Photo Secession including Gertrude Kasebier and Fred Holland Day The documentary thread of the street photographer can be followed in Eugène Atget's record of the old quarters of Paris and later twentieth century photographs by William Eggleston Walker Evans and Lee Friedlander Alfred Stieglitz and Paul Strand chose to utilize the theme of the window for its more graphic possibilities More recently photographers Shizuka Yokomizo and Gregory Crewdson explored conceptual aspects of the window to investigate themes of voyeurism and invented narrative while Uta Barth and Yuki Onodera created more abstract visions

Flash! Kate Flint, 2017-11-17 Flash presents a fascinating cultural history of flash photography from its mid nineteenth century beginnings to the present day All photography requires light but the light of flash photography is quite distinctive artificial sudden shocking intrusive and extraordinarily bright Associated with revelation and wonder it has been linked to the sublimity of lightning Yet it has also been reviled it's inseparable from anxieties about intrusion and violence it creates a visual disturbance and its effects are often harsh and create exaggerated contrasts Flash explores flash's power to reveal shocking social conditions its impact on the representation of race its illumination of what would otherwise remain hidden in darkness and its capacity to put on display the most mundane corners of everyday life It looks at flash's distinct aesthetics examines how paparazzi chase celebrities how flash is intimately linked to crime how flash has been used to light up and interrupt countless family gatherings how flash can stop time allowing one to photograph rapidly moving objects or freeze in a strobe and it considers the biggest flash of all the atomic bomb Examining the work of professionals and amateurs news hounds and art photographers photographers of crime and of wildlife the volume builds a picture of flash's place in popular culture and its role in literature and film Generously illustrated throughout Flash brings out the central role of this medium to the history of photography and challenges some commonly held ideas about the nature of photography itself

Twilight Visions Therese Lichtenstein, 2011-07-21 Through an examination of surrealist photographs objects exhibitions activities and writings the essays in Twilight Visions the beautifully illustrated companion volume to the exhibition of the same name portray the French capital as a city in the process of metamorphosis in a kind of twilight state The Bureau of Surrealist Research the major Surrealist exhibitions and the photographs of Paris by Brassai Andre Kertesz Ilse Bing Germaine Krull and Man Ray among others all reflect the tumultuous social and cultural transformations occurring in Paris in the 1920s and 30s Juxtaposing the strange with the familiar they seek to break down repressive hierarchies At the same time they represent a desire to change the world through experimental activities Introduced by Therese Lichtenstein with essays by Therese Lichtenstein Julia Kelly Colin Jones and Whitney Chadwick this absorbing volume considers the social aesthetic and political stances of the Surrealists as they probed hidden aspects of the commonplace and blurred the boundaries between dreams and reality subjectivity and objectivity Copub Frist Center for the Visual Arts Light, Paper, Process Virginia Heckert, 2015-04-14 From its beginnings photography has been shaped by the desire to understand and explore the essence of the medium Light Paper Process features the work of seven artists Alison Rossiter Marco Breuer James Welling Lisa Oppenheim Chris McCaw John Chiara and Matthew Brandt who investigate the possibilities of analog photography by finding innovative surprising and sometimes controversial ways to push light sensitive photographic papers and chemical processing beyond their limits A panoply of practices emerges in the work of these artists Some customize cameras with special lenses or produce images on paper without a camera or film Others load paper rather than film in the camera or create contact printing with sources of light other than the enlarger while still others use expired photographic papers and extraneous materials such as dust and sweat selected to match the particular subject of the photograph All of the artists share a willingness to embrace accident and chance Trial and error contribute to an understanding of the materials and their potential as do the attitudes of underlying curiosity and inventive interrogation The act of making each image is like a performance with only the photographer present The results are stunning This lavish publication accompanies an eponymous exhibition on view at the J Paul Getty Museum from April 14 to September 6 2015 Conversations with Contemporary Photographers Nan Richardson, 2005 Conversations is a landmark series in photography featuring extensive interviews by major international critics with living masters on aesthetics craft and culture The book traces the heritage of the medium in fascinating informal discourses on topics ranging from the personal to the political covering intimate detail and theoretical background alike Complete with biographies bibliographies and self portraits of each featured artist it is both a vital record of contemporary photography and an engaging read BOOK JACKET Photography: A Critical Introduction Liz Wells, 2015-01-30 Photography A Critical Introduction was the first introductory textbook to examine key debates in photographic theory and place them in their social and political contexts and is now established as one of the leading textbooks in its field Written especially for students in higher education and for introductory college courses this fully revised edition provides a coherent introduction to the nature of photographic seeing Individual chapters cover Key debates in photographic theory and history Documentary photography and photojournalism Personal and popular photography Photography and the human body Photography and commodity culture Photography as art This revised and updated fifth edition includes New case studies on topics such as materialism and embodiment the commodification of human experience and an extended discussion of landscape as genre 98 photographs and images featuring work from Bill Brandt Susan Derges Rineke Dijkstra Fran Herbello Hannah Hoch Karen Knorr Dorothea Lange Chrystel Lebas Susan Meiselas Lee Miller Martin
