between 1900 and 1970 Asare shows how a vanguard of black women singers including Gertrude Ma Rainey Bessie Smith Ethel Waters Pearl Bailey Juanita Hall Lena Horne Eartha Kitt Diahann Carroll and Leslie Uggams created a lineage of highly trained and effective voice teachers whose sound and vocal techniques continue to be heard today Challenging pervasive narratives that these and other black women possessed untrained voices Asare theorizes singing as a form of sonic citational practice how the sound of the teacher s voice lives on in the student s singing From vaudeville blues shouters black torch singers and character actresses to nightclub vocalists and Broadway glamour girls Asare locates black women of the musical stage in the context of historical voice pedagogy She invites readers not only to study these singers but to study with them taking seriously what they and their contemporaries have taught about the voice Ultimately Asare speaks to the need to feel and hear the racial history in contemporary musical theatre

The Poetics of the Homeric Citadel Olga

Zekiou,2019-01-24 The Poetics of the Homeric Citadel is an enquiry on the origins of the architectural forms as expressed in Mycenaean architecture The Homeric Citadel is woven within concrete landscape formations and realizes the concept of the all embracing space which in religious philosophy represents God s image in man It is both a cosmogonic symbol and at the same time a philosophical one The rocky citadel with the deep well was the scene where ancient mysteries took place and it is experienced by its citizen in his process of psychological transformation into the higher being which is called Anthropolos where anthropolos is the inner and complete man which impacts upon the life of the individual The basic architectural elements column triangle and megaron are archetypal images and revealed within this self perfecting process of acquiring the goal and ultimate end of our archetypal journey towards self realization The famous Lion Gate provides the mystical symbol called tetraktys which is represented figuratively by the triangular slab The tripartite four columned Megaron unfolds within the same schema and expresses one of the oldest religious symbols of humanity The research draws on a multiplicity of sources within the fields of history history of religion philosophy anthropology historical geography historical biographies the Jungian analytical psychology and alchemy archaeology and history of art and architecture and ancient Greek literature It relies on observation from visits to archaeological sites and of the arts and artifacts of the period under study which provide the link that reveals the poetic dimension of Mycenaean architecture
