Fluent Tibetan A Proficiencyoriented Learning System:

Fluent Tibetan William A. Magee,Elizabeth Napper,Jeffrey Hopkins,1993 Fluent Tibetan ,1993 Fluent Tibetan : a proficiency oriented learning system ; novice and intermediate levels. 1. [Units 1 - 8] : novice level ,1993

Fluent Tibetan ,1993 Fluent Tibetan William A. Magee,1993 Fluent Tibetan William A. Magee,Elizabeth S. Napper,2016-08-23 The most systematic and extensive course system available for learning the Tibetan language independently Fluent Tibetan was developed by language experts working in conjunction with indigenous speakers at the University of Virginia Based on courses for diplomats needing to learn a language quickly the method acquaints students with the sounds and patterns of Tibetan speech through repetitive interactive drills enabling the quick mastery of increasingly complex structures and thereby promoting rapid progress in speaking the language It is the first text recommended for language study by the Sera IMI House at Sera Monastery for Western monks as preparation for entry into the Geshe studies program Fluent Tibetan William A. Magee,1999 Uses sound and text to introduce the Tibetan language Contains all of the vocabulary lists and dialogues used in the printed publication as well as an additional seventeen intermediate level dialogues Also provides a Tibetan English glossary an introduction to the Tibetan alphabet and a presentation of Tibetan phonemics The CD ROM can be used on its own or with the full Fluent Tibetan course Fluent Tibetan William A. Magee,Elizabeth Napper,1992 Fluent Tibetan William A. Magee,1993 Relative Tense and Aspectual Values in Tibetan Languages Bettina Zeisler,2011-06-24 This study presents a comparative approach to a universal theory of TENSE ASPECT and MOOD combining the methods of comparative and historical linguistics fieldwork text linguistics and philology The parts of the book discuss and describe i the concepts of TENSE ASPECT and MOOD ii the Tibetan system of RELATIVE TENSE and aspectual values with main sections on Old and Classical Tibetan Lhasa Tibetan and East Tibetan Amdo and Kham and iii West Tibetan Ladakhi Purik Balti Part iv presents the comparative view Discussing the similarities and differences of temporal and aspectual concepts the study rejects the general claim that ASPECT is a linguistic universal A new linguistic concept FRAMING is introduced in order to account for the aspect like conceptualisations found in e g English The concept of RELATIVE TENSE or taxis may likewise not be universal Among the Tibetan varieties West Tibetan is unique in having fully grammaticalized the concept of ABSOLUTE TENSE West Tibetan is compared diachronically with Old and Classical Tibetan documented since the mid 8th century and synchronically with several contemporary Tibetan varieties The grammaticalized forms of each variety are described on the basis of their employment in discourse The underlying general function of the Tibetan verbal system is thus shown to be that of RELATIVE TENSE Secondary aspectual functions are described for restricted contexts A special focus on the pragmatic or metaphorical use of present tense constructions in Tibetan leads to a typology of narrative conventions The last part also offers some suggestions for the reconstruction of the Proto Tibetan verb system Tibetan Philip Denwood,1999-11-15 The Tibetan language comprises a wide range of spoken and written varieties whose known history dates from the 7th century AD to the present day Its speakers inhabit a vast area in Central Asia and the Himalayas extending into seven modern nation states while its abundant literature includes much of vital importance to the study of Buddhism After surveying all the known varieties of Tibetan including their geographical and historical background this book concentrates on a phonological and grammatical description of the modern spoken Lhasa dialect the standard spoken variety The grammatical framework which has been specially devised to describe this variety is then applied to the written varieties of Preclassical and Classical Tibetan demonstrating the fundamental unity of the language The writing system is outlined though all examples and texts are given in roman script and where appropriate the International Phonetic Alphabet The volume includes a comprehensive bibliography

Meditation on Emptiness Jeffrey Hopkins, 2014-04-01 In this major work Jeffrey Hopkins one of the world's foremost scholar practitioners of Tibetan Buddhism offers a clear exposition of the Prasangika Madhyamaka view of emptiness as presented in the Geluk tradition of Tibetan Buddhism In bringing this remarkable and complex philosophy to life he describes the meditational practices by which emptiness can be realized and shows throughout that far from being merely abstract these teachings can be vivid and utterly practical Presented in six parts this book is indispensable for those wishing to delve deeply into Buddhist thought
