France Rebecca M. Valette, Jean Paul Valette, 1973 America and French Culture, 1750-1848 Howard Mumford Jones, 1927 The French Review James Frederick Mason, Hélène Harvitt, 1927 Culture and Content in French Aurélie Chevant-Aksoy, 2022-03-16

Instructors in today's language classrooms face the challenge of preparing globally competent and socially responsible students with transcultural aptitude. As classroom content shifts toward communication collaboration and problem solving across cultural racial and linguistic boundaries, the teaching of culture is an integral part of foreign language education. This volume offers nontraditional approaches to teaching culture in a complex time when the internet and social networks have blurred geographical social and political borders. The authors offer practical advice about teaching culture with kinesthetics, music improvisation, and communication technologies for different competency levels. The chapters also explore multi literacies, project based learning, and discussions on teaching culture through literature, media, and film. The appendices share examples of course syllabi, specific course activities, and extracurricular projects that explore culinary practices, performing arts, pop culture, geolocation, digital literacy, journalism, and civic literacy.

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975 The High School, 1923 The Humanities and the Dynamics of African Culture in the 21st Century John Ayotunde Isola Bewaji, Kenneth W. Harrow, Eunice E. Omonzeje, 2017-05-11

That Africa is at a crossroads in an increasingly globalised world is indisputable. Equally unassailable is the fact that the humanities as a broad field of intellection, research, and learning in Africa appears to have been pigeonholed in debates of relevance in the development aspirations of many African nations. Historical experiences and contemporary research outputs indicate, however, that the humanities in its various shades is critical to Africa's capacity to respond effectively to such problems as security, corruption, political ineptitude, poverty, superstition, and HIV/AIDS among many other mounting challenges which confront the people of Africa. The vibrancy and resilience of Africa's cultures against these and other odds of globalisation episodes in the course of our history demand the focused attention of academia to exploit their relevance to contemporary issues. This collection provides a comprehensive overview of issues in the humanities at the turn of the 21st century which create a veritable platform for the global redefinition and understanding of Africa's rich cultures and traditions. Such areas covered include ruminations in metaphysics and psychology, pathos and ethos, cinematic and literary connections, and historical conceptualisations.

Research in Education, 1974 Catalogue University of Oregon, 1928 K.S. Aksakov, A Study in Ideas, Vol. III Peter K. Christoff, 2014-07-14

In this study, the author singles out the ideas of K. S. Aksakov, 1817-1860, philologist, poet, historian, and sometime dramatist, and places them in the broader current of nineteenth-century Slavophilism.
