Frances Hodgkins A Private Viewing:

Frances Hodgkins Joanne Drayton, 2005-01-01 The life of Frances Hodgkins was full of adventure involving both physical and artistic journeys in which she crossed hemispheres cultures epochs and styles She took huge risks had intense focus and exhibited enormous vitality An encourager of young artists she attracted ardent unstinting support herself yet she also suffered hurtful dismissals Hodgkins worked with and was highly regarded by such well known artists as Henry Moore Barbara Hepworth Ben and Winifred Nicholson and she became a leading figure of twentieth century British Modernism She is one of the most internationally significant New Zealand born artists to date In FRANCES HODGKINS A PRIVATE VIEWING art historian Dr Joanne Drayton captures Hodgkins s life vividly drawing on the artist s extensive correspondence with close friends and family on the other side of the world She critiques individual works many shown here in full colour and surveys Hodgkins s entire career displaying her unique achievements in their proper international context The result is a beautiful compelling and highly readable book that is indeed a private viewing it offers a sense of immediacy and intimacy and yet also the first comprehensive exploration of Frances Hodgkins Frances Hodgkins Catherine Hammond, Mary Kisler, 2019-05-02 A vivid and revealing book published alongside a landmark exhibition focused on one of New Zealand s most internationally recognised artists Frances Hodgkins Marking the 150th anniversary of the artist s birth New Zealand born Frances Hodgkins 1869 1947 arrived in London in 1901 and by the 1920s had become a leading British modernist exhibiting frequently with avant garde artists such as Ben Nicholson Barbara Hepworth and Henry Moore Published to coincide with a touring exhibition of her work initiated by Auckland Art Gallery Toi o Tamaki this book explores Hodgkins as a traveller across cultures and landscapes teaching and discovering the cubists in Paris absorbing the landscape and light of Ibiza and Morocco and exhibiting with the progressive Seven Five Society in London Complete with a rich visual chronology of the artist s encounters abroad alongside over one hundred of Hodgkins key paintings and drawings the book is an illuminating journey that moves us from place to place through the writings of a number of distinguished national and international art historians curators and critics Frances Spalding University of Cambridge England Alexa Johnston Auckland based writer and curator Elena Taylor University of New South Wales Australia Antoni Ribas Tur Ara newspaper Spain and Julia Waite Sarah Hillary Catherine Hammond and Mary Kisler Auckland Art Gallery Toi o Tamaki New Zealand Letters of Frances Hodgkins Frances Hodgkins, 2013-11-01 Letters of Frances Hodgkins is a generous selection of letters written by New Zealand s most internationally well known artist It shows that Hodgkins deserves not only her considerable reputation as a painter but also that of a brilliant and engaging writer The letters reveal Hodgkins changing moods impressions and fortunes and provide vivid sketches of the people and landscapes she came across Spanning from colonial Dunedin to her travels across Europe and North Africa the letters continue through her final flowering in her 60s and 70s Linda Gill s careful scholarship and sensitive appreciation of Hodgkins talents and personality make her introduction and notes the perfect framework for the artist's own words A chronology an in depth bibliography and an index of letter recipients complement the work Extensively illustrated with eight pages of color reproductions of Hodgkins paintings Letters of Frances Hodgkins is central to understanding Hodgkins as artist and woman The Athenaeum, 1909 The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1907 The Search for Anne Perry Joanne Drayton, 2016-04-05 Acclaimed literary biographer Joanne Drayton was given unparalleled access to Anne Perry her friends relatives colleagues and archives to complete this book She intersperses the story of her life with an examination of her writing drawing parallels between Perry's own experiences and her characters and storylines The Search for Anne Perry is a gripping account of a life and provides understanding of the girl Anne was the adult she became her compulsion to write and her view of the world Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1907 The Real and the Romantic Frances Spalding, 2022-07-07 The 21st century has seen a surge of interest in English art of the interwar years Women artists such as Winifred Knights Frances Hodgkins and Evelyn Dunbar have come to the fore while familiar names Paul Nash Eric Ravilious and Stanley Spencer have reached new audiences High profile exhibitions have attracted recordbreaking visitor numbers and challenged received opinion In The Real and the Romantic Frances Spalding one of Britain's leading art historians and critics takes a fresh and timely look at this rich period in English art The devastation of the First World War left the art world decentred and directionless This book is about its recovery Spalding explores how exciting new ideas co existed with a desire for continuity and a renewed interest in the past We see the challenge to English artists represented by C zanne and Picasso and the role played by museums and galleries in this period Women artists writers and curators contributed to the emergence of a new avant garde The English landscape was revisited in modern terms The 1930s marked a high point in the history of modernism in Britain but the mood darkened with the prospect of a return to war The former advance towards abstraction and internationalism was replaced by a renewed concern with history place memory and a sense of belonging Native traditions were revived in modern terms but in ways that also let in the past Surrealism further disturbed the ascetic purity of high modernism and fed into the British love of the strange Throughout these years the pursuit of the real was set against and sometimes merged with an inclination towards the romantic as English artists sought to respond to their subjects and their times Love Lucian David Dawson, Martin Gayford, 2022-11-15 Reproductions of the young Lucian Freud's extraordinary illustrated letters accompanied by insightful commentary offer an intimate glimpse of the artist's personality and creative practice Since his death in 2011 Lucian Freud's reputation as one of the greatest painters of the twentieth century has continued to grow with his inimitable large scale paintings of human figures hanging in museums worldwide and reaching dizzying prices at auction Art historians note his talent brilliance and complicated personal life but until now his own voice has often not risen above the noise Full of verbal and visual wit affection and irreverence Freud's letters now provide a revealing and at times revelatory personal look at his life and process This volume brings together Freud's early letters gathered with the endorsement of the Freud estate from both private collections and public archives including the Freud Museum the National Portrait Gallery and the Tate Ranging from schoolboy notes to his parents to his early recognition as a professional artist the letters which often feature drawings and characterful visual quirks present the multiple facets of Freud's complex personality Coauthored by David Dawson Freud's longstanding personal assistant and now director of the Lucian Freud Archive and Martin Gayford author critic and acquaintance of Lucian Freud these extraordinary illustrated letters are reproduced in facsimile alongside striking reproductions of Freud's works of this period Linked by a narrative that weaves the letters and paintings into the story of his life including his first marriage and separation this book provides an intimate and fresh perspective on the first three decades of the artist's life Exhibiting Gender Sarah Hyde, 1997 Established in the belief that imperialism as a cultural phenomenon had as significant an effect on the dominant as it did on the subordinate societies the Studies in Imperialism series seeks to develop the new socio cultural approach which has emerged through cross disciplinary work on popular culture media studies art history the study of education and religion sports history and children's literature The cultural emphasis embraces studies of migration and race while the older political and constitutional economic and military concerns are never far away It incorporates comparative work on European and American empire building with the chronological focus primarily though not exclusively on the 19th and 20th centuries when these cultural exchanges were most powerfully at work This work explores the sexual attitudes and activities of those who ran the British Empire The study explains the pervasive importance of sexuality in the Victorian Empire both for individuals and as a general dynamic in the working of the system Among the topics included in the book are prostitution the manners and mores of missionaries and aspects of race in sexual behaviour Facing the Music Joanna Woods, 2008 An entertaining and lively biography of the founder and editor of the Triad New Zealand's first longstanding cultural magazine Founded in 1893 and running into the late 1920s the magazine offered well informed coverage of cultural activities in New Zealand Australia and internationally in a broad mix of critical and original writing Notoriously outspoken Baeyertz was feared and respected as a critic His music criticism was particularly intelligent and rigorous making no concessions to personality or amateur or professional status His later co editor the self styled decadent Frank Morton was equally candid This engaging biography of a fascinating man throws new light on a long neglected period of New Zealand's cultural past Publisher Arts and Crafts Movement in New Zealand, 1870-1940 Ann Calhoun, 2000 Reveals the exquisite work and extraordinary skill of a group of New Zealand artists most of them women working in a wide variety of art and craft forms This flowering of local talent originated in the British Arts and Crafts movement and is associated with the growth of art education in this country its quiet but dedicated character also suggests much about the situation of women in the years before and after 1900 Jacket Art New Zealand , 1982 Kathleen O'Connor of Paris Amanda Curtin, 2018-11-01 What does it mean to live a life in pursuit of art In 1906 Kathleen O Connor left conservative Perth where her famous father s life had ended in tragedy She had her sights set on a career in thrilling bohemian Paris More than a century later novelist Amanda Curtin faces her own questions of life and of art as she embarks on a journey in Kate s footsteps Part biography part travel narrative this is the story of an artist in a foreign land who with limited resources and despite the impacts of war and loss worked and exhibited in Paris for over forty years Kate s distinctive figure paintings portraits and still lifes highly prized today form an inseparable part of the telling
