Reviews: A wild ride from start to finish. Love Romances More. Deadly Love Brenda Joyce, 2007-04-01 Dear Readers, I have a confession to make: I never know where my muse will take me next. It has been an exciting literary journey; my writing has evolved in many unexpected ways, including recently into the realm of powerful and suspenseful contemporary women's fiction, which I shall continue to write under my own name, Brenda Joyce. I have never lost sight, however, of my audience: my historical romance readers and especially fans of my books featuring the Bragg family. To this day, many of you still clamor for more Bragg books. Well, imagine my surprise when my muse prompted me to begin a new historical romance suspense series, and then I realized a Bragg had to be the hero. And so the nom de plume B.D. Joyce was born, and with it, the first book in an ongoing series, Deadly Love. Welcome to the world of Francesca Cahill, crime solver extraordinaire. Francesca is no ordinary heroine. She refuses to bow to convention, wears her heart on her sleeve, and is determined to right the ills and injustices of society. Deadly Love begins Francesca's mad escapades when the neighbor's little boy is kidnapped right out of his bed during a society ball. It is January 18, 1902. Francesca stumbles across the ransom note just as she meets New York City's newly appointed police commissioner Rick Bragg. And Francesca can no more stay out of this investigation than she can stop herself from falling in love with the city's determined and powerful police commissioner. But little does she know that on this singular night, her life will change forever. Let me take you back in time to the lost magical world of turn-of-the-century New York City, where the glittering mansions of society's elite are only footsteps away from the impoverished back alleys of the city's underbelly and into the heart of true danger and even truer passion. Enjoy! Best wishes and Happy Reading. B.D. Joyce aka Brenda Joyce. Deadly Pleasure Brenda Joyce, 2007-04-01 Brenda Joyce has enthralled millions of readers with her New York Times bestselling novels. Now join us in the next chapter of her unforgettable storytelling: the Francesca Cahill novels. Step into the glittering world of New York City's high society at the turn of the last century, where murder and pleasure are one and the same, and love becomes the ultimate weapon. Francesca Cahill comes from one of New York's best families. Her mother is a leading socialite, her father a millionaire. Their expectations for their daughter are simple: marry well and soon. But

Wings of the Doves Elena Lombardi, 2012. The tragic love of Francesca da Rimini and Paolo Malatesta, a classic story of passion and death revisited through the lenses of literature, philosophy, and theology. The Courtship Dance Candace Camp, 2019-04-15. A fan favorite from New York Times bestselling author Candace Camp, originally published in 2009. Lady Francesca Haughston has given up on romance for herself, finding passion instead in making desirable matches for others. So it seems only fair when she learns she'd been deceived into breaking her own long-ago engagement to Sinclair Duke of Rochford that she now help him find the perfect wife. Of course, Francesca is certain any spark of passion between them has long since died; her own treatment of him saw to that. The way Sinclair gazes at her, well, that's merely practice for when a younger, more suitable woman catches his eye. But soon Francesca finds his lessons in love scandalously irresistible and a temptation that could endanger them both. Alessandro Manzoni's The Count of Carmagnola and Adelchi Alessandro Manzoni, 2004-09-07. Now translator Federica Brunori Deigan presents lyrical English language versions of these two tragedies, which taken together dramatize the first two epochs in Manzoni's history of Italy. The Betrothed completes the triptych illustrating the period of Spanish domination. Long unavailable in English, The Count of Carmagnola and Adelchi are distinguished by their dramatic power and thematic gravity. Manzoni considers the interactions of Christian morals and Machiavellian politics through deft psychological portraiture, ultimately revealing the course of history as a fabric woven by individuals, free will according to a logical pattern of actions and reactions within the vaster providential plan that human eyes can only dimly perceive.
