Francis Danby Varieties Of Poetic Landscape:

Francis Danby Eric Adams,1973 Nineteenth-Century Lives Jerome Hamilton Buckley,1989 In this unique collection of essays ten distinguished critics and biographers consider what it means to narrate a life Their illustrative texts are largely taken from nineteenth century biography autobiography and the novel but narrative is the broader genre that unites their various inquiries The principal issues are framed by Margaret Atwood J Hillis Miller and Phyllis Rose Atwood compares and contrasts the biographer and the novelist as creators of narratives emphasizing that the difference is in the ground rules Determining what these ground rules are is a recurring theme in these essays Some of the subjects discussed are the boundaries of fact and fiction the professed power of the narrator and the figurative underpinnings of autobiography Many of these pieces are delightful and provocative biographical and autobiographical excursions in themselves Atwood describes her early fear of biography Morton Cohen narrates an exciting bit of detective work he conducted into the life of Lewis Carroll and John Rosenberg gives a vivid and frequently revisionary reading of many aspects of Darwin s life Other critics Carl Woodring Richard Altick Norman Kelvin Margaret Stetz and Robert Kiely consider related topics The contributors as well as the editors have all been colleagues or students of the eminent critic and biographer Jerome Hamilton Buckley in whose honor these essays have been written The Languages of Landscape ,1997 Life of Sir Walter Scott by John Macrone Daniel Grader,2013-02-06 John Macrone who wrote this life of Scott in 1832 3 was admirably suited to the task for while he had never met Scott his friends and associates included Cunningham Galt and Hogg who wrote his Anecdotes of Scott for publication in Macrone s book A quarrel with Lockhart however put a stop to the project and nothing more was heard of it until the recent discovery of an autograph manuscript here edited and published for the first time A well written and carefully researched narrative it increases our knowledge of Scott s life and work as perceived by his contemporaries as well as enabling us to read Hogg s Anecdotes in their original context The editor s introduction draws extensively on uncollected and unpublished material to illuminate Macrone s career in the course of which he became the friend and publisher of Dickens Thackeray and Moore The Apocalypse and the Shape of Things to Come Frances Carey,1999-01-01 The Book of Revelation s legacy of visual imagery is evaluated here from the 11th century to the end of World War 2 illuminated manuscripts books prints and drawings of apocalyptic phases are examined John Clare Society Journal, 17 (1998) Tom Paulin,Peter Cox,Louise Sylvester,Gary Harrison,Mary Moyse,Hugh Haughton,Bridget Keegan, The official Journal of the John Clare Society published annually to reflect the interest in and approaches to the life and work of the poet John Clare

Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition Nineteenth Century Painters and Painting Geraldine Norman, 2023-12-22 John Martin: Sketches of My Life John Martin, 2013-09-05 In February and March of 1849 the Illustrated London News carried a series of announcements about the works of the painter John Martin being exhibited at the British Institution the third of which included an account of his early life On the 17 March the paper received a long letter from the artist reproduced here in full in which he demands a right of reply Their article is he claims so unfortunate a tissue of errors from beginning to end that it can only have the effect of misleading your readers Martin s brief autobiography makes fascinating reading Beginning with his youth in Newcastle where he was apprenticed to a coach builder it recounts his initial struggles in London and the eventual recognition accorded to his vast apocalyptic landscape painting and stunning engravings ending with the civic works he devoted himself to in later years The reader is left in awe of Martin s determination and drive With an introduction by Martin Myrone Lead Curator of Pre 1800 British Art at Tate Britain this engaging book provides many new insights into the work of this extraordinary painter of sublime landscapes and the times in which he lived The Collected Works of Samuel Taylor Coleridge Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1969 The Northern Utopia Peter Fjågesund, Ruth A. Symes, 2021-11-22 In the nineteenth century the ancient filial tie between Britain and Norway was rediscovered by a booming tourist industry which took thousands across the North Sea to see the wonders of the fjords the fjelds and the beauties of the North Cape This illustrated volume for the first time collects together vivid and predominantly first hand impressions of the country recorded by nearly two hundred British travellers and other commentators including Thomas Malthus Charlotte Bront Lord Tennyson and William Gladstone In a rich selection of travel writing fiction poetry journalism political speeches and art Norway emerges as a refreshingly natural utopia happily free from her imperial neighbour s increasing problems with the side effects of industrialisation This is a fascinating examination of the people institutions customs language and environment of Norway seen through the eyes of the British Using the tools of literary and historical scholarship Fj gesund and Symes set these perceptions in their nineteenth century context throwing light on such issues as progress art and aesthetics democracy religion nationhood race class and gender all of which occupied Europe at the time The Northern Utopia will be of particular interest to students of British and Scandinavian cultural history literature and travel writing It will also enthrall all those who love Norway Dictionary of Nineteenth-century Journalism in Great Britain and Ireland Laurel Brake, Marysa Demoor, 2009 A large scale reference work covering the journalism industry in 19th Century Britain Library Journal ,1974 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1974-10 A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L.

Landow, 2014-08-01 First published in 1982 Images of Crisis explores the premise that literature and art exploit various images to present culturally prevalent ideas and thus create their own form of iconology George Landow shows how the tumultuous history of the past two hundred years has resulted in a plethora of metaphors associated with moments of human crisis Avalanches and volcanoes emerge as focal images in an aesthetic that concerns itself increasingly with the vulnerability of humanity However it is in the transformation of traditional religious images that the ideas of the vacant universe are most dramatically presented Associated with this central idea are ironic transformations of other images that formerly had been associated with Christianity as paradigms of belief the journey of Odysseus the rainbow of the Covenant and Robinson Crusoe Combining close textual analysis with a theory of literary iconology this fascinating reissue will be of particular value to students with an interest in literary images and literary and cultural history Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1976
 The Publishers Weekly , 1974 Realizations Martin Meisel, 2014-07-14 In this richly illustrated study of the relationship of art drama and fiction in the nineteenth century Martin Meisel illuminates the collaboration between storytelling and picturemaking that informed narrative painting pictorial dramaturgy and serial illustrated fiction Originally published in 1984 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Images of Crisis George P.
