Francis Ponge And The Nature Of Things From Ancient Atomism To A Modern Poetics:

Francis Ponge and the Nature of Things Patrick Alan Meadows,1997 One of the most significant French poets of the twentieth century Francis Ponge is treated in this study The fundamental role of atomistic philosophy in Ponge s writings especially as expressed in Lucretius s De Rerum Natura is discussed Meadows is the first author to examine Ponge s writings in a book length study

Radium of the Word Craig Dworkin,2020-12-09 With fresh insight and contemporary relevance Radium of the Word argues that a study of the form of language yields meanings otherwise inaccessible through ordinary reading strategies Attending to the forms of words rather than to their denotations Craig Dworkin traces hidden networks across the surface of texts examining how typography and even individual letters and marks of punctuation can reveal patterns that are significant without being symbolic fully meaningful without communicating any preordained message Radium of the Word takes its title from Mina Loy s poem for Gertrude Stein which hails her as the Madame Curie of the laboratory of vocabulary In this spirit Dworkin considers prose as a dynamic literary form characterized by experimentation Dworkin draws on examples from writers as diverse as Lyn Hejinian William Faulkner and Joseph Roth He takes up the status of the proper name in Modernism with examples from Stein Loy and Guillaume Apollinaire and he offers in depth analyses of individual authors from the counter canon of the avant garde including P Inman Russell Atkins N H Pritchard and Andy Warhol The result is an inspiring intervention in contemporary poetics

Italo Calvino's Architecture of Lightness Letizia Modena,2011-05-09 This study recovers Italo Calvino s central place in a lost history of interdisciplinary thought politics and literary philosophy in the 1960s Drawing on his letters essays critical reviews and fiction as well as a wide range of works primarily urban planning and design theory and history circulating among his primary interlocutors this book takes as its point of departure a sweeping reinterpretation of Invisible Cities Passages from Calvino s most famous novel routinely appear as aphorisms in calendars posters and the popular literature of inspiration and self help reducing the novel to vague abstractions and totalizing wisdom about thinking outside the box The shadow of postmodern studies has had a similarly diminishing effect on this text rendering up an accomplished but ultimately apolitical novelistic experimentation in endless deconstructive deferrals the shiny surfaces of play and the ultimately rigged game of self referentiality In contrast this study draws on an archive of untranslated Italian and French language materials on urban planning architecture and utopian architecture to argue that Calvino s novel in fact introduces readers to the material history of urban renewal in Italy France and the U S in the 1960s as well as the multidisciplinary core of cultural life in that decade the complex and continuous interplay among novelists and architects scientists and artists literary historians and visual studies scholars His last love poem for the dying city was in fact profoundly engaged deeply committed to the ethical dimensions of both architecture and lived experience in the spaces of modernity as well as the resistant practices of reading and utopian imagining that his urban studies in turn inspired experience in modern art literature and philosophy promotes ecstatic forms of reflection on the very structure of the everyday world Gosetti Ferencei examines the ways in which modern art and literature enable a study of how we experience quotidian life She shows that modernism while exhibiting many strands of development can be understood by investigating how its attentions to perception and expectation to the common quality of things or to childhood play gives way to experiences of ecstasis the stepping outside of the ordinary familiarity of the world While phenomenology grounds this study through Husserl Heidegger Merleau Ponty and Bachelard what makes this book more than a treatise on phenomenological aesthetics is the way in which modernity itself is examined in its relation to the quotidian Through the works of artists and writers such as Benjamin C zanne Frost Klee Newman Pollock Ponge Proust Rilke Robbe Grillet Rothko Sartre and Twombly the world of quotidian life can be seen to harbor a latent ecstasis The breakdown of the quotidian through and after modernism then becomes an urgent question for understanding art and literature in its capacity to further human experience and it points to the limits of phenomenological explications of the everyday Critical Survey of Poetry Philip K.
