Francis And Islam:

Francis and Islam J. Hoeberichts, 1997 In the first part of this study Dr Hoeberichts goes back to Francis Earlier Rule the Regula non bullata of 1221 and especially to Chapter 16 the mission chapter in order to determine the attitude of Francis toward Muslims and Islam In a radical rereading of this chapter of the rule Hoeberichts argues that for Francis the idea of living among the Saracens and being subject to them implied a greater respect for and deference to the faith of other believers than was current in the Church at the time of the crusades or for that matter is today Firmly rooted in historical scholarship Hoeberichts book recreates the milieu of Francis and his first brothers and brings new insights to contemporary issues of interreligious dialogue Saint Francis and the Sultan John V. Tolan, 2009-03-26 In September 1219 Francis of Assisi went to Egypt to preach to Sultan al Malik al Kamil John Tolan examines the varying depictions of this brief but highly significant meeting and how they reveal the changing fears and hopes that Muslim Christian encounters have inspired in European artists and writers in the centuries since In the Spirit of St. Francis & the Sultan George Dardess, Marvin L. Krier Mich, 2011 Here two practitioners of interfaith dialogue provide readers with a guide for Catholics and Muslims to reach greater mutual understanding and work for social justice Francis and the Sultan Jan Hoeberichts, 2019 Full of new impressions Francis returned to Italy from his visit to the Sultan For the first time in his life he had come into contact with a very different religion and culture It had touched him profoundly That would never have been possible if he had gone to the Middle East with the mentality of a crusader and had allowed his judgement to be clouded by all the prejudices that the Christian world harbored regarding Muslims However he had gone with a very different mind set His intention was to go and live among the Muslims in service solidarity and peace in the spirit of Jesus This enabled him to look at Muslims from a different point of view entirely new to him with new eyes and from a fresh more open perspective Christian Muslim Prayer Ecumenism for Peace A reading of the texts Francis wrote after his sojourn in the Middle East makes it clear that this sojourn had made a profound impression on him Especially characteristic of this is how greatly Francis as he approached the Muslims with his positive and peaceful attitude had come to admire their religious practice This stands out particularly in the first letters he sent out shortly after his return to Italy He had noticed the respect that Muslims have for their holy book the Koran amid their devotion to the 99 Beautiful Names for God This gave him the idea to call on the clergy to respect not only the Eucharist in keeping with the decisions of the Fourth Lateran Council and papal directives but also to have an equal reverence and devotion for the written most holy names and words of the Lord He Francis wanted in his life and work to continue the mission of Jesus who was sent by the Father to redeem humankind and restore them to paradise the place God had originally intended for them but which was lost through sin RegNB 23 1 3 In that paradise no weapons were carried and no one appropriated anything for themselves there was no struggle for power and property but people were at the service of and in solidarity with each other they shared everything together and no one was poor or hungry all had their rightful seat at the table of the Lord they shared their houses and lived together in peace Living and acting in accordance with this spirituality Francis became the person in paradise he was and still is for us a man of peace St. Francis of Assisi and the Conversion of the Muslims Frank M. Rega,2008-12 Describes in gripping detail St Francis historic efforts to convert the Sultan of Egypt to the Catholic faith Discusses St Francis approach to ecumenism and the conversion of other religions to Catholicism Also includes a comprehensive biography of St Francis and his dynamic reform of the Church Daring to Cross the Threshold Kathy Warren,2012-08-21 September 11 2001 highlighted the urgent need for greater understanding among religious traditions Specifically the lack of acceptance and appreciation between Muslims and Christians was suddenly catapulted into headlines around the world Now in the aftermath of war in Iraq the need for understanding and respect among religious traditions and various cultures becomes ever more important It is my hope that this book might nurture that mutual respect that fosters peace and justice for they are God s desire for us and gifts that all races and religions seek The Saint and the Sultan Paul Moses,2009-09-29 An intriguing examination of the extraordinary and little known meeting between St Francis of Assisi and Islamic leader Sultan Malik Al Kamil that has strong resonance in today s divided world For many of us St Francis of Assisi is known as a poor monk and a lover of animals However these images are sadly incomplete because they ignore an equally important and more challenging aspect of his life his unwavering commitment to seeking peace In The Saint and the Sultan Paul Moses recovers Francis s message of peace through the largely forgotten story of his daring mission to end the crusades In 1219 as the Fifth Crusade was being fought Francis crossed enemy lines to gain an audience with Malik al Kamil the Sultan of Egypt The two talked of war and peace and faith and when Francis returned home he proposed that his Order of the Friars Minor live peaceably among the followers of Islam a revolutionary call at a moment when Christendom pinned its hopes for converting Muslims on the battlefield The Saint and the Sultan captures the lives of St Francis and Sultan al Kamil and illuminates the political intrigue and religious fervor of their time In the process it reveals a startlingly timely story of interfaith conflict war and the search for peace More than simply a dramatic adventure though it does not lack for colorful saints and sinners loyalty and betrayal and thrilling Crusade narrative The Saint and the Sultan brings to life an episode of deep relevance for all who seek to find peace between the West and the Islamic world Winner of the 2010 Catholic Press Association Book Award for History Francis and the Sultan Jan Hoeberichts,2018-11-14 Full of new impressions Francis returned to Italy from his visit to the Sultan For the first time in his life he had come into contact with a very different religion and culture It had touched him profoundly That would never have been possible if he had gone to the Middle East with the mentality of a crusader and had allowed his judgement to be clouded by all the prejudices that the Christian world harboured regarding Muslims However he had gone with a very different mind set His intention was to go and live among the Muslims in service solidarity and peace in the spirit of Jesus This enabled him to look at Muslims from a different point of view entirely new to him with new eyes and from a fresh more open perspective Christian Muslim prayer ecumenism for peace A reading of the texts Francis wrote after his sojourn in the Middle East makes it clear that this sojourn had made a profound impression on him Especially characteristic of this is how greatly Francis as he approached the Muslims with his positive and peaceful attitude had come to admire their religious practice This stands out particularly in the first letters he sent out shortly after his return to Italy He had noticed the respect that Muslims have for their holy book the Koran and their devotion to the 99 Beautiful Names for God This gave him the idea to call on the clergy to respect not only the Eucharist in keeping with the decisions of the Fourth Lateran Council and papal directives but also to have an equal reverence and devotion for the written most holy names and words of the Lord

Studying the Life of Saint Francis of Assisi William Hugo, 2011 General readers will enjoy learning about Saint Francis in this book and how hagiography shaped the public stories of medieval saints Early Islam and the Birth of Capitalism Benedikt Koehler, 2014-06-17 Early Islam and the Birth of Capitalism proposes a strikingly original thesis that capitalism first emerged in Arabia not in late medieval Italian city states as is commonly assumed Early Islam made a seminal but largely unrecognized contribution to the history of economic thought it is the only religion founded by an entrepreneur Descending from an elite dynasty of religious civil and commercial leaders Muhammad was a successful businessman before founding Islam As such the new religion had much to say on trade consumer protection business ethics and property As Islam rapidly spread across the region so did the economic teachings of early Islam which eventually made their way to Europe Early Islam and the Birth of Capitalism demonstrates how Islamic institutions and business practices were adopted and adapted in Venice and Genoa These financial innovations include the invention of the corporation business management techniques commercial arithmetic and monetary reform There were other Islamic institutions assimilated in Europe charities the waqf inspired trusts and institutions of higher learning the madrasas were models for the oldest colleges of Oxford and Cambridge As such it can be rightfully said that these essential aspects of capitalist thought all have Islamic roots What is Islam? Shahab Ahmed, 2016 A bold new conceptualization of Islam that reflects its contradictions and rich diversity What is Islam How do we grasp a human and historical phenomenon characterized by such variety and contradiction What is Islamic about Islamic philosophy or Islamic art Should we speak of Islam or of islams Should we distinguish the Islamic the religious from the Islamicate the cultural Or should we abandon Islamic altogether as an analytical term In What Is Islam Shahab Ahmed presents a bold new conceptualization of Islam that challenges dominant understandings grounded in the categories of religion and culture or those that privilege law and scripture He argues that these modes of thinking obstruct us from understanding Islam distorting it diminishing it and rendering it incoherent What Is Islam formulates a new conceptual language for analyzing Islam It presents a new paradigm of how Muslims have historically understood divine revelation one that enables us to understand how and why Muslims through history have embraced values such as exploration ambiguity aestheticization polyvalence and relativism as well as practices such as figural art music and even wine drinking as Islamic It also puts forward a new understanding of the historical constitution of Islamic law and its relationship to philosophical ethics and political theory A book that is certain to provoke debate and significantly alter our understanding of Islam What Is Islam reveals how Muslims have historically conceived of and lived with Islam as norms and truths that are at once contradictory yet coherent What Catholics Need to Know About Islam William K. Kilpatrick,2020-08-04 William

Kilpatrick pulls no punches in courageously confronting the threats posed by Islam Islam and The English

Enlightenment Zulfiqar Ali Shah,2022-06-02 Never before to my knowledge has the cross fertilisation of Western and Islamic ideas been so encyclopedically documented as it is here In reading Islam and the English Enlightenment you will never see the relationship between Islam and the West in the same way again ROBERT F SHEDI NGER Professor of Religion Luther College Dr Zulfiqar Ali Shah s Islam and the English Enlightenment is one of the most profoundly enlightening books I have read in years Dr Shah compellingly demonstrates that the thinkers of English Enlightenment were undeniably indebted to Islamic sciences and thought and that the foundational principles of rationalist thought scientific inquiry and religious toleration were deeply anchored in the Islamic tradition KHALED ABOU EL FADL Omar Azmeralda Alfi Distinguished Professor of Law UCLA School of Law This is a book that anyone interested in stepping outside a Eurocentric view of the rise of the West and of the modern age must read MICHAEL A GILLESPIE Professor of Political Science Philosophy Duke University Dr Shah convincingly demonstrates the central role that Islam played in shaping the values and ideas of the Enlightenment reformers such as John Locke and Isaac Newton who had helped to produce the modern world GERALD MACLEAN Emeritus Professor University of Exeter Dynamics of Islam in the Modern World Saeed Zarrabi-Zadeh,Armina Omerika,Thomas K. Gugler,Michael E. Asbury,2022-07-11 Dynamics of Islam in the Modern World scrutinizes and analyzes Islam in context It posits Muslims not as independent and autonomous but as relational and interactive agents of change and continuity who interplay with Islamic ate sources of self and society as well as with resources from other traditions Representing multiple disciplinary approaches the contributors to this volume discuss a broad range of issues such as secularization colonialism globalization radicalism human rights migration hermeneutics mysticism religious normativity and pluralism while paying special attention to three geographical settings of South Asia the Middle East and Euro America

Islam in South Asia: Amit Dey,2016 Scholarly insightful and at the same time written in an exceptionally lucid style this book challenges certain stereotypes relating to Islam Sufism folk songs and inter community relations in the South Asian context By consulting Persian Urdu Bengali and English sources this book suggests that Sufism is more heterogeneous and complex than what is commonly taken to be True Confucians, bold Christians Antton Eiguren Iraola,2007-01-01 The three methods of doing mission namely conquista accommodation kenosis need to be seen not so much as historical events that took place in a particular time and space but rather as deeply engraved mind structures and personal attitudes as we confront many of the modern time issues such as mass poverty and its relationship to the churches interreligious and ecumenical dialogue relationship with Islam Catholic education in public institutions moral and ethical problems regarding the treatment of embryos for eugenic purposes issues concerning the end of life social debate on alternative lifestyles and the role of women in ecclesial institutions to mention but a few Female Islamic Education Movements Masooda Bano,2017-08-31 Since the 1970s movements aimed at giving Muslim women access to the serious study of Islamic texts have emerged across the world In this book Masooda Bano argues that the creative spirit that marked the rise and consolidation of Islam whereby Islam inspired serious intellectual engagement to create optimal societal institutions can be found within these education movements Drawing on rich ethnographic material from Pakistan northern Nigeria and Syria Bano questions the restricted notion of agency associated with these movements exploring the educational networks which have attracted educated professional and culturally progressive Muslim women to textual study thus helping to reverse the most damaging legacy of colonial rule in Muslim societies the isolation of modern and Islamic knowledge With its comparative approach this will appeal to those studying and researching the role of women across Africa the Middle East and South Asia as well as the wider Muslim world The Martyrdom of the Franciscans Christopher MacEvitt,2020-03-06 A study of three hundred years of medieval Franciscan history that focuses on martyrdom While hagiographies tell of Christian martyrs who have died in an astonishing number of ways and places slain by members of many different groups martyrdom in a Franciscan context generally meant death at Muslim hands indeed in Franciscan discourse death by Saracen came to rival or even surpass other definitions of what made a martyr The centrality of Islam to Franciscan conceptions of martyrdom becomes even more apparent and problematic when we realize that many of the martyr narratives were largely invented Franciscan authors were free to choose the antagonist they wanted Christopher MacEvitt observes and they almost always chose Muslims However martyrdom in Franciscan accounts rarely leads to conversion of the infidel nor is it accompanied as is so often the case in earlier hagiographical accounts by any miraculous manifestation If the importance of preaching to infidels was written into the official Franciscan Rule of Order the Order did not demonstrate much interest in conversion and the primary efforts of friars in Muslim lands were devoted to preaching not to the native populations but to the Latin Christians mercenaries merchants and captives living there Franciscan attitudes toward conversion and martyrdom changed dramatically in the beginning of the fourteenth century however when accounts of the martyrdom of four Franciscans said to have died while preaching in India were written The speed with which the accounts of their martyrdom spread had less to do with the world beyond Christendom than with ecclesiastical affairs within MacEvitt contends The Martyrdom of the Franciscans shows how for Franciscans martyrdom accounts could at once offer veiled critique of papal policies toward the Order a substitute for the rigorous pursuit of poverty and a symbolic way to overcome Islam by denying Muslims the solace of conversion Da'wa Matthew J. Kuiper,2021-03-31 In this engaging study Matthew J Kuiper tells the fascinating story of how Islam became a world religion and cultural phenomenon of immense scale astonishing diversity and global impact His

Khairudin Aljunied, 2018-09-15 Since the early twentieth century Muslim reformers have been campaigning for a total transformation of the ways in which Islam is imagined in the Malay world One of the most influential is the author Haji Abdul Malik bin Abdul Karim Amrullah commonly known as Hamka In Hamka and Islam Khairudin Aljunied employs the term cosmopolitan reform to describe Hamka s attempt to harmonize the many streams of Islamic and Western thought while posing solutions to the various challenges facing Muslims Among the major themes Aljunied explores are reason and revelation moderation and extremism social justice the state of women in society and Sufism in the modern age as well as the importance of history in reforming the minds of modern Muslims Aljunied argues that Hamka demonstrated intellectual openness and inclusiveness toward a whole range of thoughts and philosophies to develop his own vocabulary of reform attesting to Hamka s unique ability to function as a conduit for competing Islamic and secular groups Hamka and Islam pushes the boundaries of the expanding literature on Muslim reformism and reformist thinkers by grounding its analysis within the Malay experience and by using the concept of cosmopolitan reform in a new context
