Francis Bacon A Retrospective:

Francis Bacon Abrams, 1999-02-01 Francis Bacon retrospective Francis Bacon, 1987 Francis Bacon, a Centenary Retrospective Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Department of Communications, 2008 Francis Bacon Francis Bacon, Steingrim Laursen, 1998 Francis Bacon a self taught painter became one of the greatest artists of the twentieth century Here he speaks openly to his close friend Michel Archimbaud who sets out to discover the man behind the paintings His searching questions shed a new light on Bacon s work in spite of his claim that he finds it impossible to talk about his painting He talks candidly about his childhood his relationship with his father his friends and the influences which have shaped his art The discussion is wide ranging touching on painting literature and music The interviews are punctuated with Bacon s revealing and sometimes disparaging remarks about a whole host of artists including amongst others Rubens Blake Monet Cezanne Picasso Balthus Giacometti Shakespeare Baudelaire Wagner Debussy and Schonberg These interviews conducted in French took place in Bacon s studio between October 1991 and April 1992 They were to continue in Paris following Bacon s trip to Madrid but he died in Madrid on 28 April 1992 As such these conversations can be seen as his last recorded thoughts Francis Bacon a Retrospective Dennis Farr, 1999 Francis Bacon Francis Bacon, David Sylvester, Marlborough Gallery, 1987 May 7 July 31 1987 Francis Bacon Bernard Blistene, 2020-01-14 A radically new perspective on Francis Bacon s art analyzing the ways in which literature inspired the artist s work Published to accompany a major Francis Bacon retrospective in Paris which will travel to the Fine Arts Museum Houston Francis Bacon analyzes Bacon s works from 1971 onward in light of his relationship to literature Bacon always vigorously opposed overanalysis of his paintings preferring to interpret them in purely illustrative or symbolic terms he admitted however that literature was a powerful stimulus to his imagination The artist was inspired by the images conjured up by certain texts Aeschylus s phrase the reek of human blood smiles out at me particularly haunted Bacon while his 1978 work Painting refers to T S Eliot s seminal poem The Waste Land An inventory of Bacon s personal library has identified more than 1 300 books ranging from Georges Bataille and Joseph Conrad to Friedrich Nietzsche and Michel Leiris Including twelve of Bacon s renowned triptychs this lavish publication features eleven gatefolds and some sixty paintings created by Bacon between 1971 and his death in 1992 Reproduced here with analyses of Bacon s paintings in the light of some of his most admired authors these specially commissioned texts reveal new ways of understanding some of the most powerful works in the modern canon Francis Bacon: Retrospective , 1987 Francis Bacon Francis Bacon, Marlborough Gallery, 1984 May 5 June 5 1984 Francis Bacon Hugh Marlais Davies, 1995-01-03 With their searing colors and compelling images the paintings of Francis Bacon are among the most powerful and the most poignant to be made in the twentieth century During his sixty odd years as a painter Francis Bacon fearlessly tackled the unruly imagery of life remaining defiantly committed to giving this purposeless existence a meaning His insistence on depicting the mysteries of human experience had been rare in an age dominated by abstraction

Now with the international resurgence of figurative imagery the pivotal importance of his work has become more obvious than ever before The power and magnitude of his life s work are vividly conveyed by this thorough evaluation written by Hugh Davies and Sally Yard Born in Dublin as a teenager Bacon moved to London where he worked as an interior designer and taught himself to paint Responding to influences as diverse as Michelangelo and the photographer Muybridge he has created a motion filled style uniquely his own Fascinated by the challenge of capturing what he calls the mysteries of appearance Bacon confronts us with emotional images that demand an emotional response About Abbeville s Modern Masters series With informative enjoyable texts and over 100 illustrations approximately 48 in full color this innovative series offers a fresh look at the most creative and influential artists of the postwar era The authors are highly respected art historians and critics chosen for their ability to think clearly and write well Each handsomely designed volume presents a thorough survey of the artists life and work as well as statements by the artist an illustrated chapter on technique a chronology lists of exhibitions and public collections an annotated bibliography and an index Every art lover from the casual museum goer to the serious student teacher critic or curator will be eager to collect these Modern Masters And with such a low price they can afford to collect them all Francis Bacon: A Centenary Retrospective , Essays and Ancient Fables of Francis Bacon Francis Bacon,2014-03-30 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1800 s Edition The Works of Francis Bacon Francis Bacon,2011-11-24 The complete writings of English philosopher Francis Bacon are arranged according to subject matter in this 1857 74 edition Preparative Toward a Natural and Experimental History Francis Bacon,2016-12-27 Preparative toward a Natural and Experimental History Francis Bacon My object in publishing my Instauration by parts is that some portion of it may be put out of peril A similar reason induces me to subjoin here another small portion of the work and to publish it along with that which has just been set forth This is the description and delineation of a natural and experimental history such as may serve to build philosophy upon and containing material true and copious and aptly digested for the work of the interpreter which follows The proper place for it would be when I come in due course to the Preparatives of Inquiry I have thought it better however to introduce it at once without waiting for that For a history of this kind such as I conceive and shall presently describe is a thing of very great size and cannot be executed without great labor and expense requiring as it does many people to help and being as I have said elsewhere a kind of royal work It occurs to me therefore that it may not be amiss to try if there be any others who will take these matters in hand so that while I go on with the completion of my original design this part which is so manifold and laborious may even during my life if it so please the Divine Majesty be prepared and set forth others applying themselves diligently to it along with me the rather because my own strength if I should have no one to help me is hardly equal to such a province For as much relates to the work itself of the intellect I shall perhaps be able to master that by myself but the materials on which the intellect has to work are so widely spread that one must employ factors and merchants to go everywhere in search of them and bring them in The
