Franciscan Literature Of Religious Instruction Before The Council Of Trent:

Franciscan Literature of Religious Instruction before the Council of Trent Bert Roest, 2004-10-01 This book provides for the first time an exhaustive discussion of the Franciscan production of texts of religious instruction during the later medieval period c 1210 c 1550 In eight chapters it introduces the reader to the most important Franciscan sermon cycles the Franciscan guidelines for living the life of evangelical perfection the many Franciscan novice training manuals the Franciscan catechisms and confession manuals the Franciscan output of liturgical handbooks the large number of Franciscan texts containing more wide ranging forms of religious edification and Franciscan prayer guides This book provides medievalists and Renaissance scholars alike with a new tool to assess the intellectual and religious transformations between the thirteenth and the sixteenth century and contributes to the current re interpretation of the late medieval pastoral revolution

The Formation of Clerical And Confessional Identities in Early Modern Europe Wim Janse, Barbara Pitkin, 2006 This rich volume by an interdisciplinary group of American and European scholars offers an innovative portrait of the complex formation of clerical and confessional identities within the context of the radically changed religious and political situations in sixteenth and seventeenth century Europe

Medieval Franciscan Approaches to the Virgin Mary, 2019-08-12 This volume offers a sample of the many ways that medieval Franciscans wrote represented in art and preached about the model of models of the medieval religious experience the Virgin Mary This is an extremely valuable collection of essays that highlight the significant role the Franciscans played in developing Mariology in the Middle Ages Beginning with Francis Clare and Anthony a number of significant theologians spiritual writers preachers and artists are presented in their attempt to capture the significance and meaning of the Virgin Mary in the context of the late Middle Ages within the Franciscan movement Contributors are Luciano Bertazzo Michael W Blastic Rachel Fulton Brown Leah Marie Buturain Marzia Ceschia Holly Flora Alessia Francone J Isaac Goff Darrelyn Gunzburg Mary Beth Ingham Christiaan Kappes Steven J McMichael Pacelli Millane Kimberly Rivers Filippo Sedda and Christopher J Shorrock Franciscan Spirituality and Mission in New Spain, 1524-1599 Steven E. Turley, 2016-04-15 Franciscans in sixteenth century New Spain were deeply ambivalent about their mission work Fray Juan de Zum rraga the first archbishop of Mexico begged the king to find someone else to do his job so that he could go home Fray Juan de Ribas one of the original twelve apostles of Mexico and a founding pillar of the church in New Spain later fled with eleven other friars into the wilderness to escape the demands of building that church Fray Jer nimo de Mendieta having returned from an important preaching tour in New Spain wrote to his superior that he did not want to enlist again and that the only way he would return to the mission field was if God dragged him by the hair This discontent was widespread grew stronger with time and carried important consequences for the friars interactions with indigenous peoples their Catholic co laborers and colonial society at large This book examines that discontent and seeks to explain why the exhilaration of joining such a glorious enterprise so often gave way to grinding discontent The core argument is that despite St Francis's own longing to do mission work his followers in New Spain found that effective evangelization in a frontier context was fundamentally incompatible with their core spirituality Bringing together two streams of historiography that have rarely overlapped spirituality and missions this book marks a strong contribution to the history of spirituality in both Latin America and Europe as well as to the growing fields of transatlantic and world history

A Companion to Observant Reform in the Late Middle Ages and Beyond James Mixson, Bert Roest, 2015-06-02 The Observant Movement was a widespread effort to reform religious life across Europe It took root around 1400 and for a century and more thereafter it inspired or shaped much that became central to European religion and culture The Observants produced many of the leading religious figures of the later Middle Ages Catherine of Siena Bernardino of Siena and Savonarola in Italy Francisco Jimenez de Cisneros in Spain and in Germany Martin Luther himself This volume provides scholars with a current synthetic introduction to the Observant Movement Its essays also seek collectively to expand the horizons of our study of Observant reform and to open new avenues for future scholarship Contributors are Michael D Bailey Pietro Delcorno Tamar Herzig Anne Huijbers James D Mixson Alison More Carolyn Muessig Maria Giuseppina Muzzarelli Bert Roest Timothy Schmitz and Gabriella Zarri

The Franciscans in the Middle Ages Michael J. P. Robson, 2006 St Francis of Assisi is one of the most admired figures of the Middle Ages and one of the most important in the Christian church modelling his life on the literal observance of the Gospel and recovering an emphasis on the poverty experienced by Jesus Christ From 1217 Francis sent communities of friars throughout Christendom and launched missions to several countries including India and China The movement soon became established in most cities and several large towns and enjoying close relations with the popes its followers were ideal instruments for the propagation of the reforms of the Fourth Lateran Council of 1215 They quickly became part of the landscape of medieval life and made their influence felt throughout society BR This book explores the first 250 years of the order's history and charts its rapid growth development pastoral ministry educational organisation missionary endeavour internal tensions and divisions Intended for both the general and more specialist reader it offers a complete survey of the Franciscan Order Dr MICHAEL ROBSON is a Fellow and Director of Studies in Theology at St Edmund's College Cambridge

A Companion to Pastoral Care in the Late Middle Ages (1200-1500) Ronald Stansbury, 2010-05-31 The study of pastoral care in the middle ages has seen a resurgence in recent years Scholars are now approaching this subject less from their respective ecclesiastical or parochial biases and more out of an effort to understand the significant role pastors secular and religious had in the shaping of medieval society at large This book explores some of the new ways scholars are approaching this topic Using a variety of sources and disciplinary angles theology preaching catechesis confessional literature visitation records monastic cartularies and the like these studies show the many and varied ways in which pastoral care came to play such an important role in the day to day lives of medieval people Contributors include C Colt Anderson Michelle Armstrong Partida Beth Allison Barr Sabrina Corbellini Alexandra da Costa Laura Michele

Diener William Dohar James Ginther Joe Goering Ann M Hutchison Greg Peters C Matthew Phillips Andrew Reeves Ronald J Stansbury Susan M B Steuer Mathilde van Dijk and Anne T Thayer Roger Bacon and the Defence of Christendom

Amanda Power, 2013 The English Franciscan Roger Bacon c 1214-92 holds a controversial but important position in the development of modern science He has been portrayed as an isolated figure at odds with his influential order and ultimately condemned by it This major study the first in English for nearly sixty years offers a provocative new interpretation of both Bacon and his environment Amanda Power argues that his famous writings for the papal curia were the product of his critical engagement with the objectives of the Franciscan order and the reform agenda of the thirteenth century church Fearing that the apocalypse was at hand and Christians unprepared Bacon explored radical methods for defending renewing and promulgating the faith within Christendom and beyond Read in this light his work indicates the breadth of imagination possible in a time of expanding geographical and intellectual horizons The Encroaching Desert: Egyptian Hagiography and the Medieval West Jitse Dijkstra, Han van Dijk, 2006-11-30

This volume presents a series of case studies concerning the use and reuse of Egyptian hagiography in Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages The first three contributions analyze the use of Egyptian hagiography in the context of late antique Egypt and in particular examine to what extent these texts can be used as historical sources for the reconstruction of traditional pagan religion The other contributions illustrate the different contexts in which Egyptian hagiography was reused in the medieval West The book is an important contribution to the current debate about the usefulness of Egyptian hagiography as a historical source for late antique Egypt and to the study of the reception of the desert fathers in the medieval West Contributors include Lynda L Coon Mathilde van Dijk Jitse H F Dijkstra David Frankfurter Conrad Leyser Peter van Minnen Claudia Rapp Bert Roest Eric L Saak Gabriela Signori and Jacques van der Vliet Pastoral Care and Community in Late Medieval Germany Deeana Copeland

Klepper, 2022-12-15 Pastoral Care and Community in Late Medieval Germany explores how local religious culture was constructed in medieval European Christian society through close study of a set of neglected late fourteenth century manuscripts The Mirror of Priests is a pastoral work written by Albert an Augustinian canon from the Bavarian market town of Diessen to guide local priests in their work with parishioners Multiple versions of the text in Albert's own hand survive and by comparing them Deeana Copeland Klepper shows how ostensibly universal religious ideals and laws were adapted interpreted and repurposed by those given responsibility to implement them thereby crafting distinctive local expressions of Christianity The vision of Christian community that emerges from Albert's pastoral guide is one in which the messiness of ordinary life is evident Albert's imagined parish was marked out by geographic and legal boundaries property and jurisdictional rights tithes and sacramental responsibility as well as symbolic realities By situating the Mirror of Priests within Albert's physical and conceptual spaces Klepper affirms the centrality of the parish and its community for those living under the rubric of Christianity especially outside of large cities Pivoting between the materiality of texts and the sociocultural contexts of an overlooked manuscript tradition Pastoral Care and Community in Late Medieval Germany offers fresh insights into the role of parish priests the pastoral manual genre and late medieval religious life Franciscans at Prayer Timothy J. Johnson, 2007 Surveying the broad panorama of medieval Franciscans at prayer this book offers a nuanced perspective on Franciscan beliefs and spiritual practices that underscores the depth and breath of their mutual passion for the divine and the world they shared Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children La Verne Tolbert, 2014-05-19 Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children A Holistic Approach answers questions about the most effective ways to help children pre teens and teens develop spiritually This collection of research gleaned from presentations during the Fourth Triennial Children's Spirituality Conference at Concordia University in 2012 is divided into four major sections 1 theological and historical foundations 2 engaging parents and congregations 3 engaging methodologies and 4 exploring children at risk child pornography social justice intercultural diversity and abstinence education Researchers acknowledge that the home is the foundation for Christian nurture In Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children both scholars and ministry leaders come together with parents to promote a holistic environment where children are encouraged to love respect and obey God From birth to high school children's voices resonate throughout these studies as they are invited to share their reflections and experiences Exploring and Engaging Spirituality for Today's Children is a lively easy to read collection that reflects a broad range of faith traditions and is ideal for all those who are committed to the spiritual development of children "Gendered Perceptions of Florentine Last Supper Frescoes, c. 1350-1490" Diana Hiller, 2017-07-05 Despite the large number of monumental Last Supper frescoes which adorn refectories in Quattrocento Florence until now no monograph has appeared in English on the Florentine Last Supper frescoes nor has any study examined the perceptions of the original viewers This study examines the rarely considered effect of gender on the profoundly contextualized perceptions of the male and female religious who viewed the Florentine Last Supper images in surprisingly different physical and cultural refectory environments In addition to offering detailed visual analyses the author draws on a broad spectrum of published and unpublished primary materials including monastic rules devotional tracts and reading materials the constitutions and ordinazioni for individual houses inventories from male and female communities and the Convent Suppression documents of the Archivio di Stato in Florence By examining the original viewers attitudes to images their educational status acculturated pieties affective responses levels of community degrees of reclusion and even the types of food eaten in the refectories Hiller argues that the perceptions of these viewers of the Last Supper frescoes were intrinsically gendered Image, Knife, and Gluepot: Early Assemblage in Manuscript and Print Kathryn M. Rudy, 2019-07-14 In this ingenious study Kathryn Rudy takes the reader on a journey to trace the birth life and afterlife of a Netherlandish book of hours made in 1500 Image Knife and Gluepot painstakingly reconstructs the process by which this manuscript was created and discusses its significance as a text at the forefront of fifteenth century book production when the invention of mechanically produced images led to the creation of new multimedia objects Rudy then travels to the nineteenth century to examine the phenomenon of manuscript books being pillaged for their prints and drawings she has diligently tracked down the dismembered parts of this book of hours for the first time Image Knife and Gluepot also documents Rudy s twenty first century research process as she hunts through archives while grappling with the logistics and occasionally the limits of academic research This is a timely volume focusing on questions of materiality at the forefront of medieval and literary studies Beautifully illustrated throughout its use of original material and its striking interdisciplinary approach combining book and art history make it a significant academic achievement Image Knife and Gluepot is a valuable text for any scholar in the fields of medieval studies the history of early books and publishing cultural history or material culture Written in Rudy s inimitable style it will also be rewarding for any student enrolled in a course on manuscript production as well as non specialists interested in the afterlives of manuscripts and prints The Royal Society of Edinburgh has generously contributed to this Open Access publication Due to the number and quality of the images in this book we have provided the option of a more expensive hardback edition printed on the best quality paper available in order to present the images as clearly and beautifully as possible We hope this range of options the freely available PDF HTML and XML editions the economically priced EPUB MOBI and paperback editions and the more expensively printed hardback will satisfy everyone Furthermore the HTML edition allows readers to magnify the images of the manuscripts displayed in the book

Religious Education in Thirteenth-Century England Andrew Reeves,2015-06-02 In Religious Education in Thirteenth Century England Andrew Reeves examines how laypeople in a largely illiterate and oral culture learned the basic doctrines of the Christian religion Although lay religious life is often assumed to have been a tissue of ignorance and superstition this study shows basic religious training to have been broadly available to laity and clergy alike Reeves examines the nature availability and circulation of sermon manuscripts as well as guidebooks to Christian teachings written for both clergy and literate laypeople He shows that under the direction of a vigorous and reforming episcopate and aided by the preaching of the friars clergy had a readily available toolkit to instruct their lay flocks

Vernacular Theology Eliana Corbari,2013-01-30 This book examines the audiences and languages of Dominican sermons in late medieval Italy It is a thorough analysis of how Latinate theological culture interacted with popular religious devotion In particular it assesses the role of vernacular theology Eliana Corbari defines vernacular theology as a form of theology that is based neither on a Latin scholastic model nor a monastic one It is a third dimension of theology which was accessible to the laity and in particular women through their attendance at sermons and the reading of vernacular devotional works in this case medieval Italian treatises and sermons Through painstaking manuscript work Corbari makes an excellent contribution to sermon studies gender studies medieval theology and codicology She demonstrates that Dominican friars preached to an active contingent of laywomen usually members of confraternities who not only attended these sermons but re read them and also disseminated them through book production to the wider Florentine community The Lay Saint Mary Harvey Doyno,2019-10-15 In The Lay Saint Mary Harvey Doyno investigates the phenomenon of saintly cults that formed around pious merchants artisans midwives domestic servants and others in the medieval communes of northern and central Italy Drawing on a wide array of sources vitae documenting their saintly lives and legends miracle books religious art and communal records Doyno uses the rise of and tensions surrounding these civic cults to explore medieval notions of lay religiosity charismatic power civic identity and the church's authority in this period Although claims about laymen's and laywomen's miraculous abilities challenged the church's expanding political and spiritual dominion both papal and civic authorities Doyno finds vigorously promoted their cults She shows that this support was neither a simple reflection of the extraordinary lay religious zeal that marked late medieval urban life nor of the Church's recognition of that enthusiasm Rather the history of lay saints cults powerfully illustrates the extent to which lay Christians embraced the vita apostolica the ideal way of life as modeled by the Apostles and of the church's efforts to restrain and manage such claims The Routledge History of Medieval Christianity R. N. Swanson,2015-04-10 The Routledge History of Medieval Christianity explores the role of Christianity in European society from the middle of the eleventh century until the dawning of the Reformation Arranged in four thematic sections and comprising 23 originally commissioned chapters plus introductory overviews to each part by the editor this book provides an authoritative survey of a vital element of medieval history Comprehensive and cohesive the volume provides a holistic view of Christianity in medieval Europe examining not only the church itself but also its role in influence on and tensions with contemporary society Chapters therefore range from examinations of structures theology and devotional practices within the church to topics such as gender violence and holy warfare the economy morality culture and many more besides demonstrating the pervasiveness and importance of the church and Christianity in the medieval world Despite the transition into an increasingly post Christian age the historic role of Christianity in the development of Europe remains essential to the understanding of European history particularly in the medieval period This collection will be essential reading for students and scholars of medieval studies across a broad range of disciplines Manuscript Culture and Medieval Devotional Traditions Jennifer N. Brown,Nicole R. Rice,2021 Essays exploring the great religious and devotional works of the Middle Ages in their manuscript and other contexts The Cult of St Clare of Assisi in Early Modern Italy NiritBen-Aryeh Debby,2017-07-05 Notwithstanding the wealth of material published about St Clare of Assisi 1193-1253 in the context of medieval scholarship and the wealth of visual material regarding her there is a dearth of published scholarship concerning her cult in the early modern period This work examines the representations of St Clare in the Italian visual tradition from the thirteenth century on but especially between the fifteenth and the mid-seventeenth centuries in the context of mendicant activity Through an examination of such diverse visual images as prints drawings panels sculptures minor arts and frescoes in relation to sermons of Franciscan preachers starting in the thirteenth century but focusing primarily on the later tradition of early modernity the book highlights the cult of women saints and its role in the reform movements of the Osservanza and the Catholic Reformation and in the face of Muslim Christian encounter of the early modern era Debby s analyses of the preaching of the times and iconographic examination of neglected artistic sources makes the book a significant contribution to research in art history sermon studies gender studies and theology
