Francophone Afropean Literatures Nicki Hitchcott, Dominic Thomas, 2014-04-10 This volume explores the concept and possibility of a black European community by analysing the ways in which contemporary Francophone African writers articulate and interrogate their complex relationships with European society culture and history

Francophone Women Writers Eric Touya de Marenne, 2024-03-26 This anthology seeks to introduce women writers in the global Francophone world by investigating the place of feminist postcolonial and cross cultural theories in interpreting women francophone literature The book also allows the reader to examine the extent to which women writers reflect or negate the conventional archetypes of Francophone literature how they reinvent the political cultural and critical discourse of their time and place and create their own identity from objectification to subjectivity The ambition of this anthology is to explore these themes at a time when globalization is redefining the concepts of language identity space and history and transforming the rapport of each individual to the other While most research on the subject focus on specific countries or regions this volume offers a new critical introduction to Francophone women authors from a broad geographical range in North and West Africa the Near East the Pacific North America the Caribbean Islands and Europe Significantly this study assembles a broad and representative collection of texts written by women authors that will generate a fruitful and critical reflection among students and scholars The selected texts present critical issues that students and readers at large need to explore to further their knowledge of francophone literature and culture Culture and Identity in Belgian Francophone Writing Susan Bainbrigge, 2009 Few full length studies exist in English on French speaking authors from Belgium What if any are the particular features of francophone Belgian writing This book explores questions of cultural and literary identity and offers an overview of currents in critical debate regarding the place of francophone Belgian writing and its relationship to its larger neighbour but also engages with broader questions concerning the classification of francophone literature The study brings together well known and less well known modern and contemporary writers Suzanne Lilar Neel Doff Dominique Rolin Jacqueline Harpman Fran oise Mallet Joris Jean Muno Nicole Malinconi and Am lie Nothomb whose works share a number of recurring themes and features notably a preoccupation with questions of identity and alterity Overall the study highlights the diverse ways in which these questions of cultural identity and alterity emerge as a dominant theme throughout the corpus viewed through a series of literary and cultural frameworks which bring together perspectives both local and global The Tongue-Tied Imagination Tobias Warner, 2019-03-05 Winner 2021 African Literature Association First Book Award Should a writer work in a former colonial language or in a vernacular The language question was one of the great intractable problems that haunted postcolonial literatures in the twentieth century but it has since acquired a reputation as a dead end for narrow nationalism This book returns to the language question from a fresh perspective Instead of asking whether language matters The Tongue Tied Imagination explores how the language question itself came to matter Focusing on the case of Senegal Warner investigates the intersection of French and Wolof Drawing on extensive archival research and an under studied corpus of novels poetry and films in both languages as well as educational projects and popular periodicals the book traces the emergence of a politics of language from colonization through independence to the era of neoliberal development Warner reads the francophone works of well known authors such as L opold Senghor Ousmane Semb ne Mariama B and Boubacar Boris Diop alongside the more overlooked Wolof language works with which they are in dialogue Refusing to see the turn to vernacular languages only as a form of nativism The Tongue Tied Imagination argues that the language question opens up a fundamental struggle over the nature and limits of literature itself Warner reveals how language debates tend to pull in two directions first they weave vernacular traditions into the normative patterns of world literature but second they create space to imagine how literary culture might be configured otherwise Drawing on these insights Warner brilliantly rethinks the terms of world literature and charts a renewed practice of literary comparison Autobiography and Independence Debra Kelly, 2005-01-01 In Autobiography and Independence Debra Kelly examines four accomplished Francophone North African writers Mouland Feroan Assia Djebar Albert Memmi and Abdelkeacute bir Khatibi to illuminate the complex relationship of a writer s work to cultural and national histories The legacies of colonialism and the difficulties of nationalism run throughout all four writers works yet in their striking individuality the four demonstrate the ways in which such heritages are refracted through a writer s personal history This book will be of interest to students of Francophone literature colonialism and African history and culture Crisis and Body Politics in Twenty-First Century Cultural Production Charlotte Spear, Madeleine Sinclair, 2025-01-31 The twenty first century has been deemed the Age of Crisis We are witnessing the catastrophic unfolding of environmental crisis financial crisis pandemic and conflict But are we to understand these crises as new phenomena Is their seemingly simultaneous existence purely coincidental Or rather do they instead form part of a singular historically produced unfolding crisis which only today has reached a generalised consciousness And perhaps most urgently how far can we separate the crises of human experience from those exacted upon the land The chapters collected in Crisis and Body Politics in Twenty First Century Cultural Production Territorial Bodies deploy the framework of Territorial Bodies to address urgent social ecological and political challenges Examining themes such as international bodily governance racialised bodies eco feminist movements spatial justice and bodily displacement this collection provides a deeper analysis of the interconnected forms of violence perpetrated against marginalised human and non human bodies taking this combined violence as the defining feature of contemporary crisis Intimate Enemies Kathryn Batchelor, Claire Bisdorff, 2013-04-30 The concept of translation has become central to postcolonial theory in recent decades This volume draws together reflections by translators authors and academics working across Africa the Caribbean and the Indian Ocean areas where the linguistic legacies of French colonial operations are long lasting and complex A Student Grammar of French Malcolm Offord, 2006-04-13 A Student Grammar of French is a concise introduction to French grammar designed specifically for English speaking undergraduates Keeping technical detail to a minimum it explains the fundamentals of the grammar in accessible and simple terms and helps students to put their learning into practice through a range of fun and engaging exercises All the essential topics are covered with chapters on verbs nouns adjectives pronouns determiners prepositions adverbs negation numerals sentences and clauses Every grammatical point is illustrated with a range of authentic examples drawn from magazines and newspapers covering many areas of contemporary life such as fashion health issues relationships and sport It is clearly organized into a user friendly numbered indexing system allowing the learner to quickly and easily locate any grammatical topic Functioning both as an indispensable reference guide and a comprehensive workbook this grammar will become the perfect accompaniment to any first or second year undergraduate course The Routledge Companion to Global Comparative Literature Zhang Longxi, Omid Azadibougar, 2025-04-29 The Routledge Companion to Global Comparative Literature is a collection of papers by influential scholars who are engaged in comparative literary studies and addresses a central and highly important question about the discipline if Eurocentrism has been integral to comparative literature and if the world we live in is undergoing radical changes then how can or should the discipline change to overcome this problem of the discipline as well as of literary history to accommodate non Western traditions Addressing this significant matter and taking different approaches in response to the state of the discipline the papers in this volume offer diverse ways of overcoming Eurocentrism the role of institutions and the changes they need to undergo possible ways of practicing a truly global comparative literature the history of the discipline outside Europe premodern histories of ideas and the non European origins of modernity translation orientalism and area studies publishing and literary circulation and modern technologies and their impact on literary dissemination and the discipline This collection assesses comparative literature at a timely historical moment and will broaden the field by addressing the students and scholars of comparative literary studies all over the world with significant hints for more inclusive histories of world literature
