This is a pre-computer age of typewritten manuscripts, small shops, and lunch hours; it is also an age of gay repression, accelerating consumerism, and race riots. Hazel Smith suggests that the location and dislocation of the cityscape creates hyperscapes in the poetry of Frank O'Hara. The hyperscape is a postmodern site characterized by difference, breaking down unified concepts of text, city, subject, and art, and remolding them into new textual, subjective, and political spaces. This book theorizes the process of disruption and refiguration, which constitutes the hyperscape and celebrates its radicality. The Collected Poems of Frank O'Hara Frank O'Hara, 1995-03-31 Available for the first time in paperback, The Collected Poems of Frank O'Hara reflects the poet's growth as an artist from the earliest dazzling experimental verses that he began writing in the late 1940s to the years before his accidental death at forty, when his poems became increasingly individual and reflective. Frank O'Hara's New York School and Mid-Century Mannerism Sam Ladkin, 2024 A comparative reading of modern visual art, dance, and poetry with a focus on the New York School, the post-war experimental art scene that included Frank O'Hara, John Cage, Merce Cunningham, Helen Frankenthaler, John Ashbery, and Barbara Guest, amongst others. Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2009 An A to Z reference to writers of the New York School, including John Ashbery, who is often considered America's greatest living poet. Examines significant movements in literary history and its development through the years. The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Urban Literary Studies Jeremy Tambling, 2022-10-29 This encyclopaedia will be an indispensable resource and recourse for all who are thinking about cities and the urban, and the relation of cities to literature and to ways of writing about cities. Covering a vast terrain, this work will include entries on theorists, individual writers, individual cities, countries, cities in relation to the arts, film, and music, urban space, pre-early and modern cities, concepts, and movements, and definitions, amongst others. Written by an international team of contributors, this will be the first resource of its kind to pull together such a comprehensive overview of the field. The Works of Allen Ginsberg, 1941-1994 Bill

The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg,2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O'Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg's annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg's detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets American

Writers Elizabeth H. Oakes, 2004 American Writers focuses on the rich diversity of American novelists Also a Poet Ada Calhoun, 2022-06-14 A staggering memoir from New York Times bestselling author Ada Calhoun tracing her fraught relationship with her father and their shared obsession with a great poet When Ada Calhoun stumbled upon old cassette tapes of interviews her father celebrated art critic Peter Schjeldahl had conducted for his never completed biography of poet Frank O'Hara she set out to finish the book her father had started forty years earlier As a lifelong O'Hara fan who grew up amid his bohemian cohort in the East Village Calhoun thought the project would be easy even fun but the deeper she dove the more she had to face not just O'Hara's past but also her father's and her own The result is a groundbreaking and kaleidoscopic memoir that weaves compelling literary history with a moving honest and tender story of a complicated father daughter bond Also a Poet explores what happens when we want to do better than our parents yet fear what that might cost us when we seek their approval yet mistrust it In reckoning with her unique heritage as well as providing new insights into the life of one of our most important poets Calhoun offers a brave and hopeful meditation on parents and children artistic ambition and the complexities of what we leave behind All Poets Welcome Daniel Kane, 2003-03-26 This landmark book together with its accompanying CD captures the heady excitement of the vibrant irreverent poetry scene of New York's Lower East Side in the 1960s Drawing from personal interviews with many of the participants from unpublished letters and from rare sound recordings Daniel Kane brings together for the first time the people political events and poetic roots that coalesced into a highly influential community From the poetry reading venues of the early sixties such as those at the Les Deux M'gots and Le Metro coffeehouses to The Poetry Project at St Mark's Church a vital forum for poets to this day Kane traces the history of this literary renaissance showing how it was born from a culture of publicly performed poetry The Lower East Side in the sixties proved foundational in American verse culture a defining era for the artistic and political avant garde The voices and works of John Ashbery Amiri Baraka Charles Bernstein Bill Berkson Ted Berrigan Kenneth Koch Bernadette Mayer Ron Padgett Denise Levertov Paul Blackburn Frank O'Hara and many others enliven these pages and the thirty five track CD includes recordings of several of the poets reading from their work in the sixties and seventies The Lower East Side's cafes coffeehouses and salons brought together poets of various aesthetic sensibilities including writers associated with the so called New York School Beats Black Mountain Deep Image San Francisco Renaissance Umbra and others Kane shows that the significance for literary history of this loosely defined community of poets and artists lies in part in its reclaiming an orally centered poetic tradition adapted specifically to open up the possibilities for an aesthetically daring playful poetics and a politics of joy and resistance Frank O'Hara Alan Feldman, 1979 The Songs We Know Best Karin

Roffman, 2017-06-13 The first biography of an American master The Songs We Know Best the first comprehensive biography of the early life of John Ashbery the winner of nearly every major American literary award reveals the unusual ways he drew on the details of his youth to populate the poems that made him one of the most original and unpredictable forces of the last century in arts and letters Drawing on unpublished correspondence juvenilia and childhood diaries as well as more than one hundred hours of conversation with the poet Karin Roffman offers an insightful portrayal of Ashbery during the twenty eight years that led up to his stunning debut Some Trees chosen by W H Auden for the 1955 Yale Younger Poets Prize Roffman shows how Ashbery's poetry arose from his early lessons both on the family farm and in 1950s New York City a bohemian existence that teemed with artistic fervor and radical innovations inspired by Dada and surrealism as well as lifelong friendships with painters and writers such as Frank O'Hara Jane Freilicher Nell Blaine Kenneth Koch James Schuyler and Willem de Kooning Ashbery has a reputation for being enigmatic and playfully elusive but Roffman's biography reveals his deft mining of his early life for the flint and tinder from which his provocative later poems grew producing a body of work that he calls the experience of experience an intertwining of life and art in extraordinarily intimate ways The First Book

Jesse Zuba, 2016 An illuminating look at the poetic debut in twentieth century American literary culture We have many poets of the First Book the poet and critic Louis Simpson remarked in 1957 describing a sense that the debut poetry collection not only launched the contemporary poetic career but also had come to define it Surveying American poetry over the past hundred years The First Book explores the emergence of the poetic debut as a unique literary production with its own tradition conventions and dynamic role in the literary market Through new readings of poets ranging from Wallace Stevens and Marianne Moore to John Ashbery and Louise Glück Jesse Zuba illuminates the importance of the first book in twentieth century American literary culture which involved complex struggles for legitimacy on the part of poets critics and publishers alike Zuba investigates poets diverse responses to the question of how to launch a career in an increasingly professionalized literary scene that threatened the authenticity of the poetic calling He shows how modernist debuts evoke markedly idiosyncratic paths while postwar first books evoke trajectories that balance professional imperatives with traditional literary ideals Debut titles ranging from Simpson's The Arrivistes to Ken Chen's Juvenilia stress the strikingly pervasive theme of beginning accommodating a new demand for career development even as it distances the poets from that demand Combining literary analysis with cultural history The First Book will interest scholars and students of twentieth century literature as well as readers and writers of poetry The Last Avant-Garde David Lehman, 1999-11-09 A landmark work of cultural history that tells the story of how four young poets John Ashbery Frank O Hara James Schuyler and Kenneth Koch reinvented literature and turned New York into the art capital of the world Greenwich Village New York circa 1951 Every night at a rundown tavern with a magnificent bar called the Cedar Tavern an extraordinary group of painters writers poets and hangers on arrive to drink argue tell jokes fight start affairs and bang out a powerful new aesthetic Their style is playful irreverent tradition shattering and brilliant Out of these friendships and these conversations will come the works of art and poetry that will define New York City as the capital of world culture abstract expressionism and the New York School of Poetry A richly detailed portrait of one of the great movements in American arts and letters The Last Avant Garde covers the years 1948 1966 and focuses on four fast friends the poets Frank O Hara James Schuyler John Ashbery and Kenneth Koch Lehman brings to vivid life the extraordinary creative ferment of the time and place the relationship of great friendship to art and the powerful influence that a group of visual artists especially Jane Freilicher Larry Rivers and Fairfield Porter had on the literary efforts of the New York School The Last Avant Garde is both a definitive and lively view of a quintessentially American aesthetic and an exploration of the dynamics of creativity Reference Sources, 1981 S.
