Frank Hurley:

Shackleton's Photographer Shane Murphy, 2002 A richly illustrated biography of the life and times and personality of Frank Hurley and the Endurance expedition      Papers of Frank Hurley Frank Hurley, 1912 Papers including diaries kept on Antarctic expeditions New Guinea expeditions during World War I and II and during an Australian tour typescripts of publications scripts of radio talks and films personal papers newspaper cuttings covering his expeditions and career Pictorial material running to thousands of items is held in the Pictorial Section of the Library      The Diaries of Frank Hurley 1912-1941 Robert Dixon, Christopher Lee, 2011-04-15 This is the first illustrated edition of the diaries kept by Australian born photographer and film maker Frank Hurley about his work on the Mawson and Shackleton Antarctic Expeditions his two expeditions to Papua in the 1920s and his experiences during the First and Second World Wars While Hurley is best known today as a photographer and film maker there is another source so far little known to the public which also gives us a startling sense of the presence of the past his voluminous manuscript diaries which have survived years of world travel and are now carefully preserved in the archives of the National Library of Australia in Canberra and the Mitchell Library in Sydney This illustrated edition of his diaries presents Frank Hurley in his own words explores his testimony to these significant events and reviews the part he played in imagining them for an international public      Hurley's Australia, 1999 Hurley's Australia showcases his impressive visual celebration of Australia in the period immediately after the Second World War In his mission to capture Australia for Australians he travelled throughout the country photographing its vast landscape its modern cities its industrial strength and its agricultural riches The vision he created captures the essence of a younger more innocent nation      Coral Empire Ann Elias, 2019-04-04 From vividly colored underwater photographs of Australia's Great Barrier Reef to life size dioramas re-creating coral reefs and the bounty of life they sustained the work of early twentieth century explorers and photographers fed the public's fascination with reefs In the 1920s John Ernest Williamson in the Bahamas and Frank Hurley in Australia produced mass circulated and often highly staged photographs and films that cast corals as industrious colonizing creatures and the undersea as a virgin unexplored and fantastical territory In Coral Empire Ann Elias traces the visual and social history of Williamson and Hurley and how their modern media spectacles yoked the tropics and coral reefs to colonialism racism and the human domination of nature Using the labor and knowledge of indigenous peoples while exoticizing and racializing them as inferior Others Williamson and Hurley sustained colonial fantasies about people of color and the environment as endless resources to be plundered As Elias demonstrates their reckless treatment of the sea prefigured attitudes that caused the environmental crises that the oceans and reefs now face      Australia's Wild Places Roger McDonald, 2009 Drawing on the extensive collection of the National Library of Australia this book highlights the fingerprints humans have left on the landscape through the lenses of Australia's greatest photographers Roger McDonald has written an insightful introductory essay as well as extended captions describing his response     Showman Julian Thomas,1990     The Heroic Age of Antarctic Exploration on Film and Television, Volume 1 John Atkins,2025-09-17 This book examines in detail for the first time the screen legacy of the great Irish born Antarctic explorer Sir Ernest Shackleton 1874 1922 It encompasses the pioneering expedition films he made from 1909 to 1922 and the documentary and drama productions he has inspired since then The book provides a unique and original approach to understanding Shackleton including the first comprehensive account of the original Antarctic documentary film now lost that recorded the achievements of the 1908 09 Nimrod expedition Drawing on much original source material films diaries contemporary newspapers and journals that has not been unearthed by previous authors this volume presents a fresh perspective and includes a filmography with more than 100 entries spanning 1908 to 2024     Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken,2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation     The Concise Routledge Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film Ian Aitken,2013 This reference work explores the history of the documentary film It discusses individual films and filmmakers examines national and regional filmmaking traditions elaborates on production companies organizations festivals and institutions explores themes issues and representations and describes various styles techniques and technical issues     Official Register United States Civil Service Commission,1905     Frank Hurley Frank Hurley,Michael Treloar,2010     The Crying Years Peter Stanley,2017 The Great War of 1914 1918 affected all Australians and decisively changed the new nation They were The Crying Years according to writer Zora Cross who lost her brother in 1917 This visual history of Australia s Great War offers a different perspective on a period of time familiar to many It helps to connect the war overseas the well chronicled battles at Gallipoli Fromelles Passchendaele and Villers Bretonneux with the equally bitter war at home for and against conscription over loyalty and disloyalty Men faced life changing choices volunteer to fight or stay at home join the revolutionary unionists or break the strikes Women bore the burdens of waiting and worrying of working for charities or of voting to send men to their deaths Even children were drawn into the animosities as their communities fractured under the stress Prize winning historian Professor Peter Stanley of UNSW Canberra uses documents photographs artefacts and images from the collections of the National Library of Australia to evoke the drama and tragedy suffering and sacrifice pain and pity of Australia s Great War     American Illustrated Magazine ,1921     Australia's Wild Weather Mark Tredinnick,National Library of Australia,2011 Weather is the oldest story in the world one we want to keep on telling each other when we meet as though it were part of who we are a story that wants to keep on telling itself and affecting us whether we like it or not We breathe it in we see embodied in it our fears and desires it falls on our heads And we d better take care of it our lives are in its hands

Marrying photographs from the collection of the National Library of Australia with an evocative and contemplative essay by poet Mark Tredinnick Australia s Wild Weather is a lyric field guide to Australia s climate Tredinnick considers what it means to be living at time when weather is no longer small talk it is most of the news Beautifully written the author contemplates what weather means to us and how it affects our daily lives Coral Reefs of Australia Sarah M. Hamylton,Pat Hutchings,Ove Hoegh-Guldberg,2022-11-02 Australia s coral reefs stretch far and wide covering 50 000 square kilometres from the Indian Ocean in the West to the Pacific Ocean in the East They have been viewed as a bedrock of coastal livelihoods as uncharted and perilous nautical hazards as valuable natural resources and as unique natural wonders with secrets waiting to be unlocked Australia s coral reefs have sustained a global interest as places to visit and as objects of study science protection and conservation Coral Reefs of Australia examines our evolving relationship with coral reefs and explores their mystery and the fast pace at which they are now changing Corals are feeling the dramatic impacts of global climate change having undergone several devastating mass coral bleaching events dramatic species range shifts and gradual ocean acidification This comprehensive and engaging book brings together the diverse views of Indigenous Australians coral reef scientists managers and politicians to reveal how we interact with coral reefs focussing on Indigenous culture coastal livelihoods exploration discovery scientific research and climate change It will inform and inspire readers to learn more about these intriguing natural phenomena and how we can protect coral reefs for the future Cultural sensitivity Readers are warned that there may be words descriptions and terms used in this book that are culturally sensitive and which might not normally be used in certain public or community contexts While this information may not reflect current understanding it is provided by the author in a historical context This publication may also contain quotations terms and annotations that reflect the historical attitude of the original author or that of the period in which the item was written and may be considered inappropriate today Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are advised that this publication may contain the names and images of people who have passed away Exhibiting War Jennifer Wellington,2017-09-21 What does it mean to display war Examining a range of different exhibitions in Britain Canada and Australia Jennifer Wellington reveals complex imperial dynamics in the ways these countries developed diverging understandings of the First World War despite their cultural political and institutional similarities While in Britain a popular narrative developed of the conflict as a tragic rupture with the past Australia and Canada came to see it as engendering national birth through violence Narratives of the war s meaning were deliberately constructed by individuals and groups pursuing specific agendas to win the war and immortalise it at the same time Drawing on a range of documentary and visual material this book analyses how narratives of mass violence changed over time Emphasising the contingent development of national and imperial war museums it illuminates the way they acted as spaces in which official academic and popular representations of this violent past intersect      New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State).
