

The Franklin coverup: child abuse, Satanism, and murder in Nebraska

by John DeCamp

John DeCamp is a former Nebraska state senator who practices law in Lincoln, Nebraska. The following is the edited text of his speech to a Schiller Institute forum in St. Paul, Minnesota on Feb. 2. Mr. DeCamp's book, The Franklin Cover-Up: Child Abuse, Satanism, and Murder in Nebraska, was published in 1992 by AWT, Inc. of Lincoln, and is available from Ben Franklin Booksellers, Inc., 107 S. King St., Leesburg, Va. 22075. Call (703) 777-3663 or toll-free (800) 453-4108.

Somebody asked me at the hotel when I came in, "Are you one of those LaRouchies?" I said, "I don't know what a LaRouchie is; I'm a Republican." They said, "Then what are you doing here?" I said, "They invited me up. And I've come to any group—whether from the right, the left, the up, the down, the Republicans, the Democrats, the Socialists, the Communists—if they're interested in looking in to these matters, if they're interested in learning and doing something about it." That's why I'm here.

I've also found that "the LaRouchies," or whatever their official name is, are one of the few groups that have dared to print some of the things early on, that since have come out to be absolutely true.

For example, the Nebraska Supreme Court unanimously ruled in the past month that the entire grand jury report on the Franklin Community Federal Credit Union case should be expunged from any and all records. Not just sealed, but officially expunged; that it was fraudulent, dishonest, and in violation of every law. They ["the LaRouchies"] had torn apart that grand jury report and shown how it was fraudulent [see, for example, EIR, Aug. 3, 1990, "Nebraska Grand Jury Protects Child Abuse"], and had been condemned by the Omaha World Herald and everybody else for daring even to suggest that the grand jury was less than the most perfect grand jury ever convened. They were one of the first who dared to go out and say these things, and they've been vindicated.

How the story began

Why did I write a book? I'm not an author. I'll tell you how it all got started.

I have a very close friend, and his name is Bill Colby. He used to be the head of the Central Intelligence Agency, under Presidents Nixon and Ford. Colby and I have been together, one way or another, since I was a combat captain in Vietnam, assigned to special things for him over there. He was ambassador there at the time, but in fact, secretly, he was head of the CIA. I'm now convinced. He allowed me to do something unusual, and nobody's ever going to be able to do it again. I actually ran my original Senate campaign from Vietnam, without setting foot in the United States, and won the election from Vietnam. Now the Army's changed the rules; you can't do that anymore.

When I first heard about the Franklin case, I said it was all nonsense. But the deeper I got in, the more I learned. I reached a certain point where I sat down with Bill in Washington, and we talked, and I said, "Bill, I don't know what to do. I'm convinced there's a coverup going on. Something's got to be done. It's not a coverup of just some low-life clowns; it's people like the local FBI, certain judges and public officials, and some of the most powerful folk in our state and in this country. What do I do next?" And he said, "I'll tell you what you do next. You get completely out of this thing. You walk away, you leave it alone, you forget it. If you don't, you're going to get yourself killed." By that time, 15 other people, as I documented in my book, had been killed as a result of this, including the Senate investigator who got blown up in an airplane along with his kid, when he was coming back to testify and provide documentation.

Colby said, "You've just got to face the fact that sometimes evil does triumph, and there's nothing you can do about it, at least not the way you want to. You're dealing with something too big, too powerful. It goes too high, involves too much, and if you keep playing around with it, you're going to get yourself killed. Get away." I said, "I can't do that." He said, "The only thing I can tell you then, is to tell the story. Write it up. Get the national and international press interested in it. Maybe they will do something."

So I went home, wrote the book, published it myself, for all practical purposes, and 25,000 copies have gone all over the United States. Since the book was written, information has come out, events have occurred, things have developed that seem like a miracle. They validate and prove one thing after another in the book.
