Double Exposures Manuel Vason, 2015-01-01 A new collaborative venture between Manuel Vason and forty of the most visually arresting artists working with performance in the United Kingdom Double Exposures brings together newly commissioned images and essays to explore new ways of bridging performance and photography Ten years after Vason's first book Exposures this ambitious project draws into sharp focus the body the diptych documentation the photobook identity mediation collaborative practices and the relationship between photography and performance With essays by leading critics academics and practitioners this collection solidifies Vason's centrality to the photography of performance Copublished with the Live Art Development Agency LADA Published with the support of Arts Council England Male Trouble F. Walsh, 2015-12-04 A rich analysis of the discourses and figurations of crisis masculinity around the turn of the twenty first century working at the intersection of performance and cultural studies and looking at film television drama performance art visual art and street theatre Facing Our Darkness: Manifestations of Fear, Horror and Terror Laura Colmenero-Chilberg, Ferenc Mújdricza, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 Fear Horror Terror The very words cause us to tingle with both anticipation and unease Sitting in the movie theatre waiting for the murderer to jump out and kill the clueless teenager we are both repulsed and excited about the impending death We yell He's behind the tree knowing our reminders are pointless but unable to restrain ourselves when caught up in the panic of the moment Humans have a fascination with fear horror and terror Why Whatever the reason it both fascinates and often disgusts us All of these emotional phenomena fear horror terror are infected by our fear of death In the end all three phenomena test our courage Yet this courage is not only heroic each and every optimistic trusting self confident and faithful person permanently has it in spite of all the fears horrors and terrors with which the state of human existence threatens us since the dawn of self awareness This book is about some of these threats Performance, Masculinity, and Self-Injury Lucy Weir, 2024-08-20 This book is an ambitious and expansive examination of the visual language of self injury in performance art from the 1960s to the present Inspired by the gendered nature of discussion around self harm the book challenges established readings of risk taking and self injury in global performance practice The interdisciplinary methodology draws from art history and sociology to provide a new critical analysis of the relationship between masculinity and self inflicted injury Based upon interviews with a range of artists around the world it offers an innovative understanding of the diverse meanings behind self injury in performance and delves into the gendered coding of self harming bodies Individual chapters examine the work of Ron Athey Genter Brus Wafaa Bilal Franco B Andr Stitt Pyotr Pavlensky and Yang Zhichao offering a new perspective on the forms and functions of self injury in performance art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history performance studies gender studies and cultural studies Revisiting Sexualities in the 21st Century Constantinos N. Phellas, 2015-04-01 Sexual interactions are socially constructed within a historical social and cultural milieu and are continually defined and redefined accordingly depending on the surrounding economic political moral and religious social forces Although the human capacity for sexual expression spans a wide range of variations and permutations it is nonetheless seriously confined limited and restricted to only a few acceptable forms Western style sexual acceptability is in turn determined by the prevailing white heterosexual standards of patriarchy perpetuated through childhood masculine socialization and adolescent and adult machismo practices Revisiting Sexualities in the 21st Century examines a whole set of explanatory and definitional issues from the very outset particularly regarding what may be rightly included and excluded from its provenance and coverage The contributors to this book are brought together from three different methodological spheres qualitative quantitative and historical comparative Each author lays out the traditional parameters of the methodology used in their perspectives of social science research and openly discusses how they have been applied to the study of hetero sexuality non heterosexuality and the ways in which their theory and methodology may be improved Their contributions outline some of the major theoretical and methodological problems that still confront the study of modern sexualities while also presenting a selection of theoretical and methodological issues of interest to both new and experienced researchers This anthology identifies the need in contemporary social and cultural studies for more elaborate understandings of the relations of various masculinities and femininities to power nation empire violence race class and embodiment and in doing so brings together an eclectic multidisciplinary and wide ranging collection of essays The various contributions to this book will appeal to social scientists especially sociologists psychologists and sexologists biomedical scientists health professionals and other academic and professional audiences and students researchers and instructors of sexuality studies Undoubtedly with this collection sexuality studies comes of age as an academic field
