Franks Fear:

The Mighty Franks Michael Frank, 2017-05-16 WINNER OF THE 2018 JG WINGATE PRIZE A psychologically acute memoir about an unusual Hollywood family by Michael Frank who brings Proustian acuity and razor sharp prose to family dramas as primal and eccentrically insular as they come The Atlantic My feeling for Mike is something out of the ordinary Michael Frank overhears his aunt telling his mother when he is a boy of eight It's stronger than I am I cannot explain it I love him beyond life itself With this indelible bit of eavesdropping we fall into the spellbinding world of The Mighty Franks The family is uncommonly close Michael's childless Auntie Hankie and Uncle Irving glamorous Hollywood screenwriters are doubly related Hankie is his father's sister and Irving is his mother's brother The two families live near each other in Laurel Canyon In this strangely intertwined world even the author's grandmothers who dislike each other share a nearby apartment Strangest of all is the way Auntie Hankie with her extravagant personality comes to bend the wider family to her will Talented mercurial and lavish with her love she divides Michael from his parents and his two younger brothers as she takes charge of his education guiding him to the right books to read Proust not Zola the right painters to admire Matisse not Pollock the right architectural styles to embrace period not modern or modern as she pronounces the word with palpable disdain She trains his mind and his eye until that eye begins to see on its own When this son Hankie longs for grows up and begins to turn away from her her moods darken and a series of shattering scenes compel Michael to reconstruct both himself and his family narrative as he tries to reconcile the woman he once adored with the troubled figure he discovers her to be In its portrayal of this fascinating singularly polarizing figure the boy in her thrall and the man that boy becomes The Mighty Franks will speak to any reader who has ever struggled to find an independent voice amid the turbulence of family life

Marks,2013-09-03 Fears and Phobias reviews and synthesizes the different viewpoints of learning theory psychoanalysis ethology and clinical psychiatry with regards to fears and phobias The causes and treatment of phobias are examined with due regard for relevant biological and psychological issues Topics covered range from the etiology of fear to clinical syndromes such as agoraphobic syndrome animal phobias social phobias illness phobias and obsessive phobias Comprised of four chapters this book begins with an overview of the historical aspects of phobias and the components of phobias followed by a discussion on the etiology of fear Experimental studies on fear that focus on innateness maturation and learning are examined together with genetic aspects of timidity the kinds of situations that are feared and the physiology and learning of fear The next chapter deals with clinical syndromes and the classification of phobic disorders such as the agoraphobic syndrome specific animal phobias and social phobias along with illness phobias obsessive phobias autonomic equivalents to phobic disorders and children s fears and phobias The final chapter is devoted to prevention and treatment of phobias including desensitization and psychiatric management of phobic patients This monograph will be of interest to psychiatrists and psychologists Popular Muslim Reactions to the Franks in the Levant, 1097-1291 Alex Mallett,2016-03-23 The issue of Muslim reactions to the Franks has been an important part of studies of both the Crusades and Islamic History but rarely the main focus This book examines the reactions of the Muslims of the Levant to the arrival and presence of the Franks in the crusading period 1097 1291 focussing on those outside the politico military and religious elites It provides a thematic overview of the various ways in which these non elites of Muslim society both inside and outside of the Latin states reacted to the Franks arguing that it was they as much as the more famous Muslim rulers who were initiators of resistance to the Franks This study challenges existing views of the Muslim reaction to the crusaders as rather slow and demonstrates that jihad against the Franks started as soon as they arrived It further demonstrates the difference between the concepts of jihad and of Counter Crusade and highlights two distinct phases in the jihad against the Franks the unofficial jihad that which occurred before uniting of religious and political classes and the official jihad which happened after and due to this unification and which has formed the basis of modern discussions Finally the study also argues that the Muslim non elites who encountered the Franks did not always resist them but at various times either helped or were unresisting to them thus focussing attention away from conflict and onto cooperation In considering Muslim reactions to the Franks in the context of wider discourses this study also highlights aspects of the nature of Islamic society in Egypt and Syria in the medieval period particularly the non elite section of society which is often ignored The main conclusions also shed light on discourses of collaboration and resistance which are currently focussed almost exclusively on the modern period or the medieval west

Frank Miller's Daredevil and the Ends of Heroism Paul Young, 2016-07-27 2017 EISNER AWARD NOMINEE for Best Academic Scholarly Work In the late 1970s and early 1980s writer artist Frank Miller turned Daredevil from a tepid selling comic into an industry wide success story doubling its sales within three years Lawyer by day and costumed vigilante by night the character of Daredevil was the perfect vehicle for the explorations of heroic ideals and violence that would come to define Miller's work. Frank Miller's Daredevil and the Ends of Heroism is both a rigorous study of Miller's artistic influences and innovations and a reflection on how his visionary work on Daredevil impacted generations of comics publishers, creators, and fans. Paul Young explores the accomplishments of Miller, the writer who fused hardboiled crime stories with superhero comics while reimagining Kingpin as a classic Spider-Man nemesis, recuperating the half-baked villain Bullseye, and inventing a completely new kind of Daredevil villain in Elektra. Yet he also offers a vivid appreciation of the indelible panels drawn by Miller, the artist taking a fresh look at his distinctive page layouts and lines. A childhood fan of Miller's Daredevil, Young takes readers on a personal journey as he seeks to reconcile his love for the comic with his distaste for the fascistic overtones of Miller's controversial later work. What he finds will resonate not only with Daredevil fans but with anyone who has contemplated what it means to be a hero in a heartless world. Other titles in the Comics Culture series include Twelve Cent Archie, Wonder Woman, Bondage and Feminism in the Marston, Peter Comics 1941-1948, and Considering Watchmen. Poetics, Property, Politics

Frank Lloyd Wright's Fallingwater Catherine W. Zipf, 2020-12-30 New Deal Book Award 2022 Honourable Mention Frank Lloyd Wright's Fallingwater explores the relationship between the economic tumult in the United States in the 1930s, Frank Lloyd Wright, and the construction of his most famous house, Fallingwater. The book reinterprets the history of this iconic building, recognizing it as a Depression-era monument that stands as a testimony to what an American architect could achieve with the right site, client, and circumstance, even in desperate economic circumstances. Using newly available resources, author Catherine W. Zipf examines Wright's work before and after Fallingwater to show how it was influenced by the economic climate, public architectural projects of the Great Depression, and America's changing relationship with Modernist style and technology. Including over 50 black and white images, this book will be of great interest to students, historians, and researchers of art, architecture, and Frank Lloyd Wright.

Finding Frank Martine Lacombe, 2012 A chance encounter, an unusual request, two lives inexorably transformed. When self-absorbed Brooke Blake uncharacteristically sheds her narcissistic armor, she discovers that the hand we lend may pave the way to our own redemption. Finding Frank is a perplexing hall of mirrors where every image reflects agonizing, though liberating, secrets. Frank was a Silver Orphan, one of 11 million seniors in the U.S. who live alone. Most still have family members, but about 15 percent of seniors who need care have no family support. By 2030, the number of people over age 65 will soar to 71.5 million, one in every five Americans. Yet over half of America's communities have not initiated preparation to deal with the aging population. Unless this situation is addressed, we will soon be engulfed in a tidal wave of Silver Orphans.

History of Central Asia, The: 4-volume set Christoph Baumer, 2018-04-18 This set includes all four volumes of the critically acclaimed History of Central Asia series. The epic plains and arid deserts of Central Asia have witnessed some of the greatest migrations as well as many of the most transformative developments in the history of civilization. Christoph Baumer's ambitious four-volume treatment of the region charts the 3000 year drama of Scythians and Sarmatians Soviets and transcontinental Silk Roads trade routes and the transmission of ideas across the steppes and the breathless and brutal conquests of Alexander the Great and Chinghiz Khan Masterfully interweaving the stories of individuals and peoples the author's engaging prose is richly augmented throughout by colour photographs taken on his own travels This set includes The Age of the Steppe Warriors Volume 1 The Age of the Silk Roads Volume 2 The Age of Islam and the Mongols Volume 3 and The Age of Decline and Revival Volume 4 The Collected Poems of Frank O'Hara Frank O'Hara,1995-03-31 Available for the first time in paperback The Collected Poems of Frank O'Hara reflects the poet's growth as an artist from the earliest dazzling experimental verses that he began writing in the late 1940s to the years before his accidental death at forty when his poems became increasingly individual and reflective Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly Frank Leslie,1902 Tales and Trails of Wakarusa Alexander Miller Harvey,1917 The Chronicle of Ibn al-Athir for the Crusading Period from al-Kamil fi'l-Ta'rikh.
