Philosophy (With Feature Essays by Agnes Heller and György Márkus) Murray Noonan, Matthew Sharpe, 2009-03-26 In the age of the war on terror and what one critic has called disaster capitalism the topic of trauma has assumed renewed cultural relevance Trauma Historicity Philosophy is a collection of essays by Australian philosophers psychoanalysts and cultural theorists on the genealogy semantics and relevance of the concept of trauma in the contemporary world The collection features two essays by Agnes Heller and Gyorgy Markus addressing trauma and what psychoanalysis elevation of trauma to cultural centrality means and has meant for modern philosophy and social theory Other essays address 911 cyber terrorism the shoah political tyranny the end of history and engage with the thought of Kierkegaard Schmitt Hobbes Derrida Agamben Badiou Zizek Lacan and Freud Year Book ,2003 Kafka and Photography Carolin Duttlinger, 2007-12-06 Throughout his life Franz Kafka was fascinated by photography a medium which for him came to encapsulate both the attractions and the pitfalls of modern life Kafka s personal engagement with the medium as a keen viewer and collector of photographs as well as an amateur photographer is reflected in his writings which explore photography from a variety of different perspectives By far the most frequently and extensively discussed visual medium in Kafka s texts photography is paradigmatic of his relationship to visibility more generally This study not only explores photography s recurrence as a theme within his texts but it is also the first to take systematic account of Kafka s use of photographs as literary source material Kafka and Photography presents one of the most important modern writers from an entirely new perspective it sheds new light on familiar works and uncovers unexplored aspects of Kafka s engagement with his time and context Providing a chronological account of key prose works as well as the personal writings this study is accessible to students and lay readers It will be of interest not only to literary scholars but also to those working in photography media and cultural studies Its detailed textual analyses are set against a richly documented historical context which illustrates Kafka s interest in contemporary culture through a range of visual material taken from public as well as private sources some of which has only recently become available As this book demonstrates photography had a profound impact on Kafka s literary imagination and as such helps to explain the mesmerizing intensity of enigmatic visual detail which is a hallmark of his narratives The Writer's Craft, the Culture's Technology Carmen Rosa Caldas-Coulthard, Michael J. Toolan, 2005 The Writer s Craft the Culture s Technology explores the multiple ways in which a culture s technological resources shape its literary productions Literature and style cannot be divorced from the particular technologised culture that sponsors them This has always been true as papers here on literature from earlier periods show But many of the papers focus on contemporary culture where literature vies for attention with film the internet and other multimodal cultural forms These essays from an international array of experts are stylistics based but not stylistics bound They should be of interest to all who are interested in discourse analytic commentaries on how technological horizons as always continue to shape the forms and functions of literature and other cultural productions BOOK JACKET Kafka's Zoopoetics Naama Harel, 2020-05-04 Nonhuman figures are ubiquitous in the work of Franz Kafka from his early stories down to his very last one. Despite their prominence throughout his oeuvre, Kafka's animal representations have been considered first and foremost as mere allegories of intrahuman matters. In recent years, the allegorization of Kafka's animals has been poetically dismissed by Kafka's commentators and politically rejected by posthumanist scholars. Such critique, however, has yet to inspire either an overarching or an interdiscursive account. This book aims to fill this lacuna, positing animal stories as a distinct and significant corpus within Kafka's entire poetics and closely examining them in dialogue with both literary and posthumanist analysis. Kafka's Zoopoetics critically revisits animality, interspecies relations, and the very human-animal contradistinction in the writings of Franz Kafka. Kafka's animals typically stand at the threshold between humanity and animality, fusing together human and nonhuman features. Among his liminal creatures, we find a human transformed into vermin in The Metamorphosis, an ape turned into a human being in A Report to an Academy, talking jackals in Jackals and Arabs, a philosophical dog in Researches of a Dog, a contemplative mole-like creature in The Burrow, and indiscernible beings in Josefine the Singer, or the Mouse People. Depicting species boundaries as mutable and obscure, Kafka creates a fluid human-animal space which can be described as humanimal. The constitution of a humanimal space radically undermines the stark barrier between human and other animals dictated by the anthropocentric paradigm. Through denying animalistic elements in humans and disavowing the agency of nonhuman animals, excluding them from social life and neutralizing compassion for them, this barrier has been designed to regularize both humanity and animality. The contextualization of Kafka's animals within posthumanist theory engenders a post-anthropocentric arena which is simultaneously both imagined and very real.

The Upside of OCD Michael Alc e, 2024-11-19 Many OCD sufferers fail to improve using the standard exposure response prevention (ERP) treatment. But as clinical psychologist Michael Alc e contends, it's not the patients who are failing the treatment, but rather the treatment that is failing the patients. Using vivid case examples, practical exercises, personal anecdotes, and inspiring stories, The Upside of OCD shows sufferers and therapists the creative powers that allow OCD sufferers to see the world with such unique depth, feeling, and intensity.
