Don Waite

Fraser Valley Story:

The Fraser Valley Story Don Waite, 1988 Riveting stories from the Fraser Valley early days told in a can't put it down book by Don Waite The murder of a chief fur trader and the punitive vengeance wreaked by the company launches this can't put it down book of riveting stories Historian Don Waite also puts on his hiking boots and explores the lost mine of Pitt Lake with the man who claims to have discovered its legendary wealth He also recounts the exploits of Canada's first train robber Bill Miner and the Mountie who brought him in

The Kelowna Story Sharron J. Simpson, 2025-05-06 The new paperback edition of this excellent illustrated history includes additional information about recent developments up to 2025 The Kelowna Story is a comprehensive full length history of the largest metropolitan centre outside BC's Lower Mainland a labour of love by a leading local historian whose family roots have been entwined with Kelowna's for five generations It embraces the full sweep of central Okanagan history starting with the days of the Sookanhkchinx who enjoyed a largely peaceful existence along the shores of the lakes and rivers before the earliest explorers came to trade followed by Father Pandosy and his Okanagan Mission in 1859 It was the mission that attracted Kelowna's first homesteaders soon followed by cattle ranchers and orchardists and much later by the empire builders like the Bennett family who paved the way for today's budding metropolis Author Sharron J Simpson believes history is best told through the stories of ordinary people while allowing today's readers may not think it ordinary to walk over mountain ranges to collect mail or consider it ordinary to climb into a narrow irrigation pipe to scrape the rust off the inside as it runs up and down the hillsides or to row freight from one end of Okanagan Lake to the other In their time she writes those who did extraordinary things were simply doing what needed to be done to get ahead Their stories are fascinating and tell of the remarkable investment early settlers made in this community Simpson tells the story of her hometown with an attention to detail and a passion for narrative that bespeaks her own considerable talent and deep commitment

The Power of Place, the Problem of Time Keith Thor Carlson, 2010-12-31 The Indigenous communities of the Lower Fraser River British Columbia a group commonly called the Stl'at'imc have historical memories and senses of identity deriving from events cultural practices and kinship bonds that had been continuously adapting long before a non Native visited the area directly In The Power of Place the Problem of Time Keith Thor Carlson re thinks the history of Native newcomer relations from the unique perspective of a classically trained historian who has spent nearly two decades living working and talking with the Stl'at'imc peoples Stl'at'imc actions and reactions during colonialism were rooted in their pre colonial experiences and customs which coloured their responses to events such as smallpox outbreaks or the gold rush Profiling tensions of gender and class within the community Carlson emphasizes the elasticity of collective identity A rich and complex history The Power of Place the Problem of Time looks to both the internal and the external factors which shaped a society during a time of great change and its implications extend far beyond the study region Christian Witness in Cascadian Soil Ross A.

Lockhart, 2021-02-17 The Centre for Missional Leadership at St Andrew's Hall Vancouver has curated a dynamic collection of essays from missional thinkers in church and academy Together they explore both the pitfalls and possibilities of Christian witness in the post Christendom soil of the Pacific Northwest What does it mean to till plant and nurture Christian community while awaiting growth in the rocky soil of secularity in this West Coast land better known for its hipsters baristas and outdoor lifestyle Each chapter is an attempt to dust for divine fingerprints at work within the church and wider culture giving evidence of God's activity in our midst Within this book you will encounter women and men who are finding hopeful ways to proclaim and live the gospel that are bearing fruit and growing hope within Christian communities and the neighborhoods they call home The Works of Hubert Howe Bancroft: History of the northwest coast. 1886 Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1886

The Resettlement of British Columbia Cole Harris, 2011-11-01 In this beautifully crafted collection of essays Cole Harris reflects on the strategies of colonialism in British Columbia during the first 150 years after the arrival of European settlers The pervasive displacement of indigenous people by the newcomers the mechanisms by which it was accomplished and the resulting effects on the landscape social life and history of Canada s western most province are examined through the dual lenses of post colonial theory and empirical data By providing a compelling look at the colonial construction of the province the book revises existing perceptions of the history and geography of British Columbia In their entirety this eloquent collection of nine essays constitute a provocative and unique investigation into the meaning of colonialism and geographical change in the province

The Works of Hubert Howe Bancroft: History of the northwest coast. 1884-86 Hubert Howe Bancroft,1884 Stories of Culture and Place Michael G. Kenny,Kirsten Smillie,2017-11-06 Stories of Culture and Place makes use of one of anthropology s most enduring elements storytelling to introduce students to the excitement of the discipline The authors invite students to think of anthropology as a series of stories that emerge from cultural encounters in particular times and places References to classic and contemporary ethnographic examples from Coming of Age in Samoa to Coming of Age in Second Life allow students to grasp anthropology s sometimes problematic past while still capturing the potential of the discipline This new edition has been significantly reorganized and includes two new chapters one on health and one on economic change as well as fresh ethnographic examples The result is a more streamlined introductory text that offers thorough coverage but is still manageable to teach

Donna's Story John Knapp,2017-04-20 Donna is on a long journey through Alzheimer s disease It is like a mountain road with many twists and turns heading steadily downhill There are no places to make a U turn no rest stops As Donna s caregiver I too am on this road but I am fortunate I am equipped with a set of brakes that I can apply periodically to enable me to stop and rest I could even get off the road entirely should I wish but that would mean abandoning Donna for Donna has no set of brakes This book describes the past seven years we have spent together on that road sharing moments of tears and horror as well as some happy episodes At times we questioned Is this all just a mistake a nightmare from which we will soon awake No The journey continues and it is relentless Today Donna is in care and her anxieties have eased but her family friends and I still accompany her on that road I do not offer suggestions or guidelines as to how you might manage yourself on a similar journey as either victim or caregiver All I can offer is some comfort that you are not alone Alzheimer s affects everyone differently Your stories will all be unique This is Donna s story

Brushed by Cedar, Living by the River Crisca Bierwert,2019-11-01 A brilliant experimental ethnography Brushed by Cedar is destined to change the way anthropologists write about the people they befriend Crisca Bierwert has created a fresh poststructural ethnography that offers new insights into Coast Salish cultures Arguing against the existence of a master narrative she presents her understanding of these Native American peoples of Washington state and British Columbia Canada through poetic bricolage offering the reader a pastiche of rich cultural images Bierwert employs postmodern literary and social analyses to examine many aspects of Salish culture legends and their storytellers domestic violence longhouse ceremonies the importance and power of place and disputes over fishing rights Her reflections overlap as a dialogue would weaving throughout the book significant threads of Salish knowledge and creating a nonauthoritative text that nonetheless speaks knowingly This book represents the future of contemporary anthropology Unlike traditional ethnography it makes no attempt to portray a complete picture of the Coast Salish Instead Bierwert utilizes a critical and diffuse approach that defies colonial syncretic and hegemonic structures and applies advanced literary theory to the creation of ethnography Brushed by Cedar is an important guideline for anyone who writes about other cultures and will be especially useful to classes in the methodology and history of ethnography as well as to scholars specializing in Native American studies or oral literatures History of the Pacific States of North America: The northwest coast. 1884 Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1884 Stories of Silverado Ranch Anthea McLean, 2023-05-08 I have always wanted he said to find a wild piece of desert and turn it into an oasis Anthea and Roy McLean prospered as working professionals for years but that life didn't quite feel right One day when they were taking care of their animals on their acreage in South Surrey they realized they wanted to do that more than live their lives in the city After many hours debating the logistics of purchasing and running a farm they took the plunge they were going to create their own Eden Stories of Silverado Ranch follows the true stories of the McLeans setbacks and successes in turning a patch of wilderness into their homestead From building their own house using materials found on their land to growing their own food the road to fulfilling their dream was far from easy They even found their own families crushing their spirits displeased with the lifestyle they had chosen But no matter how daunting the path to their pocket of paradise seemed they found happiness in surmounting these difficulties becoming part of a small but loving community At Silverado Ranch Anthea McLean shows us that there is no goal too big to accomplish no obstacle too big to overcome no matter what phase of life you're in History of California Theodore Henry Hittell, 1897 Tall Stories Ronald Cameron, 2008 Andy Jackson's death in December 2004 robbed the Scottish outdoor scene of an extraordinary personality In this celebration of a truly inspirational life we follow Andy on kayaking adventures in Norway Nepal New Zealand the USA Canada Iceland Turkey Chile and of course his native Scotland Stories and articles from Andy himself his friends and family recount his adventures with all the joie de vivre he showed as a campaigner kayaker skier and paraglider From his scrapes with the Polis and authorities to his worldwide catalogue of first descents Above all Andy will be remembered for his ability to befriend and inspire everyone he met Oral History, Education, and Justice Kristina R. Llewellyn, Nicholas Ng-A-Fook, 2019-10-09 This book addresses oral history as a form of education for redress and reconciliation It provides scholarship that troubles both the possibilities and limitations of oral history in relation to the pedagogical and curricular redress of historical harms Contributing authors compel the reader to question what oral history calls them to do as citizens activists teachers or historians in moving towards just relations Highlighting the link between justice and public education through oral history chapters explore how oral histories question pedagogical and curricular harms and how they shed light on what is excluded or made invisible in public education The authors speak to oral history as a hopeful and important pedagogy for addressing difficult knowledge exploring significant questions such as how do community based oral history projects affect historical memory of the public What do we learn from oral history in government systems of justice versus in the political struggles of non governmental organizations What is the burden of collective remembering and how does oral history implicate people in the past How are oral histories about difficult knowledge represented in curriculum from digital storytelling and literature to environmental and treaty education This book presents oral history as as a form of education that can facilitate redress and reconciliation in the face of challenges and bring about an awareness of historical knowledge to support action that addresses legacies of harm Furthering the field on oral history and education this work will appeal to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of social justice education oral history Indigenous education curriculum studies history of education and social studies education
