The Book of Iowa Films Marty Knepper,John Lawrence,2014-08-04

This is the first comprehensive history of films made in or about Iowa. It reflects some twenty years of collecting, lecturing and talking with some of Iowa's current generation of independent filmmakers. It covers the span from 1918 to 2013 and gives important background information on dozens of high profile films such as the STATE FAIR films of 1933 and 1945, THE BRIDGES OF MADISON COUNTY, FIELD OF DREAMS and many others. It is designed as a companion for the State Historical Society's blockbuster Hollywood in the Heartland exhibition in Des Moines that is scheduled to run at least through 2016. The book has an interpretive essay covering the entire history as well as paragraph length descriptions of each film. A user friendly feature is the Index of Films which makes it easy to locate discussions of individual films. Marty Knepper is a featured commentator on video screens in the Hollywood in the Heartland exhibition.

Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venise T. Berry, 2007-01-26. On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man. After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world. At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson's victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets. Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown. Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible. This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in the Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash. In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier, James Earl Jones, Halle Berry, Eddie Murphy, Whoopi Goldberg, Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference. Through a chronology, a list of acronyms and abbreviations, an introductory essay, a bibliography, appendixes, black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors, actresses, movies, producers, organizations, awards, film credits and terminology, this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history.

The Encyclopedia of Film Composers Thomas S. Hischak, 2015-04-16. For more than a century original music has been composed for the cinema. From the early days when live music accompanied silent films to the present in which a composer can draw upon a full orchestra or a lone synthesizer to embody a composition, music has been an integral element of most films. By the late 1930s movie studios had established music departments and some of the greatest names in film music emerged during Hollywood's Golden Age including Alfred Newman, Max Steiner, Dimitri Tiomkin and Bernard Herrmann. Over the decades other creators of screen music offered additional memorable scores and some composers such as Henry Mancini, Randy Newman and John Williams have become household names. The Encyclopedia of Film Composers features entries on more than 250 movie composers from around the world. It not only provides facts about these artists but also explains what makes each composer notable and discusses his or her music in detail Each entry includes Biographical material Important dates Career highlights Analysis of the composer s musical style Complete list of movie credits This book brings recognition to the many men and women who have written music for movies over the past one hundred years In addition to composers from the United States and Great Britain artists from dozens of other countries are also represented A rich resource of movie music history The Encyclopedia of Film Composers will be of interest to fans of cinema in general as well as those who want to learn more about the many talented individuals who have created memorable scores Friends , American Pie Bill Osgerby, 2019-10-08 American Pie represents the most commercially successful example of the vulgar teen comedy and this book analyses the film s development audience appeal and cultural significance American Pie 1999 is a film that exemplifies that most disparaged of movie genres the vulgar teen comedy Largely aimed at young audiences the vulgar teen comedy is characterised by a brazenly over the top humour rooted in the salacious the scatological and the squirmingly tasteless In this book consideration is given to the relationship between American Pie s success and broad shifts within both the youth market and the film business Attention is also given to the film s representations of youth gender and sexuality together with the distinctive character of its comedy and the enduring place of such humour in contemporary popular culture While chiefly focusing on the original American Pie movie the book also considers the development of the franchise with discussion of the movie s three sequels and four direct to DVD releases The book also charts the history nature and appeal of vulgar teen comedy as a whole providing the first concerted analysis of this generally overlooked category of youth film Clear concise and comprehensive the book is ideal for students scholars and general readership worldwide Understanding Comedy through College Comedies Norman Kagan, 2018-08-15 Understanding Comedy through College Comedies explains the nature of comedy through the study of college comedy films including classics College The Freshman romantic screwball comedies Where the Boys Are Ball of Fire Sterile Cuckoo famous comedian comedies Horse Feathers The Nutty Professor The Klumps intergenerational college comedies That s My Boy Back to School Old School social comedies The Graduate Breaking Away Risky Business political comedies Getting Straight Strawberry Statement Last Supper ethnic comedies School Daze Soul Man How High and college farces Charlie s Aunt Animal House Revenge of the Nerds Slackers In this book Norman Kagan explains comic terminology concepts and theories including Freud s displaced sexual content in Decline of the American Empire s Langer s vitalism in Slacker Bergson s anesthesia of the heart in The Squid and the Whale and Frye s reversal of literary modes in Storytelling The reader will discover the reasons why they are laughing new reasons to laugh and new films that will provide new sources of laughter The A to Z of African American Cinema S.
