Mojtabai, 2024-11-26 Plato famously defined a human being as a featherless biped It's hard not to sense the ironic humor in this definition a reminder that for all our talk about human dignity our condition is contingent vulnerable and at some level even comic Perhaps that's why the writer A.G. Mojtabai known for her dry understated subtly humorous but ultimately honest and courageous depictions of the human condition chose the name for her latest novel set in the confines of Shady Rest Home for the Aged Mojtabai offers us a varied cast of characters at Shady Rest including Eli who fancies himself a ladies man Elora anxious about her wayward nephew the aloof but lonely scholar Wiktor and Maddie a bit eccentric true but more wise and compassionate than most At the center of it all is Daniel an old soul in a young man's body with a strange gift for caring for the elderly Featherless is one of those rare books that brings us news from the final frontier the end of life Its unflinching but humane gaze informed by the author's own experience serves as a fitting capstone for a literary career of uncommon distinction It Was a Lovely Evening Rosemary Pearson, 2016-04-15 Devastated by the deaths of her parents Sally Turner had to devise a way to earn enough to enable her to keep the family home With the help of her Aunt Jane an ambitious plan was decided on James Thomas visited the village of Shelbourne to attend the Christening of his friend Peters first child Many obstacles kept them apart mainly his work as a landscape gardener Would true love win out against so many odds Drown My Books Penny Freedman, 2016-10-28 Gina Gray disappointed by work love and life has settled on a bleak stretch of Kent coast where she walks her surly dog coaches unpromising A level students and teaches English to asylum seekers in Dover whose stories break her heart Freda. The Stranger's Child Alan Hollinghurst, 2011-10-11 The Stranger s Child is Alan Hollinghurst s masterpiece the book that cements his position as one of the finest novelists of our time In its scope intelligence and elegance Sixteen year old Daphne Sawle is reading Tennyson in a hammock in the garden of Two Acres the family home in suburban London Her brother George arrives to visit with his Cambridge friend Cecil Valance a handsome assured and sometimes outrageous young man with a burgeoning reputation as a poet After a tantalizing and dramatic weekend Cecil writes a long poem in Daphne s autograph album as a parting gift It is titled Two Acres and both Daphne and George whose feelings for Cecil also go well beyond mere friendship immediately see how important the poem is but none of them can foresee the complex and lasting effects it will have on all their lives When the next section of the novel begins everything has changed Daphne is married to Cecil s brother Dudley Valance George to a historian named Madeleine and Cecil is dead killed by a sniper in World War One A Cabinet officer and man of letters named Sebastian Stokes is compiling an edition of Cecil s poems He is especially curious about Cecil s personal and passionate letters and unpublished poems papers that seem to have gone missing The book leaps forward to a party to celebrate Daphne s seventieth birthday We meet Peter Rowe a music teacher and his boyfriend Paul Bryant a bank employee with a feeling for Cecil s poetry Soon Paul is taking up an idea that Peter abandoned to write a biography of Cecil Valance It means making some startling discoveries about a past that the Valance family would prefer to keep in sepia and shadows The Stranger s Child is that rare thing a historical novel whose characters in their passions and betrayals constantly surprise the reader and will surely be read for generations to come

40 countries from all over the world to this year's ICCHP. Since the late 1980s it has been ICCHP's mission to support and reflect development in the field of Assistive Technologies, eAccessibility and eInclusion. With a focus on scientific quality, ICCHP has become an important reference in our field. The 2010 conference and this collection of papers once again fulfilled this mission. The International Programme Committee comprising 106 experts from all over the world selected 147 full and 44 short papers out of 328 abstracts submitted to ICCHP. This acceptance ratio of about half of the submissions demonstrates our strict pursuit of scientific quality both of the programme and in particular of the proceedings in your hands. An impressive number of experts agreed to organize Special Thematic Sessions (STS) for ICCHP 2010. These STS help to bring the meeting into sharper focus in several key areas. In turn, this deeper level of focus helps to collate a state of the art and mainstream technical, social, cultural and political developments.

Do Nice Guys Run for Congress? Former U.S. Congressman Don Manzullo, 2022-06-24. A country lawyer in northern Illinois, Don Manzullo ran for Congress, was sued by his Republican party to keep him off the ballot but persevered to beat the established politicians. In a fascinating and at times humorous account of his twenty years in Congress, he leads readers through battles involving trade, national security, manufacturing, protecting small business, people and children. He describes his journeys to foreign countries and meeting with the president of China. He blows through diplomatic channels to meet with Prime Minister Netanyahu on a volatile trade issue involving a constituent. Those interested in history, politics, the congressional process, the role of faith in a legislator's life and overcoming a serious reading and retention challenge will find Manzullo's legacy as a problem solver a must read. Once readers start, they will not be able to put it down.
