Frederic Church's Olana Architecture And Landscape As Art:

Frederic Church's Olana James Anthony Ryan, 2001 The landscape farm house and collections that comprise Olana are a work of art conceived and executed by the preeminent mid 19th century American landscape painter Frederic Edwin Church 1826 to 1900 Considered one of the most perfectly realized visions of harmony between people and their natural surroundings Olana is a landmark of Picturesque landscape gardening with a Persian inspired house at its summit embracing unrivaled panoramic views of the Hudson Valley A rare American confluence of art and farming aesthetics and conservation landscape painting and landscape design Olana represents a masterpiece of human creative genius Features 74 photographs 31 full color paintings and house interiors and a foreword by Franklin Kelly National Gallery of Art Frederic Church's Olana on the Hudson Julia B. Rosenbaum, Karen Zukowski, 2018-10-16 An in depth look inside Olana one of America's greatest estates which was designed and built by Frederic Church the most renowned of the Hudson River School painters Frederic Church the leader of the much loved group of artists known as the Hudson River School made his name as a painter of monumental landscapes in the mid 1800s helping to develop our vision of landscape and shaping the cultural identity of America He applied his artistic talent to the house and property that he named Olana known today as Olana State Historic Site and located in the heart of the beautiful Hudson River Valley The 250 acre naturalistic landscape surrounding the house is a work of art in itself and the magnificent views beyond Olana were an essential part of Church's composition which he carefully designed with an artist's eye to the property's 360 degree views of neighboring hills valleys the Hudson River and distant mountains Church was an observer of the cosmos and Olana set in the center of the Hudson River Valley was his laboratory of observation of all of nature Spectacular photography by Larry Lederman of Olana its landscape and house inside and out illustrates one of Church's greatest works of art The images many taken especially for this book have been shot in all seasons and all weather and include panoramic and aerial views sunsets detail shots of both the house and landscape as well as interior views of the house Essays will delve into Church and his inspirations and motivations illuminating not only the estate he built but also his work as an artist Treasures from Olana Frederic Edwin Church, Kevin J. Avery, 2005 The wide variety of selections from Frederic Edwin Church's collection of his own paintings shows the master in all phases of his career in sketches and finished paintings depicting the breadth of his subjects and the high technical skills that established him as an eminent and influential artist in his own time As works he held on to or reacquired and kept in his house during his lifetime they embody the heart of his artistic vision and convey a deeply personal slant As pictures he hung and lived with at Olana they tell the larger story of that extraordinary place and are as illuminating when seen in context as on their own from the Introduction Frederic Edwin Church 1826 1900 traveled the world captured its beauty in countless paintings and brought it home to live at Olana his castle on the Hudson The name was inspired by a reference Church found to a fortress or a treasury storehouse in ancient Persia This extraordinary selection of Church's paintings from his collection at Olana puts the most cherished of his treasures on full display in a volume that includes eighty color plates Church's paintings among the most acclaimed examples of art of the Hudson River School are found in museums and private collections around the globe However Church kept some of his art close by during his lifetime The rich collection that remains at Olana includes about seven hundred pieces including notebooks drawings and oils both sketches and completed canvases They cover the full range of Church's career chronologically and thematically The highlights from his personal collection are found in the touring exhibition that accompanies this book The introduction by John Wilmerding and a substantial essay by Kevin J Avery place the work into the context of Church's life and travels and examine Church's influences and the public reception of his art Throughout Treasures from Olana they discuss how profoundly Church's hilltop home and the surrounding landscape inspired and informed his work His paintings in turn illuminate Olana more than a century after his death The Olana Partnership Hudson N Y and New York State's Office of Parks Recreation and Historic Preservation Albany N Y organized Treasures from Olana Landscapes by Frederic Edwin Church Frederic Church John K. Howat, Frederic Edwin Church, 2005-01-01 One of Thomas Cole's illustrious pupils at an early age Church became a key figure associated with the Hudson River School His adventurous international travels and the paintings that resulted from his expeditions brought him far reaching attention and his pictures often commanded record breaking sums Church's friendships and interests religion history literature music architecture agriculture and science as well as his skills as a crafty entrepreneur are explored Beautiful reproductions of Church's extraordinary home Olana which one can visit today in eastern New York are also featured BOOK JACKET Cartographic Expeditions and Visual Culture in the Nineteenth-Century Americas Ernesto Capello, Julia B. Rosenbaum, 2020-11-16 During the nineteenth century gridding graphing and surveying proliferated as never before as nations and empires expanded into hitherto unknown territories Though nominally geared toward justifying territorial claims and collecting scientific data expeditions also produced vast troves of visual and artistic material This book considers the explosion of expeditionary mapping and its links to visual culture across the Americas arguing that acts of measurement are also aesthetic acts Such visual interventions intersect with new technologies with sociopolitical power and conflict and with shifting public tastes and consumption practices Several key questions shape this examination What kinds of nineteenth century visual practices and technologies of seeing do these materials engage How does scientific knowledge get translated into the visual and disseminated to the public What are the commonalities and distinctions in mapping strategies between North and South America How does the constitution of expeditionary lines reorder space and the natural landscape itself The volume represents the first transnational and hemispheric analysis of nineteenth century cartographic aesthetics and features the multi disciplinary perspective of historians geographers and art historians Frederic Church's Olana as the Manifestation of a Changing Personal and Professional Identity Natalie Lynn Mann, 2010 Phenomenological Perspectives on Place, Lifeworlds, and
