Frederic Leighton Antiquity Renaissance Modernity Paul Mellon Centre For Studies In Britis:

British Aestheticism and the Urban Working Classes, 1870-1900 D. Maltz, 2005-11-22 This cultural study reveals the interdependence between British Aestheticism and late Victorian social reform movements Following their mentor John Ruskin who believed in art's power to civilize the poor cultural philanthropists promulgated a Religion of Beauty as they advocated practical schemes for tenement reform university settlement education Sunday museum opening and High Anglican revival Although subject to novelist's ambivalent even satirical representations missionary aesthetes nevertheless constituted an influential social network imbuing fin de siècle artistic communities with political purpose and political lobbies with aesthetic sensibility

The Edwardian Sense Morna O'Neill, Michael Hatt, 2010 This is the twentieth in a series of occasional volumes devoted to studies in British art published by the Yale Center for British Art and the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art and distributed by Yale University Press Book Jacket

Performance, Fashion and the Modern Interior Fiona Fisher, Trevor Keeble, Patricia Lara-Betancourt, 2011-11-22 An international assessment of how the last 150 years of interior design have been influenced by the clothes people wear and the desire to create drama and social rituals

After the Pre-Raphaelites Elizabeth Prettejohn, 1999 Victorian aestheticism is reinterpreted here as a significant exploration of what it might mean to produce works of art in the modern world This study addresses not only art for art's sake but its links with science and morality

Manifestations of Venus Katie Scott, Caroline Arscott, 2000 Jews on trial concentrates on Inquisitorial activity during the period which historians have argued was the most active in the Inquisition's history the first forty years of the tribunal in Modena from 1598 to 1638 the year of the Jews' enclosure in the ghetto Scholars have in the past tended to group trials of Jews and conversos in Italy together This book emphasises the fundamental disparity in Inquisitorial procedure as well as the evidence examined and argues that this was especially true in Modena where the secular authority did not have the power during the period in question to reject or even significantly monitor Inquisitorial trial procedure It draws upon the detailed testimony to be found in trial transcripts to analyse Jewish interaction with Christian society in an early modern community This book will appeal to scholars of inquisitorial studies social and cultural interaction in early modern Europe Jewish Italian social history and anti-Semitism

English Art, 1860-1914 David Peters Corbett, Lara Perry, 2000 In one of the first studies of its kind Orphan texts seeks to insert the orphan and the problems its existence poses in the larger critical areas of the family and childhood in Victorian culture In doing so Laura Peters considers certain canonical texts alongside lesser known works from popular culture in order to establish the context in which discourses of orphanhood operated The study argues that the prevalence of the orphan figure can be explained by considering the family The family and all it came to represent legitimacy race and national belonging was in crisis In order to reaffirm itself the family needed a scapegoat it found one in the orphan figure As one who embodied the loss of the family the orphan figure came to represent a dangerous threat to the family and the family reaffirmed itself through the expulsion of this threatening difference Orphan texts will be of interest to final year undergraduates postgraduates academics and those interested in the areas of Victorian literature Victorian studies postcolonial studies history and popular culture Frederic, Lord Leighton, 1830-1896 Frederic Leighton Baron Leighton of Stretton, Christopher Newall, 2009 Step into the classical world of the most prominent artist of the Victorian era through this sumptuous volume featuring a selection of his work

English Accents Christiana Payne, 2018-01-18 In the century following the foundation of the Royal Academy in 1768 British art had an international reputation prints spread knowledge of the work of British artists around the globe and it was widely seen as the product of a modern commercial society and much admired by artists as diverse as Goya in Spain Delacroix in France and Bierstadt in America In recent years scholars working on this period have become increasingly aware of the international context of their subject but there has been no systematic analysis of the reception of British art abroad This collection of essays looks at the uses made of the paintings of Reynolds Hogarth Lawrence and their contemporaries on the continent of Europe and in the colonies and ex colonies of Australia and America The authors go beyond the simple issue of influence to consider how ideas and artistic conventions originating in the British Isles were adapted appropriated or resisted in these new environments In the process some surprising views of British art emerge demonstrating how a multi faceted view from the outside can correct and enrich the narrative produced within a national school and revealing some of the important connections that are obscured when art is studied as it so often is within narrow national boundaries School of Genius James Fenton, 2006-05-31 This landmark publication is a meticulously researched and highly illustrated portrait of the Royal Academy of Arts London a unique institution that is both museum and art school and is run entirely by and for artists With unlimited access to the wonderful archives in the Royal Academy Library and interviews with members of the Academy author James Fenton provides a scholarly yet accessible and entertaining history of the institution whose first president was Sir Joshua Reynolds As an objective onlooker Fenton interweaves colorful Academy characters and intrigues with hard facts shifts in policy and changes in direction that anticipate or respond to events of the time In particular he looks at the Academy over the 20th century the storms the Academy has weathered its successes and failures and its hopes and plans for the future The Literate Eye Rachel Teukolsky, 2009-07-23 In Victorian Britain authors produced a luminous and influential body of writings about the visual arts From John Ruskin s five volume celebration of J M W Turner to Walter Pater s essays on the Italian Renaissance Victorian writers disseminated a new idea in the nineteenth century that art spectatorship could provide one of the most intense and meaningful forms of human experience In The Literate Eye Rachel Teukolsky analyzes the vivid archive of Victorian art writing to reveal the key role played by nineteenth century authors in the rise of modernist aesthetics Though traditional accounts locate a break between Victorian values and the experimental styles of the twentieth century Teukolsky traces how certain art writers promoted a formalism that would come to dominate canons of twentieth century art Well known texts by Ruskin Pater and Wilde appear alongside lesser known texts drawn from the rich field of Victorian print culture including gallery reviews scientific treatises satirical cartoons and tracts on early photography Spanning the years 1840 to 1910 her argument lends a new understanding to the transition from Victorianism to modernism a period of especially lively exchange between artists and intellectuals here narrated with careful attention to the historical particularities and real events that informed British aesthetic values Lavishly illustrated and marked by meticulous research The Literate Eye offers an eloquent argument for the influence of Victorian art culture on the museum worlds of modernism in a revisionary account that ultimately relocates the notion of the modern to the heart of the nineteenth century Bibliographie D'histoire de L'art, 1991 Art Journal, 1960 Bernardo Celentano (1835-1863).

Art for Art's Sake Elizabeth Prettejohn, 2007 In the London circles of Dante Gabriel Rossetti and Frederic Leighton the notion of art for art's sake became a shared concern if art is not created for the sake of preaching a moral lesson or supporting a political cause or making a fortune or any other objective what might art be Art historian Elizabeth Prettejohn traces the emergence of the debates over this issue in the 1860s and 1870s focusing especially on the Rossetti Whistler Leighton and other protagonists of the Aesthetic Movement and their paintings some of the most haunting and memorable images in modern art The English painters search for the formula to best express the idea of art for art's sake was a unified
