Jakoubek,Heather Lehr Wagner,2009 Presents a biography of the Baptist minister and civil rights leader whose philosophy and practice of nonviolent civil disobedience helped African Americans win many battles for equal rights Implicit Racial Bias Across the Law Justin D. Levinson,Robert J. Smith,2012-04-23 This book explores how scientific evidence on the human mind might help to explain why racial equality is so elusive Through the lens of powerful and pervasive implicit racial attitudes and stereotypes it examines both the continued subordination of historically disadvantaged groups and the legal system s complicity in the subordination The Healing of a Nation: The Struggles and Achievements of the Reconstruction Presidents Pasquale De Marco,2025-08-10 In the aftermath of the Civil War the United States faced the daunting task of reuniting a divided nation and addressing the deep wounds left by slavery and secession The Reconstruction Era a tumultuous period that spanned from 1865 to 1877 witnessed four presidents Abraham Lincoln Andrew Johnson Ulysses S Grant and Rutherford

B Hayes grapple with the challenges of Reconstruction and shape its course This book offers a comprehensive examination of the Reconstruction Era through the lens of these four presidents It explores their policies decisions and legacies shedding light on the complexities of Reconstruction and its lasting impact on American history Abraham Lincoln whose Emancipation Proclamation set the stage for the end of slavery envisioned a Reconstruction that would prioritize reconciliation and the restoration of the Union His successor Andrew Johnson pursued a more lenient approach which ultimately led to conflict with Congress and his impeachment Ulysses S Grant a victorious Union general took a more forceful approach enforcing federal laws to protect the civil rights of African Americans and combating the rise of white supremacist groups like the Ku Klux Klan Rutherford B Hayes the last of the Reconstruction presidents sought to bring an end to the era of Reconstruction and promote national unity even at the cost of compromising on the goals of equality and justice for African Americans Through a detailed analysis of the actions and legacies of these four presidents this book provides a nuanced understanding of the Reconstruction Era It explores the political and social forces that shaped their decisions the challenges they faced and the consequences of their policies It also examines the Reconstruction Era s impact on American society culture and politics and its enduring legacy in the fight for racial justice and equality This book is essential reading for anyone interested in American history the Reconstruction Era or the presidency It offers a fresh perspective on this critical period in American history providing a deeper understanding of the challenges triumphs and failures of Reconstruction and their lasting impact on the nation If you like this book write a review

Hidden Practices Frederick Douglass,2009      A Search of African American Life, Achievement and Culture John C. Cothran,2006 Reviews the accomplishments courage and struggles of African Americans over the past 500 years      Color Purple & All That Jazz!: African American Achievements in the Arts Carole Marsh,2011-03-01 Kids will learn how black art is used to share ideas communicate feelings and impart wisdom and how creativity brings joy and inspiration to our lives And most importantly how it isn t limited to famous or the talented you to can be an artist This 35 page reproducible book is a sampling of the talent from the past and present One of the most wonderful things you ll discover is that some of the sweetest words come from the simplest things said by people who were not necessarily professionals And professional or amateur black art like the color purple is for sharing We are all grateful for the contributions made and the joy they have brought to our lives      Frederick Douglass Melissa Banta,1993 A biography of the man who after escaping slavery became an orator writer and leader in the anti slavery movement in the nineteenth century      Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? Beverly Tatum,2003-01-17 The classic bestselling book on the psychology of racism now fully revised and updated Walk into any racially mixed high school and you will see Black White and Latino youth clustered in their own groups Is this self segregation a problem to address or a coping strategy Beverly Daniel Tatum a renowned authority on the psychology of racism argues that straight talk about our racial identities is essential if we are serious about enabling communication across racial and ethnic divides These topics have only become more urgent as the national conversation about race is increasingly acrimonious This fully revised edition is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the dynamics of race in America An unusually sensitive work about the racial barriers that still divide us in so many areas of life Jonathan Kozol      To Make Our World Anew: A History of African Americans Robin D. G. Kelley, Earl Lewis, 2000-05-30 Written by the most prominent of the new generation of historians this superb volume offers the most up to date and authoritative account available of African American history ranging from the first Africans brought as slaves into the Americas to today's black filmmakers and politicians Here is a panoramic view of African American life rich in gripping first person accounts and short character sketches that invite readers to relive history as African Americans experienced it We begin in Africa with the growth of the slave trade and follow the forced migration of what is estimated to be between ten and twenty million people witnessing the terrible human cost of slavery in the colonies of England and Spain We read of the Haitian Revolution which ended victoriously in 1804 with the birth of the first independent black nation in the New World and of slave rebellions and resistance in the United States in the years leading up to the Civil War There are vivid accounts of the Civil War and Reconstruction years the backlash of notorious Jim Crow laws and mob lynchings and the founding of key black educational institutions The contributors also trace the migration of blacks to the major cities the birth of the Harlem Renaissance the hardships of the Great Depression and the service of African Americans in World War II the struggle for Civil Rights in the 1950s and 60s and the emergence of today's black middle class From Harriet Tubman and Frederick Douglass to Martin Luther King Jr and Louis Farrakhan To Make Our World Anew is an unforgettable portrait of a people      Frederick Douglass Peter C. Myers, 2008 An intellectual portrait of the iconic 19th century slave and abolitionist who took the lead in applying the Founders doctrine of natural rights to the plight of African Americans Reveals how Douglass's vision still guides contemporary liberalism      African Americans and Gentrification in Washington, D.C. Dr Sabiyha Prince, 2014-02-28 This book uses qualitative data to explore the experiences and ideas of African Americans confronting and constructing gentrification in Washington D C It contextualizes Black Washingtonians perspectives on belonging and attachment during a marked period of urban restructuring and demographic change in the Nation's Capital and sheds light on the process of social hierarchies and standpoints unfolding over time African Americans and Gentrification in Washington D C emerges as a portrait of a heterogeneous African American population wherein members define their identity and culture as a people informed by the impact of injustice on the urban landscape It presents oral history and ethnographic data on current and former African American residents of D C and combines these findings with analyses from institutional statistical and scholarly reports on wealth inequality shortages in affordable housing and rates of unemployment Prince contends that gentrification seizes upon and fosters uneven development vulnerability and alienation and contributes to classed and racialized tensions in affected communities in a book that will interest social scientists working in the fields of critical urban studies and urban ethnography African Americans and Gentrification in Washington D C will also invigorate discussions of neoliberalism critical whiteness studies and race relations in the 21st Century     Lincoln Reshapes the Presidency Charles M. Hubbard, 2003 How Abraham Lincoln redefined the presidency
