Frederick Hart Sculptor:

Frederick Hart Frederick Hart, Michael Novak, 2005 Frederick Hart's sculpture is at once traditional in its adherence to the importance of the human figure and radical in its sensuality and innovative use of materials. This publication is a comprehensive look into the life and talent of a classical sculptor whose passion for the spiritual and figurative aspects of his craft is represented in both his public commissions and private work. Daughters of Odessa, one of Hart's masterworks, is traced from its first inspiration to the final bronze. The Creation Sculptures, which grace the west facade of Washington National Cathedral, are explored in an in-depth analysis of his epic interpretation of Creation. Hart's public monuments, including Three Soldiers at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial, are brought to life through the artist's own writings. Additionally, new works are comprehensively explored, building from the previous book Frederick Hart Sculptor 1994, now in its fifth printing. 12 colour, 83 b/w illustrations.

Frederick Hart Frederick Hart, 2007 Before his death in 1999, Frederick Hart was hailed as America's greatest living sculptor. His powerful and inspirational figurative creations, for such venues as the National Cathedral and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial, changed the face of American art. Inspired by the great classical sculptors Michelangelo and Rodin, Hart single-handedly revived the classical form in monumental pieces, the complexity, size, and beauty of which are rightly compared to works of the Old Masters. This magnificent book is published as Hart's catalogue raisonné, a detailed showcase of his relatively short lifetime of extraordinary production, timed to coincide with the largest Hart retrospective and exhibit ever mounted at the University of Louisville from September to November 2007. Essays by Donald Kuspit and Frederick Turner accompany hundreds of impressive color plates. Also included is an extensive chronology, bibliography, and index of Hart's works. Butler Books is proud to announce that Frederick Hart: The Complete Works was awarded the Silver Medal for Excellence in the national Fine Arts category of the 2008 Independent Publisher Book Awards.

Frederick Hart, Sculptor Frederick Hart, Tom Wolfe, Homan Potterton, 1994 This glorious tribute to a contemporary master of humanist art covers his Vietnam Veterans Memorial, Three Soldiers, National Cathedral, Creation, doors, and acrylic works.

The Myth of Romantic Love and Other Essays Michael Novak, 2017-07-28 Written by noted Catholic philosopher Michael Novak, the selections in The Myth of Romantic Love and Other Essays highlight the arc of his intellectual career. Collectively demonstrating the fundamental unity of Novak's work, the sixteen essays in this book span a broad range of political, economic, and social topics. The selections offer clarity of thinking for the sake of concrete ends. For example, The Myth of Romantic Love, the chapter from which the title of this work is drawn, sharply distinguishes the love that popular culture portrays from the true Christian vision of love. And The Family out of Favor argues if things go well with the family life is worth living when the family falters life falls apart Thus true Christian love manifest in marriage and family life is a greater resource for civilized society than any other institution Although this collection shows that Novak s viewpoints did evolve over time he remains a thinker that is clearly rooted in the ancient and medieval Catholic tradition From his discussions of gender relations to economics culture and politics his perspective honors the primacy of man and his immediate experience and thereby ultimately glorifies the Creator Novak s writing will infuriate some readers and inspire many others but both comrades in arms and intellectual opponents will find the clarity and intensity of his writings undeniable
